Mr. Garry Rea Airth, Charlottetown, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray, this village.

There was a large attendance at the Thanksgiving service in the Redeque United Church on Sunday morning, October 14th. The Church was nicely decorated for the occasion. Mr. Gordon MacCallum, Charlottetown, was the guest soloist. An impressive address was delivered by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Cowper-Smith.

Delegates from the United Church Sunday School attended the M. R. E. C. Convention in Charlottetown on October 16 and 17.

A service of unusual interest was held in the Baptist Church at Central Bedeque, on Sunday evening, October 14th, when six students of Mt. Allison University, delighted the large audience with musical numbers, consisting of male quartets, solos, and duets and violin selections, by Mr. Edward Eagles, Moncton. All these were beautifully rendered. Mr. John Huntjens a theological student, conducted the service. In the morning he gave the address and other members of the group gave several musical numbers, which were all much appreciated. Those who were privileged to hear these talented young men were very pleased with the service of song. Their accompanist was Mr. Alden Leard, teacher at the University. BQ
