

Busy Agenda's Set For Premiers' Meet

Agenda for the visit next week of Canada's prime minister and provincial premiers has been released by Provincial Secretary David Stewart, and will include fireworks, band concerts, military displays, and a re-enactment of the arrival 100 years ago of the Fathers of Confederation.

A federal-provincial conference, likely to discuss changes in Victoria Park, the Royal Canadian Navy will hold a 27-minute Sunset Ceremony. At 8:30 a band concert will be held near Government House, followed by a fireworks display at 9:30. After the fireworks display at 10:15, ships in the harbor will be lighted.

The Sept. 1 events begin at 11 a.m. in the Confederation Chamber in the Province Building with the prime minister and each of the provincial premiers attending a commemorative address. This program is to be filmed by television crews.

Premier Walter R. Shaw will be host at a government luncheon for the prime minister and premiers at 12:30 at the Charlottetown Hotel.

At 1:15 p.m. on Monday, a reception for the visitors will be held on board HMCS Cape Scott in Charlottetown. At 6:30, the party leaves the ship for dinner at Montserrat Hall.

Magistrate Hears 14 Cases, 12 Charges Involve Liquor

Four men appeared in magistrate's court yesterday on impaired driving charges. Magistrate James B. Johnson, QC, fined Edward James Morrison of New Glasgow $100 and costs or 10 days on each charge.

Two of the men so charged pleaded not guilty and were remanded to later dates. They were Douglas Stuart Moore, Mount Edward Road, and Hector Howard Morrison, O'Leary View, remanded to Aug. 31.

The other man failed to appear and the court issued a warrant for Albert Watson Stewart, Carleton. The case was set over to August 26.

Donald Keith Smith of Stanhope was remanded to September 17 on a criminal negligence charge resulting from an accident in which Duncan Alban MacInnis was killed. (Mrs. Malcolm) MacLean, Souris, was set over to August 31. Mrs. MacLean is charged with possession of goods known to be stolen with a value exceeding $50.

Five men were each fined $20 and costs or 15 days for be-

Smallwood Indicates Attendance

Premier Joseph Smallwood of Newfoundland, who missed the Banff premiers' conference several weeks ago, has announced that he will come to Charlottetown with a delegation for the Centennial commemorative meeting of all Canadian premiers next week.

All other premiers involved had already indicated acceptance of the Charlottetown invitation. They are expected to arrive here during the afternoon of Monday, Aug. 31.

RHS Classes Have Enrollment Of 166 Students

ALBERTON - Alberton district regional high school classes began yesterday with some 166 students present.

It is expected that a few more will join the number within the week.

There were 18 students in grade 10, 37 in grade 11, 35 in grade 10, 64 in grade nine and 12 in commercial.

William Cain of Summersville has returned as principal. Other members of last year's staff who have returned include Lorna Currie of Elmdale, Melvin Perry of St. Lewis and Perley MacNeill of Leary.

New members of the academic staff are Miss Eva Sabine of West Point, Paul Batchelder of Charlottetown and William MacInnis of Charlottetown.

Miss Marion McEwen of Sussex has returned to teach the commercial class and Mrs. Ruth Sommers of Montreal will continue as instructor of music.
