Tired but Sleepless

Is a condition which gradually wears away the strength. Let the blood be purified and enriched by Hood's Sarsaparilla and this condition will cease.

"For two or three years I was subject to poor spells. I always felt tired, could not sleep at night and the little I could eat did not do me any good. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and decided to try it. Before I had finished two bottles I began to feel better and in a short time I felt all right and had gained 21 pounds in weight. I am stronger and healthier than I have ever been in my life." JOHN W. COUGHLIN, Wallaceburg, Ontario.

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save use many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame." Civil Service Gazette

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

The most southern points of this our Island Garden of the Gulf of St. Lawrence are from Cape Bear to Wood Islands and Belle Creek. Intervening is White Sands, High Bank and Little Sands. These are the sunniest and most charming spots on the Island. The land has a southern slope to the shore and is very picturesque There is quite a variety in the height of the banks, varying from seventy or eighty feet at High Bank till at Belle Creek and Flat River it decreases to one or two. The bathing facilities are unsurpassed, and the balmy breeze, surcharged with the odor of the balsam of the pine and the fir, and the spruce, commingling with the sea air, make a combination that is usually sought by the tourist escaping from the over-crowded, over-heated cities of the south. The only drawback to having this section made a place of popular resort in summer is want of communication. Were its advantages more generally known and railway communication established, there is no doubt that a half a dozen summer hotels would dot this beautiful coast in a very short time. The advantages are unsurpassed. Everything is favorable. The season would be longer than on the north side, and while cool, enough the southern slopes are not chilled by the cold air of the north side. Here will, in a year or two, be another field for our Newsons, Halls, &c. They have only to go in and possess this land as soon as railway communication is established. The people are industrious and hospitable to the last degree. Quite a number of comfortable residences are to be found, and a number of good business men attend to the wants of the communities. At Little Sands J. J. McPhee, Esq, and Mr. Keeping supplp the farmers' needs. Here, also, Mr. Cairns who carries on the fishing business lately conducted by Duncan Munn, Esq., has a commodious dwelling place and a good farm. Mr. Matheson attends to the clothing of the human form divine, and churches, schools, halls, &c., are in abundance. The residence of Robert Dixon, Esq., and his extensive farm and mill property is situated here. His customers find in him the "soul of honor." As we go west, we come to the breakwater, on which some $12,000 has lately been spent, and near which is the residence of the hospitable Captain Brown. Near by is a neat two-story dwelling, occupied by Donald J. McMillan, Esq., and his amiable partner. Perhaps there is not a medical practitioner in the Province who has relieved so much suffering as "Donal Shames," whose knowledge of the healing art is proverbial. He is now old and feeble, but the lively sparkle of his eye is yet to be seen when relating the hardships and thrilling adventures of his earlier days. Like his great Master, he went about healing the sick, without fee or reward. His son, the late H. M. P. McMillan, died a few years ago, and added to the solitude of a good man, who is an ornament to his class. Here, also, is the neat, two-story dwelling of Mr. George Young, who, besides running a good carding and cloth mill adds to the successful operations of a neat farm. A little more inward from the shore at Wood Island North is the residence and business place of Duncan Crawford, Esq. His is a cosy place, and the traveller finds a welcome from Mr. Crawford and his amiable lady. Not far is the Wood Island Church, which is the chief preaching station of the Rev. A. S. Stuart, the popular Presbyterian clergyman. If you are out in this section and wish to hear a really good practical sermon, be sure and attend the Wood Island Church. Wood Islands is a pretty place, with many good farms. Here are the McNeill's, the McMillan's, the Taylor's, etc., galore, all men of firm physique, and having all the characteristics or the true Highland race.

We must proceed west and come to Belle Creek. The land of the Bell's, the Stuarts, the Martins, the Comptons, the Saunders, the Bears, the McDonald's, etc. A pier or breakwater has been constructed here, mostly by the private resources and energy of the people. The Local Government spent a little money trying to improve it. It is yet far from being sufficient for the shipping requirements of the surrounding country. It is a great pity it was not considered of sufficient importance to be assumed by the Dominion Government. Some say that "Creek" at the end of the name had a misleading effect. If so, the name should be changed. Here is the residence of Donald McLaren, Esq, merchant, and a compact and well-finished house it is. He and Mrs. McLaren, are, however, well worthy of it, and though comparatively recently built, it has sheltered the tired traveller on many, many occasions. Their son Dr. McLaren, has moved west to British Columbia, where their only daughter is the happy wife of Mr. Mann, formerly of Little Sands, who is now thriving in his western home. This is the oldest settlement of the group. The Bells, Stuarts, Martins and McDougalls, were the first settlers, when the place was well wooded. Blood-curdling adventures with bears were common in those days, when the stalwart forms of the original settlers could almost any day be seen chasing bruin to his lair with a pitch-fork or an axe. There were giants in those days, and their descendants bear honest testimony of it to the present day. As a class, the farmers are conservative and frugal. They are all comfortably well off, which may be the reason they are inclined to leave well enough alone, and averse to radical changes. Mr. Donald Compton has here a lobster packing establishment. He is enterprising and deserves success. Here also lives Capt. Alex. McDougal, whose sons are, with several schooners, active in the coasting trade. Further on is Flat River, the home of the McKenzies, the Rosss, the Beatons, the Nicholsons, the Morrisons, the Blues, the McDonalds, etc. The only and leading merchant is Capt. McKenzie, who has quite a large establishment. His business is extensive and includes many customers from all sections. Here also hospitality is dealt out with no meagre or unsparing hand. Long may they live. From Flat River passing through Pinnette we come to Eldon.

The Italian-British Entente.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—The Times publishes a despatch from Rome saying that military circles there are strongly of the opinion that Great Britain stands sentinel at Zeila, on the Gulf of Aden, as the guardian of Ras Makonnen's interests, enabling him to unite with King Metelik for an attack on General Baratieri, The despatch adds that there is strong feeling growing in Italy that the Italo-British entente is a failure.

Chicago University Again Remembered

Chicago, Dec. 16 — The Chicago university to-day was the recipient of another $1,000,000 gift, the donor being Miss Helen Culver of this city. The conditions are that it shall be devoted to the increase and spread of knowledge within the field of biological science, or the sum donated may be used for the purpose of purchasing land and for the erection and equipment of a building. Miss Culver, about 60 years old, is a niece of the late Charles J. Hull, from whom she inherited a fortune of $6,000,000.

SAVED HIS LIFE.

"I now weigh nearly 200 pounds," said a robust, fine looking man the other day; and yet this same man was given up to die of consumption less than two years ago. What cured him? Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil did. He took it when at a low ebb, when his weight was less than 100 pounds. It created new blood for him, and that combined with his will power, raised him up to a life of usefulness and happiness. If you are threatened with consumption or any lung trouble, try Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Chase's Pills have gained popularity because the are a specific for the uric acid condition, prevent Bright's disease, cure Rheumatism and all Catarrhal conditions of the Kidneys and Bladder. They do this because they possess remarkable alterative, tonic and diuretic properties, exerting a wonderfully soothing influence on irritated or inflamed mucos membranes of the kidneys or bladder, One pill a dose. 25 a box. The chrapest medicine in the world.

Bad Blood Between Them.

The ever slaving farmer's wife, her delicate sister in the city, suffer more than they care to tell. The dark rings round the eyes, headaches, dizziness, palpitation or rheumatic twinges, betoken a run-down system. The blood is poor, and is a bar to enjoyment of life. Scott's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, strengthens and vitalizes the system, and speedily restores the bloom of health to the cheeks. It cures when all others fail.

Mr. Lowther spoke in favor of preferential trade relations between all parts of the empire at a meeting of British agriculturists in London, and a resolution in favor of protecting British industries was carried.

Mr. C. Donnelly, wholesale liquor dealer, Alliston, Ont., was troubled for years with Itching Piles. He was persuaded by Jas. McGarvey, Alliston, livery man, to use Chase's Ointment, which he did, was cured, has had no return of them and highly recommends this Ointment as a sovereign cure for Piles.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt has broken the record for extravagance in stage dresses. Her latest addition to her theatrical wardrobe cost the neat little sum of $7,500. It is of ivory satin, decorated with diamonds and turquoises, the train being lined with ermine. The skins of 200 animals were required to line the train, and the turquoise band on the skirt contains 1,800 stones, so it will be seen that Mme. Bernhardt got her ivory satin gown at a comparative bargain.

CHRONIC HEADACHE.

The change in my Mother's condition marcellous.

Scott's Sarsaparilla is a Boon.

MONTREAL, August 29th, 1895.

GENTLEMEN:—There is such a change in my mother's health that I cannot restrain myself from writing you. She suffered for years past with a chronic headache, accompanied with a disordered stomach. She was weak and irritable, and we thought she was going into a decline. For three weeks she has been taking a course of Scott's Sarsaparilla, which was recommended to her by Mr. McGale, Druggist, Montreal. Her headache is now but a memory, her appetite is good, and she has gained five pounds in weight in twelve days. She is a different woman, and I feel that you, in God's hands, have been the means of restoring her to health. I shall always recommend Scott's Sarsaparilla to sufferers from head or digestive troubles. Thanking you again, I close.

Yours sincerely,
Hortense Gaviliere.

Scott's Sarsaparilla is a concentrated extract, pleasant to the taste, and is taken in small doses. It is the finest remedy for disorders of the stomach and liver, palpitation, screfulous sores, eczema and skin diseases arising from impurities of the blood. It builds up the weak, the strong it maintains in health. $1 of all druggists.

THE TURK IN ARMENIA.

What profits it, O England, to prevail
In camp, and mart, and council and bestrew
With sovereign argosies the subject blue,
And wrest thy tribute from each golden gale
If in thy strongholds thou canst hear the wail
Of maidens martyred by the turbaned crew
Whose tenderest mercy was the sword that slew,
And lift no hand to wield the purging flail?
We deemed of old thou heldst a charge from Him,
Who watches, girdled by his Seraphim,
To smite the wronger with thy destined rod.
Wait'st thou His sign? Enough the sleepless cry
Of virgin souls for vengeance, and on high
The gathering of the blackness of the frown of God.

HARRO.

Frank D. Sherman in Harper's Weekly.

This is brave Harro's story—
Harro who watched the sea.
To his renown I set it down
As it was told to me.

Back from the reef-caught vessel
Came Harro's comrades four,
And with them ten half-perished men
Safe landed on the shore.

"And are these all?" asked Harro,
Answered the sailors brave:
"Nay. One lashed high we left to die
And find an ocean grave."

Cried Harro, "Who goes with me
To rescue him, the last,
Alive or dead? Shall it be said
We left one on the mast?"

Spoke up his gray-haired mother,
"Oh, Harro, boy, my son,
Go not, I pray. 'Tis death they say,
And there is only one."

"Father and brother Uwe
The cruel sea hath slain.
My last art thou. Good Harro, now,
Let me not plead in vain."

Answered brave Harro, "Mother,
Who knows, perchance for him
Under the skies a mother's eyes
To-day with tears grow dim."

"Farewell. God watches over
The fields of flying foam,
And he shall keep us on the deep,
And safely bring us home."

Wild was the storm-swept ocean,
And like a fragile leaf
The life-boat tossed long ere it crossed
Unto the distant reef.

Wild was the sea, and madly
Ever the tempest blew,
While down the track came Harro back
With one besides the crew.

Hard to the oars his comrades
Bent in the shrieking gale,
And Harro cried, when land he spied,
"Thank God, we shall not fail."

And when he saw his mother
Pacing the shore in tears,
Loud over all the storm his call
Brought gladness to her ears.

Over and over he shouted,
And high his cap he waved,
"God gives thee joy! God sends thy boy!
'Tis Uwe we have saved."

Such is brave Harro's story—
Harro who watched the sea.
To his renown I set it down
As it was told to me.

SELF DENIAL IN HALIFAX.—The Herald says: Captain Carter, of the Salvation Army, collected $75 in Halifax for self-denial, and not $35 as reported by Captain Newell's friend in Charlottetown. The officers thank all their friends for their kindness shown in this city. The total amount raised was $410 by the No. 1 corps, Brunswick street. No. 2 corps raised $225; Dartmouth corps raised $125; the Shelter raised $100, and the Rescue Home $20. This makes a total of $880 for self-denial week for Halifax and Dartmouth.

Tax-Payers Are Disqualified.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16.—Only fifteen per cent. of the citizens of Hull have paid their taxes; the remaining 85 per cent. are disqualified under the city's charter from voting at the ensuing municipal elections

More Fighting in Ashantee.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—A despatch from Cape Coast Castle to a news agency says it is reported there that King Prempeh, of Ashantee, has attacked and routed the tribe of Adanisis, native allies of the British, dispoiling them with great slaughter.

The St. John Exhibition.

ST. JOHN, December 16 —The exhibition association management has submitted an account of this season's fair. The total expenditure was $23,000, of which over $11,000 was for buildings and capital outlay. The receipts of the fair were $15,000. To meet the shortage of $8,000 there were subsidies of $3,000 from the city and $1,000 from the province, and a guarantee of $3,000 each from the city and province. As the management will leave $2,000 of the guarantee untouched, and has $8,000 or $10,000 worth of plant available for next year, the report is considered very satisfactory.

The nationalities of the British army, according to the newly issued blue book, are thus classified: 163,000 Englishmen, 16,000 Scotchmen and 26,000 Irishmen. As regards the religious denominations, it appears that the Church of England claims 145,000, the Roman Catholic Church 37,000, the Presbyterian Church 15,000 and the Wesleyan Church 12,000.

The Prince of Wales has given a church to Babingley, which forms part of the extreme portion of the royal estate of Sandringham. Babingley is reputed to be the parish where the first Christian church was erected in East Anglia by St. Felix the Burgundian, about the year 600 A. D.

We've Got It!

and you want it. It's not hard to get it. We sell it cheap. All kinds of Lumber.

Come and See It!

It costs you nothing to examine, and very little more to buy it.

Will You Take It?

We're agreed. You want Lumber and we've got it. You have money and we want it. We'll treat you right. You give us a handful of money and we'll give you a whole load of Lumber.

THAT'S PHILOSOPHY!
