WHERE will I get the best oysters? At Beer's.

OPENING to-day at Beer Bros—8 cases of Fancy.

MILITARY.—No. 3 Company, 82d Batt., meet for drill this evening at 8 o'clock.

WE are now opening twenty-eight cases London goods.—Stanley Bros. sep16 2i

FAREWELL MEETING of Evangelist Bliss and Clark to-night. Doors open at 7 o'clock. All free.

JUVENILE TEMPLERS.—The social in McKay's Hall last evening was well attended and was very successful.

A RARE BIRD.—A beautiful woodcock was found dead at the door of the market house this morning by Mr. Dillon.

TARGET PRACTICE.—The Engineers will fire their company target practice to-morrow. Targets will be ready at 8 o'clock.

FOUND DEAD.—Mr. O. C. Cummings, of the firm of William Cummings & Sons, Truro, was found dead at the railway station at Hall's Springs, N. B., on Friday morning.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—It is reported that Arlington Cooke, the well-known temperance lecturer, will shortly lecture in this city under the auspices of the Sons of Temperance.

FOR HALIFAX.—The steamer Fastnet left this port for Halifax via intermediate ports at about five yesterday afternoon, with a cargo consisting of starch, canned lobsters, oats, potatoes, etc.

A GOOD chance is now available to secure bargains at J. C. Sprague's, as his stock must be closed out at prices regardless of cost, he having assigned to J. M. McLeod, of Amherst.

THE MAYFLOWER.—Advices from Pictou state that the steamer Mayflower has been docked at that place at a cost of about $900, and will begin work between Pugwash and Charlottetown shortly.

PHILHARMONIC.—A general meeting of the Philharmonic Hall will be held in Philharmonic Hall at 8.30 o'clock, on Monday evening next, 21st inst. All members are especially requested to attend.

POLICE COURT.—This morning, one drunk and disorderly, an old offender, was fined $90 or 90 days, and two country drunks were fined $1 or 4 days each. An abusive language case was disposed of for a fine of $1 or 4 days.

THE ladies and gentlemen who intend entering the tournament to-morrow afternoon will please take notice that the drawing for partners will take place at a quarter to three o'clock, and only the names of those on the ground at that time will be drawn.

W. C. T. U.—The Maritime W. C. T. U. Convention is in progress at Summerside. There is a large attendance of delegates. The proceedings close with a farewell meeting to-night. The various sessions have been very interesting.

Y. M. C. A. — The joint committees from the Y. M. C. A and the Athletic Club having agreed to a basis of union, and the same having been adopted by the latter body, a general meeting of the members of the Y. M. C. A. will be held on next Friday evening, when the matter will be submitted for their approval.

JUVENILE THIEVES. — According to the World Chatham is over-run with theiving boys who appropriate everything they can lay their hands on. They have been caught time after time in robbing stores and houses, and have always been let go on account of their youth. They have even got to entering the churches and stealing the contribution boxes.

C. A. A.—All members who will take part in the exhibition next Tuesday night will please be on hand to-night for practice at 8.30, sharp. The various classes are doing their work in fine style, and those attending next Tuesday evening will enjoy a really good entertainment, both athletic and musical, as Galbraith's band will perform the occasion a choice selection of airs.

THE LAST MEETING.—The closing meeting of the series of special services by E. Wells Bliss, of Chicago, will be held to-night. The meeting last night was large, and a deep interest manifested. The evangelist based his address on the words of our Lord, as found in John 6-37, "Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out." Mr. Clark sang with fine effect "I've a message from the Lord." Mr. Bliss will speak to-night on the "Coming of Christ." As this will be the farewell meeting we predict a large gathering. Doors open at seven. Every pew free and everyone invited. Come right along and come early.

GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATIONS.—At the Democratic State Convention at Saratoga, N. Y., on Wednesday, Roswell P. Flower was nominated for governor on the first ballot. The ballot resulted: Flower, 354; Alfred C. Chapin, 43. William F. Sheehan was nominated lieutenant-governor by acclamation. Frank Rice of Ontario county, was nominated for secretary of state, and Frank Campbell of Steuben county, for comptroller—both by acclamation. At the Republican State Convention at Boston on the same day, Charles H. Allen was nominated for governor on the same ballot.

HORSE NOTES.—Mr. DeCourcey's filly was "speeded" at the Driving Park yesterday afternoon, doing a quarter in something like 1.16. Mr. DeCourcey is jubilant.

At Newcastle, N. B., on Wednesday, Whistler took second place in the free-for-all race. The race was won by Heck in straight heats. Best time, 2.39¼.

The details of a match race between the famous pacers Hal Pointer (2.09¾) and Direct (2.06) have been consummated. The match will probably be for $5,000 a side, with $5,000 added by the Lexington Association, St. Louis, over whose track the race will be decided.

The stallion race at New Glasgow, N. S., on Wednesday, for which there were seven entries, dwindled down to a contest between Edgardo and Speculation. Edgardo won in straight heats. Best time, 2.29¾. The 2.40 class was won by Lucy Derrick in straight heats. Best time, 2.38½.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS ENQUIRY

Senecal's Little Commissions

OTTAWA, Sept. 17.

In the Public Accounts Committee, Mr. Beaushemine, a Montreal dealer in book binder material, testified that he gave Mr. Senecal some $90 in commissions on $100 sales.

Mr. Benoit, President of the Liberal Conservative Association of Montreal district, was examined, but nothing new was elicited.

George Holland, stenographer, was called to prove that Brooks Young, of the New England Paper Co., a previous witness, told a different story in a Montreal law-suit from that which he told the committee.

There was a lengthy discussion as to the relevancy of this evidence, and it was left over for further consideration.

Earl and Countess Aberdeen were in the gallery of the House of Commons this afternoon.

Schooner Wrecked—Crew Lost.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.

The Schooner Pannonia sailed from Marshall Islands for San Francisco in May, laden with a general cargo and a crew of seven. Capt. Loreday, wife and three children, and also, it is said, several missionaries were on board. The schooner was wrecked on the reef to the north-west of the Hawaiian Island, and every soul on board drowned.

Latest Seizures.

OTTAWA, Sept. 17

The Marine Department has not yet received official detailed information respecting two Nova Scotia seal fishermen, who have been captured by a Russian cruiser and taken prisoners to Copper Island. H. McDougall, M. P. for Cape Breton is pressing the matter on the attention of the Government.

The Quebec Fair.

MONTREAL, Sept. 17.

The Provincial Fair was opened here today by Ex-Premier Joly. Count Mercier was to have officiated, but the boodle Premier did not put in an appearance. The show bids fair to excel anything of the kind ever held in the Province of Quebec.

Chief Justice Lacoste.

MONTREAL, Sept. 17.

Hon. Senator Lacoste was sworn in today Chief Justice of the Court of Queens Bench. The appointment gives universal satisfaction. Judge Church will not, probably, be able to take his seat again.

Fishery Bulletin.

(Fisheries Intelligence Bureau Report.)

HALIFAX, Sept. 18.—Anticosti—No bait to be had and no fishing of any kind.

Quebec—Codfishing fair to-day at St. John River, Magpie, Long Point and New Port Point. Good at Perce but poor at all other stations. Very good catches of launce at Sheldrake and Big Point.

P. E. Island.—Mackerel fishing fair at Big Minimagash, but poor at Kildare, Tignish and Alberton. Hake still plentiful at Souris and Georgetown, and fair catches of cod and mackerel at the latter.

Cape Breton—Cod good and herring fair at Arichat and a few mackerel at St. Peters, but no further reports.

Nova Scotia—Good hauls of cod taken at Lunenburg, and fair takes of herring and mackerel in shore. A few cod, haddock and herring at Port Latour.

Telegraphic News.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Thirty-five cases of cholera and 18 deaths are reported on the British men-of-war Marathon and Red Breast at Bombay. The epidemic has subsided in Bombay, there being no cases either in the town or in the harbor.

VIENNA, Sept. 16.—Alarming accounts of brigandage, growing out of famine, come from South Russia. Murders and outrages by starving peasants are of daily occurrence. In many villages complete anarchy prevails.

HALIFAX, Sept. 16.—H. M. S. Narcissus, one of the new first-class cruisers of 5,000 tons and twelve guns, has been ordered to refit at once for a commission on the North American and West India station.

LONDON, Sept. 15. — The Standard's Odessa correspondent says that during the coming five weeks 10,000 troops would be conveyed by the Russian volunteer fleet from Batoum to Sebastopol and Odessa.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 15.—John McCafferty, a telephone lineman, met with a horrible death at five o'clock this afternoon. McCafferty had started to climb a pole in front of the court house, when he touched a wire that had become crossed with an electric light wire, and with a groan he fell downward toward the street, which was crowded with horrified spectators. His shoes caught and his body was left dangling in the air with his head downward, for fully five minutes before a ladder could be obtained. His arms, feet and body were hooribly burned and he died in great agony while being conveyed to the hospital.

ROME, Sept. 15.—In view of the threatening aspect of the political situation, Signor Colombo, Minister of Finance, proposes to increase the amount of taxation from 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 lire. The government is privately urging the speedy completion of the men-of-war now being built and has ordered others to Spezzia and Naples to complete their armaments. All merchantmen classed as cruisers have been ordered to sail to given points immediately to ship guns and ammunition.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION.—Meeting of Council of Queen's Co. Rifle Association tonight at 7 30 p. m., in the Law Courts Building.

SMALL EGG.—Mr. J. G. Wilbur, of Shediac, has forwarded the Moncton Times an egg laid by a Plymouth Rock hen which is not larger than a good-sized cherry. The hen is supposed to have been drawn in the mouth because of the McKinley Bill.

Davies' New Drug Store.

WE are now fully opened for business, and invite the public to come and inspect our new Store.

Our stock of Drugs, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Fancy, Toilet and miscellaneous articles has been doubled, and the public will not find a more complete stock in any Drug Store on the Island.

We are carrying a very choice line of French, English and German Perfumes, also in Fancy Soaps.

We have also added to the attraction of our new Store an elaborate Soda Fountain, the finest ever imported to Charlottetown, where the popular beverages of the season are dispensed. An important point with our beverages is that the Syrups run through the Fountain are made with genuine Fruit Juices, not artificial flavors.

The choicest brands of Havana Cigars in the city, Tobacco, Cigarettes, Pipes, Tobacco Pouches, etc. Give us a call.

AGENTS WANTED!—"Life of Sir John A. Macdonald," by Col. J. P. Macpherson. In the dark days of 1873-78, Col. J. Pennington Macpherson, nephew of the late Premier, proposed to him to write the story of his life. He concurred, and gave assistance by letters to persons in possession of the necessary information respecting his public life, since which time the work has steadily proceeded. Owing to the author's connection and intimacy with his uncle, he is in a position to give many interesting facts which no other writer could, and much fuller information regarding the events with which Sir John was so closely connected. Address EARLE PUBLISHING HOUSE, St. John, N. B., Sole Publishers.
