

Beautiful Things.

A gentle voice, a heartfelt sigh, A modest blush, a speaking eye. A manner unaffected, free; These things are beautiful to me.

A ready hand, a loving heart, A sympathy that's free from art, A real friend among the few; These things are beautiful and true.

A mother's prayer, an answer mild, An aged sire, a little child, A happy home, a cheerful hearth; These things are beautiful on earth.

A joyful song, a chorus sweet, An earnest soul and willing feet, A day of peace, a night of rest; These things are beautiful and blest.

A sister's love a brother's care, A spotless name, a jewel rare, A gentle tongue that will not lie; These things are beautiful—and why?

Because they are all born of love, And emanate from God above, An earnest of the heavenly birth; These things are beautiful on earth.

Mrs. M. A. KIDDER.

Anecdotes of Sydney Smith.

Lord Houghton, in his Monographs Personal and Social, gives the following, though he will not vouch for its authenticity. In his Lordship's opinion, the anecdote is good enough to be true:

On being settled in his small living in Yorkshire, Sydney willingly assisted his neighbors in their clerical duties. On one occasion of this kind he dined with the incumbent on the preceding Saturday, and the evening passed in hilarity, the squire, by name Kershaw, being conspicuous for his loud enjoyment of the stranger's jokes. 'I am very glad that I have amused you,' said Mr. Sydney Smith, at parting, 'but you must not laugh at my sermon to-morrow.' I should hope I know the difference between here and at church,' remarked the gentleman with sharpness. 'I am not so sure of that,' replied the visitor; 'I'll bet you a guinea on it,' said the squire. 'Take you replied the divine. Next day the preacher ascended the steps of the pulpit apparently suffering from a severe cold, with his handkerchief to his face, and at once sneezed out the name Kershaw several times, in various intonations. This ingenious assumption of the readiness with which a man would recognise his own name in sounds imperceptible to the ears of others proved accurate. The poor gentleman burst into a guffaw at the scandal of the congregation; and the minister after looking at him with stern reproach, proceeded with his discourse and won the bet.

Do Good.

The life of nearly every one is darkened at times by shadows, and the gloom thickens into the deepest blackness when we yield to their influence. None are exempt from storm clouds or real or fancied troubles, no more than the heavens are not exempt from occasional coverings of murky folds, but as is able, and does, sooner or later, dispel every cloud that passes his pathway, so there is power in human nature to rise above any and all shadows that cross our lives. Men at all times bask in the golden light of cheerfulness or reign in the realm of happiness. Any man or woman may obtain this balm, for it is free for all, and of easy access to all. Kind reader, would you know what is the shield that is thus capable of warding away from your life's happiness every dart that is thrown against it? It is—do good. The heart may at times be bowed with sorrow, and afflictions may at times severely try the elasticity of your spirits, but if within the heart there is a desire to do good, and be good, no power on earth can keep that life in darkness. A pleasant word to some weary traveller who makes a casual inquiry of you, will come forth, as you note the clearing away of the gloom on his face, it will lighten your own burden and relieve your own sorrow. A smile to some care-worn friend, or pleasant words of greeting will do the same, but above all a heart fixed on the pure and holy things of life, with a purpose and effort to relieve the trials of all will, bless with 'peace that passes understanding,' and give a life of sunshine and happiness. Do good to others if you would be happy yourself. Try our prescription. It will prove efficacious in every life and bring gladness to all who follow its guidance.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtues as BOSCHIE'S GERMAN SYRUP for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing everyone that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different; the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered.

Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER.

You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
