

Reinholz - Newell Wedding

Miss Barbara Ann Newell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Newell was united in marriage Sunday afternoon, August 3, at the Baptist Church in Lochmere, New Hampshire, to Corporal Marshall N. Reinholz, son of Mrs. Mabelle F. Reinholz of Belmont.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. W. Fitzpatrick, pastor of the church.

The bride who was given a marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown, with charmingly white lace and trim finger-tip lace bodice and trim finger-tip lace veil and Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of a nest of carnations, with streamers, white carnations, with streamers.

The maid of honor was Miss Betty Newell, sister of the bride, who was gowned in a lilac, nylon net and lace ballerina-length gown with a lilac picture hat. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

Bridesmaid Judy Johnson wore a gown of pink, nylon net ballerina-length and a pink bandeau hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow roses.

Miss Ramona Newell, sister of the bride, wore a blue nylon net ballerina-length dress with a blue bandeau hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

The best man was Robert Reinholz, brother of the bridegroom. Other attendants were a groom, Lansing Reinholz and brother, Lansing Reinholz and Robinson Goodwin, a cousin of the bridegroom.

The ushers were brothers of the bridegroom, Lansing and Larson Reinholz.

Miss Hazel Tinkham of Belmont was organist, and the soloist was Mrs. Ruth Barnard, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

Miss Jean Newell, mother of the bride, was gowned in navy blue lace with corsage.

Mrs. Mabelle Reinholz, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in a light blue print on a white background and wore a corsage.

The church was decorated with cut flowers, including a large variety of mixed gladioli.

A reception was held for 125 relatives and friends on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Borden.

Cut flowers and plants decorated the lawn.

Refreshments were served from decorated tables and included a variety of sandwiches, small cakes, cookies, ice cream with strawberries, cake and punch.

A beautiful three-tier wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom. The cake was decorated in white and a bride and groom ornament. The ornament was one which was used on a cake for the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wise of Prince Edward Island, Canada, at their 50th wedding anniversary.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Reinholz left by auto, for a honeymoon trip to an unannounced destination. The bride's travelling costume was a navy blue and white suit, white hat, white shoes and accessories.

The bride graduated from the Tilton-Northfield High School in the Class of 1951 and has been employed in the John Hancock Insurance office in Boston, Mass.

The bridegroom attended the Wethersfield High School in Connecticut and is now a corporal in the United States Marine Corps, stationed at Cherry Point, N. C.

Miss Betty Johnson of Tilton and Boston had charge of the guest book.

Many beautiful gifts were received.

Robinson-MacIsaac Wedding

A honeymoon in Boston and Washington followed the marriage of Shirley Agnes MacIsaac, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacIsaac and John Benson Robinson, son of Mrs. Florence and the late J. Benson Robinson, which was solemnized in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, St. John's, N. B. Rev. Raymond Riley officiated at the wedding. Professor Valcuenas played the wedding music and Douglas McNulty was soloist. Her sister Miss Phyllis MacIsaac, attended the bride and the best man was Donald O'Neil.

Mauve and pink gladioli were used for the decoration of the altar and the guests were ushered to special pews marked by white satin bows. The ushers were Messrs. Harold Kemp and Patrick Brown.

The bride's ballerina-length gown of white nylon over taffeta had a jacket of lace which was buttoned to the waist. The long sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap of flowers. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and gladioli.

The bridesmaid's gown was of mauve nylon over taffeta in ballerina-length and her headpiece, a bandeau of mauve tulle. She carried a nosegay of mauve and pink sweet peas.

The bride's mother chose a dress of cinnamon brown with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother chose a pale grey two-piece suit of silk with mauve hat and accessories, with a corsage of mauve sweet-peas.

A wedding reception was held at the Royal Hotel and Mr. Kemp proposed the toast to the bride.

Leaving on her wedding trip, the bride wore a pale blue suit with white hat and accessories. She chose a corsage of pink roses. The couple will reside on Princess Street.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas French, Mr. and Mrs. Percy French, Harold Kemp and Ferdinand Veniot of Moncton, Mr. Frank Arsenault, Mr. and Mrs. Ben DesRoches, Mrs. Dorice Gallant, and Preston MacIsaac of Pembroke, Ontario.

Barbara Brent's BUYS AND WHYS

MONTREAL, September 4th—Getting ready for happy indoor living this winter? Here's my suggestion—Ask to see the colourful new DOMOLITE designs at your favourite department or variety store. Domolite is that famous vinylite plastic fabric that's so easy to sew. You can make dressing-table covers, kitchen and bathroom curtains and drapes that need no hemming—for Domolite won't fray. And it cleans like a dream—just wipe with a damp cloth—no ironing. It wears and wears—repels moisture, oil and dirt. Inexpensive, too! Ask for Domolite (made by Dominion Oilcloth and Linoleum Company). And write to me—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q.—for free, illustrated literature on what you can make with Domolite.

I Think Grape Jelly is one of the best-tasting jellies there is. So do the family! But you know, it's only the home-made kind made with those glorious, rich-purple grapes and CERTO FRUIT PECTIN, that they really beg for! Of course, made with Certo, jams and jellies always turn out perfectly. Yes, every time if you follow the recipe exactly. Beautifully set—full of the true fruit flavor—a richer flavor, because unlike the old-days, with Certo you can "jell" july-ripe fruits. And, I find I get up to 50% more jam or jelly from the same amount of fruit... while saving myself 2/3 of the time of the former long-boil method. All I do is follow the simple recipes in the booklet, under the label of each bottle of Certo.

Takes Just A Jiffy for your youngsters to dress themselves when they can zip-plip into their clothes. Yes, there are dozens of reasons why zippers are the thing for your youngsters' clothes—and why LIGHTNING SLIDE FASTENERS are the zippers to use. Canada's original fastener that always works is the only zipper with the automatic lock that locks where it stops. Yet it unzips with ease when you want it to. Yes, Lightning Slide Fasteners make quick work of dressing and undressing and they stay secure—work or play. Want to know more about them? Here's a GIFT FOR YOU... just write to me—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q.—for your free copy of the helpful set of leaflets—"What to Know About Slide Fasteners", with new and easy sewing instructions.

Another Beautiful Woodbury Bride, Marianna Delacorte, was married recently. Her gown of ecru silk taffeta brought out the beauty of her radiant, soft complexion... kept lovely by years of care with WOODBURY FACIAL SOAP. You see, the mild, creamy lather of Woodbury Facial Soap leaves skin radiantly smooth, younger-looking. While some soaps tend to dry sensitive skin, Woodbury Facial Soap actually softens it. That's because to every cake of Woodbury Soap, skin scientists add a beauty-cream ingredient—the same softening oil used in fine face creams. Try Woodbury Soap for bride-beautiful skin! And try the Woodbury Big Beauty Bath Size—for all-over loveliness.

Nobody Likes To Be Called "Old Grumpy". So when a sluggish, head-achy feeling has you acting like a "grump", better do something about it. Quickest way I know to trade in those "Blues" for lots of sunshine is to drink a glass of SAL HEPATICA. Yes, a sparkling glass of Sal Hepatica effervescent salts taken before breakfast will work quickly, yet gently, to relieve that uncomfortable feeling in your stomach. Sal Hepatica laxative salts are a trusted family laxative in our house. They work wonders to sweeten sour stomach—as a mild laxative thorough remedy for constipation. Yes, there's always a supply of Sal Hepatica in my medicine cabinet. For what's more important than feeling good about being alive?

It's The Thriftest Buy Of All at pickling time. That's the big gallon jug of HEINZ WHITE VINEGAR. It saves you more than 2½¢ a cupful as compared with smaller containers. And it makes the best pickles you've ever tasted. Small wonder!—for Heinz White Vinegar is distilled and sealed by the firm who made pickles famous. It's full-bodied in flavour—uniform in strength... it preserves the crisp texture and colour of your pickles to perfection. Something else to help you with your pickling is Heinz FREE RECIPE BOOKLET—"Pickling Success". You should have it! So if the gallon jug you buy doesn't have it attached—just write to me for it—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q.

Are You Planning A Fall Wedding? I'm sure you're busier than you've ever been in your life—but when all the excitement has died down, here's something I'd like you to remember. Something every bride should know about is that truly satisfactory method of feminine hygiene... ZONITORS. Zonitors are greaseless, stainless, snow-white vaginal suppositories—dainty and convenient to use—powerfully germicidal, yet absolutely safe to delicate tissues. Ask your druggist for Zonitors... and for some important facts about feminine hygiene, write to me—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q. A free booklet will be sent to you in a plain wrapper.

LONDON—(CP)—Back in London after a year in Ottawa as an exchange teacher, Beryl Ames said she found Canadian children more friendly than British children. "But they seem to have less respect for the teachers," she added.

BERWICK, Northumberland, England—(CP)—The tug Fellican sank on land. As it left the shipyard for export to Brazil, its trailer wheels sank into the roadway. A winch couldn't move it and it was finally rescued by two trucks and a powerful tractor.

Nolan-MacEachern Wedding

St. Bonaventure Church, Tracadie, was the scene of a pretty wedding on July 28 when Eunice Rosetta, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte MacEachern and the late John MacEachern of Canavoy, became the bride of Ivan Bernard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nolan of St. Peter's Lake.

Rev. K. C. MacPherson performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother John, wore an ankle length gown of white lace and nylon net over taffeta. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion fell from a lace coronet, and she carried a white prayer book, a gift of the groom.

Miss Myrtle Nolan, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, dressed in pink nylon over taffeta with matching headdress, and carried a white prayer book.

The groomsmen were Mr. Donald MacEachern, brother of the bride. Appropriate hymns were rendered by the Sisters of St. Martha.

Following the ceremony a reception for the members of the immediate families was held at the Queen Hotel, after which the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia. For travelling the bride wore a powder blue suit with navy accessories.

On their return a reception was held for their immediate relatives at the home of the groom's parents.

Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower, by her friends and relatives in Stoughton, Mass., at the home of her cousin, Frederick MacEachern, and also one at the home of Mrs. Raymond Trainor, Canavoy. The bride and

Squarebriggs - Osborne Wedding

A wedding of interest to many friends was solemnized at the patronage of Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, August 23, when at two o'clock, Rev. J. Irwin united in marriage Verna Marguerite Osborne, daughter of Jarvis Osborne, Moncton, and the late Mrs. Osborne, and Austin Haywood Squarebriggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Squarebriggs, Charlottetown, Mr. and Mrs. Duke Neilson, Charlottetown, were the attendants.

The bride wore a grey gabardine suit, navy velvet hat with feather trim, navy accessories and corsage of red roses. Mrs. Neilson wore a red suit with navy hat and accessories and corsage of Talisman roses.

Following the ceremony the young couple left on a wedding trip through the Maritimes. On their return they will reside in Charlottetown where the groom is with the Maritime central Airways. The bride has been soloist with Don Messer and His Islanders.

A reception was held for the bride and groom at the summer home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart E. Moore, Mechanic, N. B., when the guests were the immediate relatives of the bride. The lace covered table was centred with a three tier wedding cake and the rooms were bright with summer flowers.

Mrs. Elmer Wallace, aunt of the bride, entertained in her honor at her residence, Maple Avenue. Suggestive of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan will reside at St. Peter's Lake, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

sex, at an afternoon tea. The table was covered with a white linen cloth and centred with a crystal bowl of summer flowers flanked with white tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Stuart E. Moore and Mrs. Walter Kyle poured, while Miss Joan Simpson, Mrs. Harry Kyle and Mrs. George Moore served. Gifts of silver and crystal were presented the honor guest. About twenty relatives were present.
