THE WEEK AT S. D. U.

Student Organizations Get Off To A Good Start Among the new faces at St. Dunstan's are four members of the faculty, Fr. Thomas MacLellan, Mr. Gerald Arsenault, Mr. Francis Zakem and Mr. Joseph MacDonald are all former students, who have now returned to their Alma Mater as members of the teaching staff. While gaining four we have lost two. Fr. A.F. MacDonald, last year's librarian is now studying at the Catholic University of America, Washington, for post graduate work in history. Mr. Leo MacGinn, who taught in St. Dunstan's High School last year has taken a position in Ottawa. The Executives for the various Student Organizations have been appointed and to see that all have great ambitions for a successful year, one has but to glance at any of the bulletin boards and read the notices for impending meetings or the minutes of meetings that have all ready taken place. The following is a list of the newly appointed for all societies which are now active on the campus: OFFICERS Debating Society: Pres. Bob Doyle; Vice Pres. Don MacDougall; Sec'y Treas. Mary Elaine Trainer. Glee Club: Pres. Gerard Burns; Vice Pres. Cyril Byrne; Sec'y Treas. Ralph MacGinnis. W.U.S.C.: Pres. Edward Leclair; Vice Pres. Alfred Tsang; Sec'y Treas. Faber MacDonald. Dramatics Society: Pres. Maurice Beagan; Vice Pres. L.R. Gallant; Sec'y Treas. James Moore. Red and White: Editor, Richard St. John; Assistant Editor, Anthony Spencey; Business Manager, Herman Connolly. C.F.C.S. Pres. William Phillips; Vice Pres. Richard Power; Sec'y Treas. Olga Dowling. A.A.A.: Pres. Doi, MacDougall; Vice Pres. J.R. MacDonald; Sec'y Treas. Ed. Murphy. Students' Union: Pres. Mike Swift; Vice Pres. Bob Doyle; Sec'y Treas. Ray Hickey. A meeting of the Students' Union was called for Monday evening (Oct. 7) when the Secretary-Treasurers of all organizations were asked to present their budgets for approval. In-previous years, the meeting at which the various budgets were presented was a crucial one for all concerned. To a certain extent the success of any one organization depended on its budget being granted, as presented. But on Monday night the fears of all the Secretary-Treasurers were swept away when it was made known the Students' Union amount of money for the total budget that was available last year. The heated arguments between the various secretaries, a characteristic of previous years was lacking. The budgets were presented and granted in contented silence. DRAMATICS A.G. The Dramatic Society with Fr. Adrian Arsenault as moderator has already started work on its first theatrical production of the year, a Medieval Morality play titled "Everyman". This play will be presented sometime in November and inaugurates a course in dramatic training which will be available to all members of the Sophomore Class in conjunction with their public speaking program. The second production by the Dramatics Society will be staged during the Christmas holidays and at least part of it will be familiar to many of our readers as it played in Charlottetown not too long ago. It is Henri Gheon's "Christmas in the Market Place". All members of the cast will be drawn from the day students attending S.D.U. For the Society's final dramatization of the year Fr. Arsenault has decided upon a modern American play. Although the choice is not yet definite it will probably be either "The Glass Menagerie" by Tennessee Williams or Death of a Salesman by Arthur Miller. If we are not perhaps familiar with the writings of Mr. Miller we have certainly heard of his film star wife, Need we say more than M.M? ARTS WEEK The Dramatic Society along with the Glee Club and College Band plans on sponsoring an Arts Week sometime in February. There will probably be four evening presentations consisting of short plays, lectures on art and painting, exhibitions of paintings and books, and programs of music. This particular society certainly has an exceptional program planned for the 1957-58 college year. It should benefit all the student body by being both entertaining and informative and by stimulating an interest in dramatics and amateur theatricals. In doing this it will fulfill all its requirements as laid down in the Constitution of Student Organizations for St. Dunstan's. We certainly hope the Dramatics Society will attain the goal they have set themselves. FIELD DAY OFF The incessant rain of Tuesday morning brought tumbled heads and bleary eyes from beneath the sheets, for earlier than the 7 o'clock bell. Unbelieving eyes gazed through the water streaked windows to see nothing further on but angled, streaking rain. The tumbled heads disappeared beneath the sheets again, despair written on each and every sleep lined face. First thought—no holiday; second thought—no field day; third thought—no Freshman Initiation. But sleep in its mercy brought a measure of peace until the rude incessant clanging of a bell once more woke the residents of St. Dunstan's to harsh reality. There would be no Field Day until after Thanksgiving. CANADIAN FOOTBALL On Thursday afternoon (Oct. 11) S.D.U.'s Canadian Football squad received their baptism of fire when they tangled with the visiting P.W.C. team. A game finished the score was 47 to 0 for the Saints. Sparked by some spectacular passes by Gil Collins the men in Red and White registered seven touchdowns in swamping the visiting Welshmen. This was a sports first for the two College teams as they battled Prince Edward Island's first game of Canadian Football. Stiffer competition is on top as coach A.J. MacAdam tries to negotiate a game with one of the teams from Moncton, N.B. We might say that the rather lop sided score registered on Thursdays game detracts little from the Prince of Wales team. They were outweighed, younger and lacked the experience of their opponents. But with these three factors against them they fought right until the last minute. Both teams gave excellent account of themselves in the introductory of Canadian Football to P.E.I. Y's Men Hear Insurance Talk Y's Men Ralph Rupert and Eric Shepherd were the speakers at the weekly supper meeting of the Alpha Y's Men's Club. Guests introduced were Vic Cameron, John Gorrill and John DuPasquier. Plans for the annual convocation of Prince Edward Island Y's Men to be held in Charlottetown on Saturday, Oct. 26th, were presented by committee chairman Bud McMurtry.

BIBLE SUNDAY BIBLE WEEK OCTOBER 13th OCT. 15-19th "Not a Famine of Bread, nor a Thirst for Water, but of Hearing the Words of The Lord."

It is a "hungry world" in which we live, and of all the complex problems we face today none is greater than this indisputable fact. But great as the hunger for the daily necessity of bread, there is a hunger for the Word of God. Much as men need bread and are entitled to it, we must never forget that "Man does not live by bread alone but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." 17 new translations were printed by The British and Foreign Bible Society in 1956, bringing the total number of languages in which at least one book of the Bible has been issued to 1,109. The complete Bible has now been printed in 210 tongues an increase of 3 last year . . . and the work must go on. YOUR CONTRIBUTION CAN HELP TRANSLATE AND DISTRIBUTE MORE OF THE "BREAD OF LIFE" TO THE "HUNGRY" OF THE WORLD. At this Thanksgiving season the Society appeals to you to make a thank-offering for all the Bible has meant to you by making it available to others in their own tongue. Beginning Tuesday, October 15th you will be given an opportunity to share, when collectors will make calls throughout the Province. For $25.00 a Life Membership Certificate may be obtained. A very fitting recognition of a Pastor, faithful church worker or friend. Enquire from your collector or at The Bible House. PLEASE RECEIVE THEM KINDLY AND GENEROUSLY!

No Hands But Ours During World War II, a certain church in Europe was bombed. In the blasting, a large statue of Christ had both hands blown off. Today the hands are still missing. But at the base of the statue has been put these words: "CHRIST HATH NO HANDS BUT YOURS." It is our privilege to be the "hands of Christ" in giving the Gospel to all people, and during the coming week a definite opportunity will be ours, when representatives of the various churches throughout the Province will call for our contribution on behalf of the British and Foreign Bible Society. These representatives are Christian people who have felt the power of the Word in their own lives and who wish to see that men and women everywhere have a copy of the Scriptures. We also assist when we make a purchase at The Bible House, an enterprise of the Society.
