them many a treat into the bargain. In the mean time, our friends Messrs. Cairns and Dark, will be happy—for a consideration—to supply them with the ready grafted trees, thus enabling them to anticipate a profitable return by three or four years. We will answer for the goodness of the article from the nurseries of both these gentleman, several very superior specimens having already come under our view; and we look for more at the ensuing Exhibition of the Charlottetown Horticultural Society, to be held on the 28th inst., which they may be satisfied will be duly noticed and properly brought under public view.

ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY'S CATTLE SHOW.

In giving in our last issue the list of Prizes awarded on Wednesday last owing to the lateness of the day when the list was furnished, two errors were committed which we hasten to correct, viz: The two prizes for Horses were awarded, the first to A. Laird, Esq., for the best Filly for Agricultural purposes, the second to the Hon. G. Coles, instead of the first and second blood Colts, as printed in the list. There was no competition for Blood Colts, or rather a sufficient number were not entered for competition, so as to enable the Judges to award a prize.

With respect to the Exhibition in general, we have only to remark that, it appeared to be universally considered that, though the number exposed for competition was not so great as that of the last year, the animals that were on the ground were all of a good quality; no inferior animals being exhibited, with the exception of Horses; and this may be easily accounted for, when the number sold and sent out of the Island last autumn, and this season, is taken into consideration. We regret to state that it was attended with rather more than the usual average of drunkenness.

ISLAND FRUIT.—Mr. William Gardiner sold at the Market House, to-day, 30 Bbls. Island Apples, very fair samples though gathered too early. They brought from 6s to 9s per bbl.

A maxim for Editors as well as Sportsmen.—An overcharged piece, is sure to recoil upon him who uses it, and seldom or never hits the mark aimed at.

The Rev. David Dimock, of Truro, Nova Scotia, will preach (D.V) on Lord's day, at 11 o'clock, in the Baptist Chapel Charlottetown, at 3 o'clock; at Lot 49, and at the Chapel, Cross Roads Lot 48 at 6 o'clock in the evening.
