Stamp Guide Few people have any idea of the value of old, rare, odd and obsolete coins. Did you know that a Boston shoe-maker sold a collection of coins for TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS? Did you know that some rare American SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS EACH? It is a fact that the rare 1877 quarter is worth $200.00, the 1855 quarter is worth $200.00, the 1854 silver dollar is worth $200.00, half cents made between 1800 and 1809 are worth $2.00 to $5.00 each, some large old style copper cents are worth as high as $4.00 each. Some issues of Continental and Confederate bills are rare and valuable, as well as certain pieces of fractional currency or "scrips." Besides these, many medals in half cents, cents, dollars are worth a big premium over face value. The Reliable Coin and Stamp Guide gives accurate information, and you may depend upon it. While a great many people collect old coins, there is more demand for rare postage and revenue stamps, and some comparatively recent stamps are now scarce. Collections of stamps often sell as high as $100.00. Stamps from letters sent during the war, revenue A THOUSAND DOLLARS, stamps from patent medicine bottles, match wrappers, old documents, etc., are in great demand, some being worth $50.00 APiece. Look over your old letters in the garret and elsewhere; perhaps you may find some rare things. This book gives all particulars, with prices, SPOT CASH, pictures, etc., and gives addresses of reliable firms who buy them for $20.00. No matter if you handle but ten cents a day you should have this book. EVERYBODY NEEDS IT. Lawyers, Notaries, Clerks, Agents, Postmasters, Doctors, etc., it is worth its weight in gold to any business person. Boys and girls should send for it and explore attics and cellars in search of old letters, which may contain rare stamps. Who knows? A small fortune may be in your very attic. Beware of cheap pretenses, do not buy questions, do not send with a coin or stamp, but get the book. It tells all. Where you can sell them at prices given, what they are, what they look like, and why they are rare. This book gives reliable figures only, no fictitious data or unverified values. It is issued under the supervision and authority of the greatest coin and stamp collector and dealer in North America. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. PRICE, 25c. PER COPY, POSTPAID.

Let Us Send You the COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE

THREE months, FREE

Three months' free trial for merely sending your name. No money, no letter, nothing but your address on the attached coupon. If, after three months' trial, you wish to have the magazine stopped, merely tell us, and the copies received will cost you nothing. You are to be the exclusive judge. And there'll be no questions, no quibbling, nothing. We'll leave the decision all to you. If, after three months' test you find you need the COSMOPOLITAN, let us send you the the magazine for the full year.

Remember, though, that in reading the COSMOPOLITAN, you are reading one of the oldest high-class magazines published to day in America. Such eminent and great men have in the past contributed to the reputation of the COSMOPOLITAN as President Roosevelt, Mark Twain, President Eliot, John W. Draper, Count Tolstoi, Henry Watterson, Jas Whitcomb Riley, etc., etc.

The following list of eminent contributors—taken from among a hundred others—will indicate the remarkably high standard that will be maintained by the COSMOPOLITAN 1906—FICTION: Sir Gilbert Parker, Alfred Henry Lewis, Booth Tarkington, ART: Frederic Remington, Henri Lanois, Frank Verbeck, SPECIAL: Henry Watterson, Edwin Markham, Elbert Hubbard. No finer array of talent could possibly be offered than the list of world specialists named above.

"Home" magazine is the key note to the COSMOPOLITAN. In no sense is the COSMOPOLITAN a small, cheap, 16-page mail-order monthly. It is, to the contrary, a great 240-page illustrated home magazine. Its editorial policy aims at every phase of clean, wholesome home life. An abundance of bright stories, full of fun, life and action, will interest every member of the family. Topics of the day are treated sanely, by experts of international repute—political reform, international affairs, economics, social problems,—and a hundred other timely topics of which every intelligent man or woman must be informed.

The COSMOPOLITAN also affords unusual advantages for the refining and educative value of art.—Remington, Lanois, Fogarty, Terbeck, are only a few of the masters represented. The COSMOPOLITAN, furthermore has just begun one of the most remarkable exposés ever attempted by a contemporary magazine.—"The Treason of the Senate," by David Graham Phillips. It will be strictly impossible, during this series, for us to insure newspaper purchasers a copy of the magazine, but, We do guarantee that all readers who have, under this special offer, applied direct to the office for copies, will receive regularly the magazine during this brilliant series of articles. Be sure to read this most scathing of all political exposures.

We thoroughly believe that every intelligent reader will not only take but actually want the COSMOPOLITAN, should he once see the magazine itself.

And that's why we offer a three months' free trial at our expense. We leave the decision entirely upon the merit of the monthly.

If you don't like the three months received, you may stop the paper, and the copies received won't cost you a cent.

The offer is clear, plain, straightforward.

You are to be the only judge. We are going to leave it all to your decision.

Could anything be more fair? Fill out to-day the coupon below—place in an envelope—remail to us—and receive three months' test free. But mail the coupon to-day—tomorrow will never come.

COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE, 1789 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

I accept your liberal offer of three months' free trial subscription to the COSMOPOLITAN, as advertised in the L'IMPARTIAL Tignish, P. E. Island. If at the end of the three months I do not like the magazine, I will let you know and have the paper discontinued, under which conditions, it is understood that the copies received shall cost me nothing. Otherwise you may send me the COSMOPOLITAN for a full year and bill me at the regular subscription price of only one dollar. Write plainly.

THE DELINEATOR FOR JULY

The midsummer fashions with a wealth of illustrations in color and in black-and-white are attractively portrayed in THE DELINEATOR for July. Helen Berkeley-Joyd tells how the Summer girl will be frocked and furbelowed, and the Dress of Paris is discussed by M. Edouard La Fontaine, one of the best-known critics in Paris. In the literary section the most notable feature is the opening chapters of "The Chauffeur and the Chaperon," a new story by C. N. and A. M. Williamson, authors of "The Lightning Conductor." The story which deals with a group of interesting people cruising in a motor boat over the quaint waterways of Holland, promises to be the brightest and cleverest novel that these renowned writers have yet produced. Mrs. Mary Hinman Abel contributes a chapter on "Flies and Food" in THE DELINEATOR'S Campaign for Safe Foods, and Clara E. Laughlin opens a series of "Stories of Painter's Lives," with "Millet—the Peasant Painter." Burton E. Stevenson has the second part of the tale "The Rose of Sharon," and there is a short story entitled "The Baby" by Zola Gale. "The President of Quex," Helen M. Winslow's entertaining club story, is concluded. For the children, there are Stories and Pastimes, among them the first of the series of "Tales of the Mountain Giants" and a clean story by Edmund Vance Cook, "Down the King's Chimney." For the housewife there are many articles of timely interest, including Novelties for Summer Feasts, Strawberry Favorites and New Vegetables Cleverly served.
