THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 20, 1889.

Notes and Comments.

—The St. John Gazette condemns the sending of mere boys to the Penitentiary. It seems that some of the counties of New Brunswick are still—like this Province—without a Reformatory.

—They have caught an interesting person at St. Stephen, whose business for some time past has been incendarism. His last exploit was an attempt to burn the St. Croix Mill. It is to be hoped that his punishment will be commensurate with the offence.

—The Johnstown calamity is said by observers to have destroyed the slim chance of carrying the prohibitory amendment to the State constitution to be voted on this month. Coming just when popular interest was being developed in the fight, it practically obliterated all other issues, and has left the prohibition barque badly stranded. It is now regarded as certain that Pennsylvania will follow the example of Massachusetts and go wet.

—The way the Empire's rapid growth impresses people is well expressed by the Ridgetown Standard: "The Toronto Empire, which possessed the fastest press in Canada, has found it necessary to put in a second, owing to the increase in its circulation. The Empire is without doubt the best newspaper in Canada, and this, we take it, has been the reason of its phenomenal success—a success without parallel in the history of Canadial journalism. Than it is a Canadian, and not an American journal, like the Mail and Globe."

—An editorial in a recent issue of the New York Mail and Express (Col. Shepard's paper) calls on the loyal men of the north to buckle on their armour and prepare for a struggle. Continuing, the editor says: "The war is coming again. The student of history must be indeed blind and deaf, if he will not see and cannot hear all the deep muttered threats against the life of a nation that come up from the politicians of the Southeast, and vows of vengeance and consecration to the cause of the Confederacy, which they are encouraging all through their regions."

—They appreciate the advantages of the British constitution in New Zealand. A New Zealand correspondent of Imperial Federation says:

"Now we know how easy it is under the British Government for the people to give effect to their wishes immediately, and with no danger whatever to the constitution, after we have thoroughly talked over any important matter in the press and the public meeting. This is an advantage that is not possessed so completely in America, for we notice how every fourth year that great republic is almost shaken to pieces in the process of simply electing its chief magistrate; and as years roll on that frictional derangement becomes worse instead of better."

This is true. And yet we hear partizans of the Opposition advocating a policy which must inevitably tend towards annexation to the States, and the exchange of the British Constitution for that of the American Republic.

—The Empire remarks that the public should observe one or two simple rules regarding the addressing of letters to members of the Government—and, indeed, to all high public functionaries—the observance of which will obviate inconvenience. Letters addressed to a Minister of the Crown should, when on public business, invariably have his title in full, besides his name, so that, in his absence, they may be at once opened by the deputy head of the department. Letters to a Minister on private or purely personal or family matters should always be marked "Private," in the upper lift hand corner of the envelope and letter, otherwise they are certain of being first opened as official correspondence instead of reaching the Minister directly. Only those immediately concerned can fully understand the loss of time and the trouble occasioned by inattention to these apparently trifling details.

—The coroner's jury in the Cronin case at Chicago finds from the evidence before it that the "Clan-na-Gael is not in harmony with and is injurious to American institutions." With this opinion the coroner agrees, and adds that, in his judgment, the United States Government ought to suppress that society. The Utica, N. Y., Herald remarks that the facts brought out by the investigation establish the un-American character of the Clan-na-Gael, or "United Brotherhood." The close connection of some of its members with the "removal" of Dr. Cronin must be followed to the end by the vigorous processes of the criminal law. When this is done it may be doubted that there will be anything left of the Clan-na-Gael for governmental attention. The society is a secret, oath-bound brotherhood, professedly committed to the achievement of liberty for Ireland. It is preposterous to assume that murder is the accepted creed of all, or of a considerable number of its members. On the contrary, there can be do doubt that crime is abhorrent to the masses of the brotherhood. It is manifest that members of the organization are among the most zealous in hunting down the assassins of Dr. Cronin. And if trial shall confirm the impression that the victim was marked for death and "removed" in accordance with the obligation of the "brethren," we venture to predict that the break up of the society will speedily follow. No genuine friend of Ireland can give countenance to outrage, to thugism and red-handed murder. And all who hold its cause dear must join hands in exposing and denouncing the men and the methods of lawlessness.

The exports of gold from New York last week amounted to $4,530,343.

Tuesday last was the seventy-fourth anniversary of the great battle of Waterloo.

Young people who have courted in society go on bridal trips to see how they like each other.

The Italian Government has joined Russia and Germany in asking the Swiss authorities to maintain a stricter surveillance over foreigners in Switzerland.

The crops of New Brunskick this year are likely to be the best on record, unless injured by early frosts. The hay crop will be immense, and grain and root crops are equally promising. The recent rains have improved the aspect of everything, and the whole country is one mass of verdure.

Corpus Christi.

To-day being the Feast of Corpus Christi was duly observed by the Catholics of Charlottetown.

At eight o'clock there was Mass for the benefit of the children in the Cathedral, at which about one hundred and thirty little ones received their first Communion. Rev. J. J. Macdonald officiated.

The nine o'clock Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. C. McLean.

At ten o'clock there was Solemn High Mass. Rev. Charles Macdonald was the celebrant, with Revs, J. C. McLean deacon, J. J. Macdonald, sub-deacon, and P. A McElmeel Master of Ceremonies. After High Mass there was Procession of the Blessed Sacrament.

This afternoon, at three o'clock, His Lordship Bishop McIntyre administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to about one hundred and forty persons.

There will be Vespers and Benediction this evening at seven o'clock.

Telegraphic Tips.

London, June 18.—The Times, referring to the Valkyrie's victory in the Queenstown regatta, says: "It is just such weather as the Valkyrie is likely to sail the America's cup matches in. Nothing could be more satisfactory than the way she acquitted herself."

St. Petersburg, June 18.—The Russian army will be provided with breech-loading rifles, which will carry a distance of 6,000 feet. Noiseless powder will be used in future by the army. These improvements in arming troops involve immense expenditures.

New York, June 18.—The steamer Carolina Miller, the craft which figured in the Haytien blockades, left this harbor yesterday for Hayti. It is rumored that several cases of arms have been smuggled on board her, and that a notorious filibuster and several other men of that class are among her passengers.

London, June 18.—Parnell's appeal against the postponemens of his libel suit against the Times, has been dismissed with costs. The appeal court decided that the delay in the trial had not damaged his character, the Times having admitted the libel and paid into court.

Ottawa, June 18.—There is no truth in the rumour telegraphed industriously from Montreal that the government had decided to refer the constitutionality of the Jesuits estates act to the Supreme Court.

London, June 18.—Cardinal Manning to-day received into the Roman Catholic Church Rev. Mr. Townsend, recently principal of the Oxford mission at Calcutta, also six former clergymen of the Anglican Church.

Ottawa, June 18.—The department was advised by telegraph to-day of the seizure of the French ship Deux Soeurs, at North Sydney, for infraction of the custom laws. The department have authorized proceedings for her condemnation.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 18.—A destructive wind storm swept over Peru, Indiana, this afternoon. Trees, fences and telegraph poles were levelled. Many dwellings were injured. The Standard Oil Co's. large brick warehouse was destroyed. Several freight cars, standing on the Lake Erie and Western tracks, were pushed with great velocity through the walls of the regular shops. The total loss will amount to many thousands of dollars. Much damage was done to growing crops throughout the country.

Johnstown, June 18.—The councilmen, this afternoon, reorganized and decided to allow business men to build temporary structures on the two public parks of the place, the buildings to remain about a month, when it is thought the city will be cleared up ready for rebuilding houses. Occasionally a corpse is found buried in the debris and rubbish throughout the town. The most prolific spot is a mass of wreckage above the railroad bridge. Eleven bodies were blown up there by blasting today.

St. Paul, Minn., June 18.—A courier from the reservation brings the news to Mora that the Indians had sobered off and were not inclined to make further trouble. The appearance of troops had a wholesome effect on them.

Wichita, Kan., June 18.—A violent rain storm on the head waters of the Walnut river caused an immense flood to reach Augusta and Eldorado. About midnight on Sunday the waters came rushing up into the towns and washed away 1,500 feet of the track of the Missouri Pacific, and carried away twelve residences yesterday. Four farmers were drowned a few miles north of Eldorado. The Missouri Pacific lost six bridges at Augusta. Three hundred feet of the Santa Fe track was lost, and the bridge of the Frisco was carried away. Great damage was done to the wheat.

New York, June 18.—C. P. Huntington, president of the Southern Pacific Railway, who has invested fifty thousand dollars in the project for construction of railways from the falls of Congo river, Stanley pool, in Africa, says it is not a business venture on his part, but rather a matter of sentiment. He is convinced that the only way to break up the dreadful slave traffic is by opening up the interior. Railroads are harbingers of peace, and the opening of Africa to civilization can be accomplished best in this way. The project of building the road, which is to be 262 miles long, was originated by the King of Belgium, who was warmly supported by Mr. McKinnon, the great Scottish shipbuilder, who is an intimate friend of Huntington's. Already over four million have been subscribed, two million of which have been given by the Belgium government.

Sir,—Passing through Rochford Square last evening, I counted 1 horse, 1 foal, 1 calf and 2 cows peacefully grazing thereon. Will you kindly inform me if this square is used for a pound, or was the gathering together of these bovines and equines accidental.

Personal.

Madame Adelina Patti is seriously ill.

Mr. Leslie E. McLeod, of Wallace's Monthly, declares that Prince Edward Island "is the greatest horse-breeding province in Canada."

A private letter from George R. Parkin, now at the antipodes, states that he is very much encouraged at the success which has attended his Imperial Federation mission. The month he spent in New Zealand was most interesting in every way. Mr. P. was enjoying excellent health when he wrote on May 24th from Christ Church, N. Z.

A medal has been struck in honor of Mr. Mercier, bearing this legend:

Homage to the Hon. Mr. Mercier, Promoter of the Act for the Restitution of the Jesuit's Estates
FIAT JUSTITIA RUAT CŒLUM.

The letter of the Prince of Wales to the King of the Belgians about Kaiser Wilhelm, which the Nouville Review is about to publish is regarded as apocryphal, but the imitation of the Prince's style is very good. The prince is represented as saying: "What I knew of him on my return to Vienna convinces me that his organization is seriously attacked. Those who have seen and watched his life are painfully concerned in his behalf. He can get no sleep, save what drugs can procure, and suffers from his head and chest. Even on the second day he is compelled to resort to morphine for relief. He easily loses his temper.

A correspondent writes:—"The settlement of Kingston and vicinity was shocked as the news spread that Mr. Allan McKinlay passed away from this earth to the reward of a life of usefulness and constant activity in the Church of Christ. Mr. McKinlay joined the Baptist church some thirty years ago, in which denomination he has always been a zealous and faithful standard-bearer. After being connected with Clyde and North River Sabbath Schools, about twelve years ago, he organized one in Kingston, of which he was superintendent until his death, on the 5th of June. He was a leader in the Kingston Church, which was built principally through his strenuous and untiring efforts. Wherever the people met to worship God, within reasonable distance, there he was to be found, always ready to minister to the sick and afflicted. In Mr. McKinlay we have lost a whole-souled Christian man, whose place will not soon be filled."
