The Prince County Convention.

A GRAND REPRESENTATION OF PRINCE COUNTY.

Complete Harmony of Feeling

Hackett and Lefurgey Nominated.

ACCORDING to announcement a meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association for Prince County was held in the Market Hall in Summerside, on the 30th ult. Although the thermometer registered ten below zero and the travelling was very bad, there were about four hundred electors present. It was very difficult, in such a large meeting, to get a list of names of all who were present, in fact, we found it impossible to get more than half the number.

give below a correct list as far as could be obtained. At ten o'clock, David Rogers, Esq., President of the Association, called the meeting to order, and briefly explained the object. He said the names that had been prominent before the public for some time past as possible candidates, and all of whom he was pleased to see present, were Edward Hackett, the Hon. John Lefurgey, Hon. Wm. Richards, Peter Gavin, G. W. Bentley and himself; but for himself he would take this earliest opportunity of saying that nothing would induce him to consent to be nominated at the present time.

The Hon. Wm. Richards then thanked the many friends who had been good enough to mention his name for the high honor of representing the great Conservative party of the County in the Dominion House of Commons, but at the present time business engagements and other reasons would prevent him from contesting the County. Taking it for granted that Mr. Hackett would be one of the candidates, he hoped Mr. Lefurgey would accept the other nomination. He assured the nominees of the party that he would give them all the support in his power.

Messrs. Bentley and Gavin, having expressed themselves in similar terms.

Mr. Lefurgey being called for, said that he had no ambition to enter the coming contest. He knew that his name had been mentioned as a candidate, and had almost made up his mind, when coming to this meeting, to decline the honor intended to be conferred upon him. He was pleased to see such a splendid County representation present. It was the largest and most representative meeting of the kind ever held in the County, and augured well for the success of the party. It showed that the people were taking an interest in the matter, and that they had great faith in the honesty, integrity, ability and enterprise of the great Liberal Conservative party under the leadership of Sir John Macdonald. (Cheers.) He referred to the negotiations recently effected between the Local Government and the Dominion of Canada, the result of which would be that with economy the affairs of this Province could be conducted for years to come without resorting to taxation. He thanked the delegates for the nomination, and said that he firmly believed, that by the Conservative party working loyally together, they would return their two men for this County. Entertaining that belief, he accepted the nomination, and said now that he was in the contest, he would work hard, and expected that the whole party would go to work immediately to secure the victory.

Mr. Hackett then came forward and accepted the nomination, and made a grand stirring campaign speech. He refuted the slanders that had been manufactured out of the Costigan-Blake vote on the Irish question. He was frequently cheered, and made a splendid impression.

The nominations were unanimously confirmed by the delegates and the whole meeting.

Senator Howland was called for, and made a good speech on the political situation generally. He also made some reference to the Subway, which is now a live issue.

Resolutions were passed thanking Senator Howland for his energetic and successful efforts in connection with the Subway, and requesting the coming members for the Dominion House of Commons for this District to support the enterprise.

Among those present were:—
Hon. John Lefurgey, Summerside; Hon. Joseph O. Arsenault, Egmont Bay; Hon. Wm. Examination of Lower North River School.

The examination of this School took place on the 23rd ult. A large number of parents and visitors were present, and expressed themselves highly pleased with the diligence and progress exhibited. The attendance this term has been larger than ever before, and the advance made by the young pupils more marked, reflecting much credit upon the ability of the teacher, Mr. Henry Lawson. The following prizes were given for general proficiency in the several classes:—

6th class—Dean McEwen.

5th class—1st, Mary Ann Robertson; 2nd, Alice Murchison.

4th class—Cora White.

3rd class—Clifford Scott.

2nd class, (first division)—1st, Winnie White, 2nd, Willie Moreside.

2nd class, (second division)—Waldo Bain.

Prize for best reading—Laura Howard.

Prize for best map—Una White.

Rev. A. H. Lavers was present, and in common with others, expressed his admiration of the ability and progress exhibited.
