First Baptist Senior WMS Receives Legacies Of $1000

The Senior Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church, Charlottetown, held their annual meeting in the church auditorium, Dec. 10, with twenty-one present. Mrs. H. J. Huggan presided. A Christmas devotional service was led by Mrs. Edwin Cook. Scripture passages were read by Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. J. Sentaer, and Mrs. P. J. Sentaer, and Mrs. David Wright closed the period with prayer.

Annual reports showed good progress. Total membership 28. Six sick calls were made during the year. Two legacies of $500.00 each, were gratefully received by the society.

The following officers were appointed for 1960: Honorary - president: Mrs. Samuel Campbell; president: Mrs. L. S. Webster; first vice - president: Mrs. H. J. Huggan; second vice - president: Mrs. Edwin Cook; secretary: Mrs. D. N. Bell; treasurer: Mrs. P. J. Sentaer, reading course superintendent: Mrs. T. G. Ives; tidings agent: Mrs. Charles Hamm; tidings reporter: Mrs. A. M. Gregory; sick call committee: Mrs. Herbert Horne, and Mrs. P. J. Proud.

Mrs. H. L. Milton moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. H. J. Huggan, who has so capably acted as president since the death of Mrs. J. A. Clark; and to Mrs. L. S. Webster, who has been our faithful, and efficient treasurer for many years. A new member Mrs. E. F. Acora, was welcomed to the society.

The members then were entertained by a wonderful Mission Band program, which was followed by a party, sponsored by the Senior Missionary Society, and the Dr. Zella Clark Mission Circle.

KINGSTON W. M. S.
The annual meeting of the Kingston United Church Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Willard Proud on Dec. 1st.

The theme for the meeting was "The Claims of the Mission." Mrs. Lyman Newson had charge of the worship service which opened with hymn, Silent Night, followed by prayer by leader. The different passages of scripture were read by several members. The missionary prayer was given by Mrs. Zylpha Newson. Mrs. Lorne Smith read from the study book.

Roll call was responded to by ten members with a verse of scripture. There was one visitor present. The offering for the evening amounted to $4.30. Mite Boxes and Birthday box were opened, realizing the sum of $29.50. Mrs. Lyman Newson thanked members for Sympathy Card. The election of officers took place
