FLOWER DISPLAY OUTSTANDING

Fifth Annual Provincial Show Opened In S'side

The fifth annual Provincial Flower Show, sponsored by the Abegweit Chapter of the I. O. D. E. opened yesterday in Summerside in the Baptist Hall and was a revelation to the large number of people who came to view and admire the beautiful array of flowers, a display which has grown steadily each year and which has now reached a point where more accommodation will be required to fully do justice to the ever increasing number of exhibits.

Due to the exceptionally large number of entries the judges were unable to complete their task until a late hour last night.

A perennial winner since the first year of the show, Mr. Hammond Bowness of Bedeque again won the Maurice Mill Rose Bowl Trophy, up for annual competition. This trophy is presented each year to the exhibitor with the highest number of points in the show.

The R. T. Holman Tray for the best table decoration was won this year by Mrs. Gordon MacMillan of Cornwall.

Prize for the highest number of points by an a exhibitor who had not won more than three firsts in previous shows, donated by Miss Mary Hunt, was won by Mrs. Milton Mellish of Summerside.

Mrs. Harold Bulpitt, Roseneath, was awarded the special prize donated by Mrs. James Hunter for the highest number of points in the dahlia section.

The special prize donated by Mrs. W. H. McKee for the best sweet pea exhibit went to Mrs. Harry Horton of Summerside. Mrs. Horton also won the special prize donated by Mrs. Harry Holman for the best basket arrangement.

In the Novice class Mrs. Frank Ross of Charlotttetown won the special prize donated by Mr. George Williams and another special prize donated by Mr. Williams for the highest points in African violets was awarded to Mrs. Milton Mellish, Summerside.

In the children's section awards to the following were presented:

Bouquet for wild flowers— 1. Allen Hubley, 2. Richard Ross, 3. Ferne Bowness.

Bouquet of any garden flowers— 1. Elizabeth Holman, 2. Ferne Bowness, 3. David Mercer.

Prizes to all these winners were announced and presented last evening by Dr. Henry Moyse.

SHOW OPENED

At three o'clock in the afternoon the show was officially opened by Mr. R. C. Parent, superintendant of the Experimental Farm, Charlottetown, who expressed his opinion that the show was certainly getting better every year. He said he had been in attendance since the show began and that he and his associates at the Experimental Farm were happy to be associated with the flower show and would continue to give it all the help they could.

The civic welcome was extended by Mayor William Currie. His Worship commended the Abegweit Chapter for having initiated the show five years ago and for sponsoring it each since.

"We are fortunate," he said," that the Lord gave us a picture garden in the first place and we can further adorn this picture by working to convert our back yards into fairy gardens."

The speakers were introduced by Miss Wanda Wyatt, Regent of the Abegweit Chapter and one of the prime movers of the show who has worked unceasingly since its inception to make the show the great success that it is today.

Miss Wyatt said that the show had been sponsored by the chapter and that it had been a really worth while effort. She expressed deep appreciation to the exhibitors because as she said "without you we could not have a show at all and we really do appreciate having the general public come and view the flowers when they are on display. We most certainly do appreciate also the generosity of those who have donated prizes."

She explained that the show had been originally a gladiola show but with the passing of the years many other varities have been added. She said that she and the committee were most delighted to note an increase in the interest taken in "The Children's Corner."

"More of the young people," she went on, "are taking an increased interest and bringing in flowers to exhibit."

The judges of the show were Messrs. Gordon Warren and Wilfred Cudmore of Charlottetown, David Schurman of Bedeque and Mrs. Ernest Evans of Charlottetown.

EVENING PROGRAM

During the evening portion of the show a delightful program was arranged by the committee and consisted of the following numbers; Miss Coleen MacNeill tap dance; trio, Miss Myrna Hancock, Miss Maureen Forbes and Miss Irene Mountain two numbers the first an English folk song and fort heir encore "It's a Grand Night For Singing."; little Miss Coleen MacNeill, who was one of the prominent winners in the Music Festival favored the audience with an encore in which she danced an Irish Jig; Miss Bonnie Morrison another Music Festival winner gave an interpertation of a Spanish gypsy dance which was heartily encored.

The flower show will continue today and tonight between five and seven o'clock the flowers on display will be sold to anyone wishing to buy them.

S'SIDE Y's MEN'S SWIMMING CLASSES

The fourth and final swimming class of the 1956 season, sponsored by the Summerside Y' sMen's Club, is seen above with their instructors, Davison Bigger, members of the Y's Men's swimming committee and Mrs. Harry Cudmore, director of swimming and water safety for P.E.I. The youthful swimmers were taken daily on a bus owned by the Y's Men's Club to a beautiful sandy beach a few miles west of Summerside at Linkletter Shore.

During the summer approximately 500 boys and girls received swimming instructions from qualified instructors provided by the Summerside Y's Men's Club. This is about the tenth year that the club has sponsored a program to teach children how to swim and the fundamentals of water safety.

Let's Talk It Over

Canadians who saw the American picture, "Blackboard Jungle" must have been shocked at the total absence of classroom discipline portrayed. We personally came to the conclusion that either conditions were greatly exaggerated for dramatic effect or that the particular situation was an extreme one: and not typical of even the poorer examples of school conditions in large cities of the U. S. A. After reading an article by a New Jersey School teacher in a prominent American magazine we are not so sure that "Blackboard Jungle" was not depicting a fairly typical condition of schools in American cities.

It is difficult to believe that pupils would act in a classroom as the New Jersey teacher describes. She says that, "Look the other way," is a pretty well accepted rule for teachers who are in charge (only nominally it would seem) of these hardboiled students (If you can call such a mob of rowdies students.).

Island teachers can indeed be thankful that their worst disciplinary problems do not begin to approach those of the teachers in urban centres of the United States.

The writer offers suggestions for improvement, and one of these seems applicable even on Prince Edward Island. She advises, "That uneducable youngsters – and this includes those waiting to attain legal quitting age - be removed from classes where learning is supposed to occur." There is no room in the ordinary classroom for pupils who for one reason or another are not getting any value out of the school program. People will indignantly assert the inviolable right of all children to an education, but surely this doesn't apply if they are not getting an education, and only proving a nuisance to the teacher and class.

The first of a two-day Blood Donor Clinic at Summerside yesterday was visited by 241 donors of an expected 250
