

Local and Other Items.

SCOTT ACT.—Three new Scott Act summaries have been served.

THE MAILS.—Double mails from both Picton and Point du Cluene to-night.

CIVIC.—Regular monthly meeting of the City Council on Monday evening next.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—The railway authorities advertise the usual half fares in another column.

S. S. MIRANDA.—Attention is directed to certain changes in the sailings of the S. S. Miranda. See advertisement.

SPENDIARY MAGISTRATE'S COURT.—One drunk constituted the docket this morning. He was sent down for thirty days.

THE BILLIARD EXHIBITION.—The greatest billiard player of the age gives an exhibition at the Old London Billiard Hall to-night.

SOLD.—The schooner reported ashore off the north side off East Point is the Margaret Jane. She was sold to-day for the benefit of those concerned.

TELEPHONIC.—The Telephone Exchange will be removed in a few days to Hogan's brick building, Keat Street, the former site of the North American Hotel.

FOOTBALL.—There will be a Football Match at the Park on Saturday afternoon next. Abegweits vs. Allomers. There will probably be another match on Thanksgiving Day.

THE LAST SAD RITES.—The funeral of Mrs. Captain Fraser took place to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to Roman Catholic Cemetery, at nine o'clock this morning, and was largely attended.

SCOTT ACT! SCOTT ACT!—All committees and all temperance workers and friends of the cause are invited to a meeting this evening in Division Room, J. D. McLeod's Hall at 8 o'clock, p. m., sharp.

VERY IMPORTANT.—Young man, your presence is very important at the Christian Workers' Training Class, this evening, in the Y. M. C. A. Parlor, at 8 o'clock, promptly. Union meeting of both classes this evening.

SACRAMENTAL.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in the Presbyterian Churches of Souris and Abnandale on Sunday last. The Rev. A. B. McLeod, of Mount Stewart, assisted the pastor on both occasions.

THE BOSTON STEAMER.—The Steamer Carroll, Capt. Brown, sailed for Boston at four o'clock this afternoon, with a cargo of general merchandise and the following passengers: Minnie Burns, Annie Joy, Jessie Sutherland and A. McNeill.

L. O. F.—Wildy Lodge, No. 27, meets to-night (being the first regular meeting under the new rule). A full attendance is requested as degree work and other very important business will be transacted. The Degree Staff will please be punctual.

PROOF POSITIVE.—"Now, do you really love me, George?" "Love you!" repeated George fervently. "Why, while I was bidding you good-bye at the door last night, dear, the dog bit a large chunk out of my leg, and I never noticed it until I got home. Love you?"

FROZEN POTATOES.—We learn that a great many potatoes were injured by the late cold snap. Farmers who had them stored in barns and outhouses, preparatory to shipping, have lost heavily through the unusually early visit of Jack Frost. The probability is that we are going to have an early winter.

DEATH OF AN ACTRESS.—Mrs. Annie Clarke, wife of Charles H. Clarke, comedian, formerly of Wilson & Clarke, died in Boston on Friday last. Mrs. Clarke was well known to many of our citizens, having been a member of the Wilson & Clarke Dramatic Company which performed in this city about fourteen years ago.

LAUNCH.—Mr. Thomas Kichham, M. L. C., launched a fine new schooner at Souris West last week. She is now loading with produce for the Newfoundland market. She is admitted to be one of the handsomest vessels ever built in Souris, and reflects great credit upon her master builder, Mr. William Chaisson, of Roly Bay.

HEAD WINDS.—The brig, Billow Crest, Capt. Elias Smith, from Plymouth, England, and chartered to load at the western part of the Island, arrived at Souris on Wednesday morning. The Captain reports that he has been nine days trying to get up along the north side of the Island, and met with nothing but head winds and heavy weather, which carried away some of his flying sails.

AN ISLANDER ABROAD.—Mr. L. E. Macleod, formerly of the Summerside Journal, but now attached to the staff of Wallace's Monthly, New York, was one of the judges of horses at the Delaware County fair, held at Elwin, Pa., and the Danbury fair at Danbury, Conn. The horses were judged by the new scale of points. We congratulate our young friend on the excellent reputation he is making for himself in the neighboring republic.

PERSONAL.—Neil McQuarrie, Esq., of Summerside, is registered at the Rankin.

Mr. P. McKeever, of McKeever & Hall, Commission Merchants, Boston, and Mr. L. A. Wilnot, of Moncton, N. B., are among the arrivals at the Osborne.

Mr. E. St. C. Brecken, son of John Brecken, Esq., of this city, left for Chicago this morning. Mr. Brecken, besides being an expert telegrapher, is a steady, unassuming young man, and we wish him every success abroad.

THE JURY DIVIDE.—Sergeant, the old man charged with setting fire to Sutherland's barn at Bathurst, N. B., was up for trial at that place on Saturday. The court room was packed with people. The evidence was all circumstantial, and the defence was ably conducted. The jury after deliberating five hours reported that they could not agree, being divided, six for acquittal and six for conviction. Sergeant will be again tried at the next term of the court, and will be admitted to bail in the meantime.

OUR BAD SIDEWALKS.—A medical gentleman informs us that he was called on to very urgent business at a late hour on Tuesday night, but lost much valuable time while on his way to the house of his patient as a result of getting astray in one of the several gullies on Cumberland Street, near the junction of Fitzroy. Of late it has been too much the custom to remove the old plank crossings and neglect, wilfully or otherwise, to replace them. As a consequence, large and not particularly neat-looking gullies are left in many places, into which pedestrians can enjoy the privilege of tumbling on dark nights. Until some one breaks his or her leg, and mauls the city in damages, the sidewalks and crossings will probably remain in their present dangerous condition.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.)

Sir Charles Re-Elected.

MAJORITY, 1361.

Bulmer Loses His Deposit.

AMHERST, Nov. 9.

Sir Charles is re-elected by 1361 majority, with two places to hear from, which will bring his majority well up to 1500.

Bulmer, or rather his few backers lose their deposit, he having polled only about 900 votes. As far as heard from, vote stands—Tupper, 2,260; Bulmer, 899.

Sir Charles vote is surprisingly large under the circumstances, as it was felt no determined effort was necessary to ensure his election.

Sir Charles was presented on his arrival from Parrsboro about 8.30 this evening with an address from his supporters here, accompanied by a magnificent silver fruit epergne, as a token of their appreciation and a memento of his fourteenth triumph and largest majority. The presentation took place in the Music Hall, which was packed to overflowing. Sir Charles' reply was a most noble effort. He handled the Bulmer fiasco most effectually, and was enthusiastically cheered almost continuously.

He left by the Quebec express for Ottawa, thence to Washington as speedily as possible.

LORD MAYOR'S SHOW

A TAME AFFAIR.

Salisbury at the Banquet.

A PEACEFUL OUTLOOK.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

The Lord Mayor's procession was of the tamest description. There was a heavy rain fall. The threatened demonstration did not take place.

Lord Salisbury, in a speech at the Lord Mayor's banquet to-night, referred to the growing pacific aspect of foreign affairs. He said the agreement with Russia regarding the Afghan frontier that had been accepted by the Ameer removed the danger of the world's peace in those quarters. It had also been the good fortune of the Government to make an arrangement with France concerning the New Hebrides difficulty, and come to an understanding with regard to some vexed question affecting the Suez Canal. He announced that Ayoub Khan had surrendered to the Indian Government. He admitted that political uneasiness existed in Europe, but said he knew of nothing that would justify the alarm.

MONSTER PETITION.

Intercession on Behalf of Anarchists.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 9.

A Chicago delegation that came to intercede with Governor Oglesby on behalf of the condemned Anarchists, arrived to-day. So many petitions are to be presented that it required a separate trunk to convey them. It is estimated that 11 miles of names from all parts of the country are before the Government. The delegation of labor people from New York alone have a petition of 100,000 names. The feeling among the labor people is that there can be no arguments before the Governor on legal questions. The two features now to be presented are the questions of mercy and public policy. Governor Oglesby spent the entire day and evening hearing petitions for the commutation of sentences of the condemned Anarchists. Spies has written a letter quoting States Attorney Grinnell to the effect if Spies is hanged the law will be satisfied. In the letter Spies asked that the sentence of his comrades be commuted, and he be hanged, thereby satisfying Grinnell's demand.

THE GALE.

HEAVY DISASTER.

PICTOU, Nov. 9.

The Dredge, Cape Breton, and a scow, left Wallace at noon yesterday for Pictou in tow of the tug Sherman. All went well for about five hours, when a terrific gale sprang up, the waves making a complete break over the Dredge. The crew stuck to her till they saw it was no use to remain on board any longer, and at 10 o'clock anchor was cast, although she was sinking fast. A boat was launched from the tug, and the crew were all transferred in safety, but they lost everything. The Dredge was owned by the Dominion Government, valued at $60,000, and uninsured.

Assassination in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.

A box containing gun cotton enough to kill was found on the steps of Dr. Hallway's home this morning. A bomb containing dynamite enough to blow up the house was found this morning on the steps of Mr. Campbell's house.

The Crown Prince's Case.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

The Standard's correspondent at San Remo says the consultation of the Crown Prince's case has resulted in an agreement that his state is not serious, and there is no cause for alarm.

Halifax News.

HALIFAX, Nov. 9.

The Anglican Synod met to-day and adjourned until to-morrow in order to get a reply from the cablegram sent to the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Rev. D. M. Gordon has accepted the call to St. Andrew's Church here.

The barque Bachelors, Captain Ritchie, of Yarmouth for Buenos Ayres, in ballast, was stayed and went ashore near the entrance of this harbor last evening and became a total wreck. The crew were saved with difficulty, but lost everything.

The Panama Canal.

PARIS, Nov. 9.

M. Victor DeLesseps, in a letter published, states that his father, Count Ferdinand DeLesseps will soon make another trip to Panama. He repeats the promise that the Canal will be opened in February, 1890, and that no further loan for the canal will be required.

Pictou Branch.

PICTOU, Nov. 9.

Several hundred men are working on the Pictou Branch Railway, and it is confidently expected that the opening will be November 21st.

DIED.

At Bay Fortune, on Tuesday morning, the 8th inst., of membranous croup, Lemuel, dearly beloved son of William D. and S. Aitken, aged 3 years and 8 months.

At Astora, Oregon, on the 17th Sept., Capt. Lemuel Calbeck McKay, late of the U. S. Life Saving Service, aged 34 years. He was a native of Prince Edward Island and well known along the Pacific Coast.

The deceased was a native of Malpeque, and left there 22 years ago. In early life he entered in seafaring, and was engaged for several years in the coasting and transatlantic trade. In 1859 he went to Australia and engaged in prospecting and gold mining, and later in New Zealand, he being one of the first of a party of miners that successfully crossed from the east to the west coast of these Islands during the time Maori war.

After being twelve years on the gold fields, he again started on a life on the ocean wave. Getting command of a vessel bound for the Fiji Islands, he was there employed as a coast guard in the King's navy. Leaving there he continued trading in the South Pacific until 1876, sailing thence for England, calling at Calcutta and several other East Indian ports. He next visited Constantinople and several other places on the Mediterranean, coming to America in 1878, intending to return home. Arriving in New York and hearing of some new discoveries of gold in New Zealand, he returned there, remaining there a few months. He finally left that country and came to Oregon, U. S., in 1880. Shortly after his arrival, he obtained an appointment in the U. S. Life Saving Service, where he continued until the 10th August. While on duty at Shoalwater Bay, Washington Territory, he received an injury in his side, which in a few weeks time caused his death. He leaves many relatives and friends, and was brother to Mr. H. E. Eckay, at Malpeque.
