Sturdy gray males we have in this hybrid flock and dainty sisters black-gowned and collared in gold. And now lights were on in volume about this place and neighborly ones along the opposite slope of the valley, where too folks were busy at the choring.

We opened the door of the poultry-house; set down within the weight of our right hand and our left and stopped there a moment regarding the assemblage on floor, and roosts—the familiar figures and the strange. And James came by. "Close the door, Ellen!" he advised with a smile, "Now that you have them in keep them there!"

HELLO HOMEMAKER: A noted French epicure once said that a meal without cheese is like a one-eyed woman—there's something missing!—and thinking of our fine CANADIAN CHEDDAR CHEESE, we have a feeling he hit the nail on the head.

Too many of us have been accustomed to thinking of cheese as a "snack" food—something to nibble on between meals. But CANADIAN CHEDDAR CHEESE is a food that holds its own in any menu.

Yes, cheese pleases — at any meal — at any time of the day. Ever try including it in breakfast plans? Leading nutritionists tell us that cheese for breakfast assures us of a morning's work at top energy.

When you shop, stop at the dairy food section — and stock up on CANADIAN CHEDDAR CHEESE. You'll be helping yourself to delightful, and easily prepared dishes.

NOTICE The Co-op Super Market will be closed all day Monday—Thanksgiving Day—Please shop early Saturday.
