OUR GRAND DISPLAY

—OF—

SPRING CLOTHING

AND FURNISHINGS

IS VERY TEMPTING.

The Custom Tailoring Department is full of Neat, Nobby and Reliable Goods.

The Men's Department is loaded with an immense display of New Spring Suits.

The Hat Department—well, everybody understands that our Hat Department has advantages over the smaller establishments that place it at the head, and secures for it the bulk of the trade. We are displaying the largest variety of Spring Styles of Hats ever shown, and include all the popular shapes.

The Boys' Department is unquestionably the best and most attractive in the city.

The Furnishing Goods Department is not only well stocked with all that is solid and staple, but contains much that is choice and novel.

No doubt about it. Ours is the largest and best selected stock ever seen in this city,—not only largest in quantity, but largest in variety of shapes,—largest in variety of materials,—largest in correct styles,—largest in every way. What more could we say, unless it be that OUR PRICES ARE RIGHT,—RELIABLE, HONEST.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The "Patriot" and the Marshfield Meeting.

Sir,—I trust I may be excused from bandying many words with the Patriot about the political meeting recently held in this Polling District. For these meetings and the excitement consequent upon them, the Grit party are responsible. In March last they formed a branch Reform Association in this polling division, and we found no fault with them for doing so. Our party had taken the same step previously. But they commenced a series of semi-public meetings, at which only ex parte statements were permitted, and made strenuous efforts to entrap unwary electors into signing some documents committing them to vote for Grit candidates at the next Dominion and Local elections. The first of these meetings was held in Little York Hall, the second in Marshfield Hall, and the third in Suffolk School House. The fourth was the one at which Messrs. L. H. Davies, David Laird and nine or ten other persons from Charlottetown made their appearance.
All these meetings were of a public nature.
Conservatives were notified to attend, and the inevitable roll or pledge was produced and the electors earnestly invited to append their names.

At the request of my friends I presented myself at the last named meeting. I challenged the conduct of the Grit party in holding "hole-and-corner meetings" and in trying to entrap electors into signing their roll without fair discussion. The chairman said the meeting was for their own purposes, and almost immediately declared it closed. I then intimated, in the presence of Messrs. Davies and Laird, that a public meeting would be held in that place on Monday, the 20th instant, when a fair hearing would be given to both sides.

Your readers are aware of what followed.
Mr. L. H. Davies was invited, through the press, to attend the meeting on Monday evening. He declined, and an intimation was given that if Mr. Laird was invited he would probably attend. The Liberal-Conservative Committee replied that they would be "most happy to have the political questions of the day discussed from the Opposition standpoint by Mr. Davies, as representative of the county, or by a substitute," yet they must decline, for reasons stated, to extend an invitation to Mr. Laird. This left the matter open to the whole Grit party. But no speaker on that side appeared at the meeting. I may say that Mr. Davies was the man the Liberal Conservatives wanted. No matter how signal might be the advantage in discussion gained over any other Grit speaker, the Local Grits would plead that if Mr. Davies had been present the case would have been different.
I may say further that Mr. Davies' excuses are not considered at all satisfactory. The Supreme Court closed in Charlottetown on Saturday. Mr. Davies had no business in Georgetown court until Wednesday, the petit jury being only summoned on that day. It is not thought that the work of the Supreme Court is of a very killing nature. The hours are short and the lawyers take their time. If Mr. Davies could go to Marshfield to attend a one-sided meeting in the middle of the court, a rest of two days might surely have fitted him for meeting an opponent, particularly as he claims to have such a good cause, and everybody knows he is a fluent speaker.

I imagine I occupy a somewhat different relation to the electors of this District from Mr. D. Laird. Besides being one of its representatives in the Provincial Legislature, I am a resident elector of the place.
His mightiness may regard it as "impertinent" to say that he occupies no representative position. But such is nevertheless the fact, and his fishing for a special invitation is evidence of his vanity. It was open for him before and after the correspondence between the local associations to attend as a substitute for Mr. Davies, and this was the only capacity in which he had a right to be there. Mr. Laird came to Marshfield on a previous occasion uninvited. The result was a large gain to the Liberal-Conservative party in the locality. The exhibition of the "white feather" on the 20th inst., and the bad-natured comments of the Patriot, afford good evidence that the Grit cause is still further on the wane.</
