MARY HAWORTH

Man And Wife Dispute Child-Care Arrangement

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am pressing my neighbor to take care of my two little girls, four and four years of age. She loves them and they like her very much. We live in a rural community and last week when my husband and I were out on the island, I saw our two little girls with the two sons of our neighbor.

Was this instance any of his business? He didn't follow them home, nor did he ever say anything to their disapproving of the situation. Whose side should I take? I am eagerly awaiting your reply, which I hope will be soon.

ELLEN'S DIARY

A Sunless Day Brings A Night Without Stars

A sunless day, this was a night without stars. For veils our surrounding this morning, the light July wind was damp. It seemed as though the great Arranger of sun and cloud, of planets and stars, mindful of mankind and its innumerable and varied wishes, had made the weather so, deferring the farmer's first sayings because somewhere a poor farmwife who enjoyed her garden is, had been wishing for just such a day as this was.

NEW MANY WEAR FALSE TEETH

With More Comfort

FALSETEETH, a pleasant alkaline (non-sterile) powder, holds false teeth more firmly to gum and talk in more comfort. Just apply a little FALSETEETH on your plates. No sunbony, sticky, dusty taste or odor. No "plastic odor" (denture breath). Get FALSETEETH at any drug counter.

BANANA-SPLIT SALADS

from the BEST KITCHEN

You can adapt this ice cream parlor favorite for summer salad luncheon by putting scoops of cottage cheese on banana "splits" in lettuce cups. Sauce them with fresh fruits of your choice... sugared, in a syrup, or slightly mashed and mixed with a little mayonnaise. Garnish with sprigs of mint. Pretty as a picture, and high in good quality protein, courtesy of the cottage cheese!
