MARKETS and FINANCE

Toronto: Industrials moderately improved; mining stocks dull. New York: Stocks higher; buying flood boosts prices. Montreal: Market easier; steels improve.

Montreal Stocks

MONTREAL (CP)-The stock market closed on a softer note Tuesday, though marked improvements were noted in several of Monday's weaker issues. Price movements ranged to about 2% points in extremes with declines showing a margin of almost two-to-one over advances.

Steels held early gains throughout the day to close well on the upside. Base metals, bright in regular pattern. Utilities and beverages, the latter buoyant at the opening, were narrowly mixed. Papers moved irregularly easier while senior oils and banks slumped-declines ranging to more than a point. The majority of western oils were headed.

The mining trend was a slight lower one. Volume while active.
