R.C.M.P. Present
Enjoyable Show at
West Devon Hall

The West Devon Women's Institute Hall was packed on Friday night, Nov. 24, when Constable Keefe of the R. C. M. P. Alberton detachment showed an evening of fine colored films dealing with the work and activities of "Canada's Finest," showing how they ever live, train and work to carry out their famous motto "Maintain the Fight." The evening's fine entertainment was under the auspices of the Brae and West Devon United Church Young Peoples' Unions and boys and girls, young people and older folk attended in very large numbers from Alaska, West Devon, Coleman, Brae, Carleton Lot 6 and O'Leary. The opening was a short devotional service conducted by the Minister Rev. W. G. Dickson. He extended a very cordial and a special welcome to Constable Keefe who has spent several years as a "Mountie" in Canada's vast Northland. The projector was capably operated by Douglas Hardy of O'Leary. The first full length film was "Scarlet and Gold" which depicted the many and varied tasks in which the R. C. M. P. are engaged. It showed the young recruit in his various stages of training in the R. C. M. P. Schools at Regina and also at Rockcliffe near Ottawa. The second film showing the training of the famous Police dog and their wonderful success in apprehending criminals. Truly Police dog and Master form an unbeatable combination. The final film showed the voyage of the small R. C. M. P. boat "St. Roc" through the Northwest passage in Canada's vast

Northwest Territories, serving the R. C. M. P. post and the trading stations of the Hudson Bay Company. It was an historic journey occupying nearly two years. The pictures of the kindly and happy Eskimo, the fine views of the polar bears, the sea-lions and other creatures of the North were most educational. After the films were shown, Constable Keefe who has spent a number of years in that territory gave a most interesting and graphic account of the work of "the Mounties". It was replete with humor and was greeted with much applause by the boys and girls and by their elders. Constable Keefe stressed the fact that the policeman is a friend of boys and girls and not their enemy and he asked the parents never to frighten the children by telling them the Mountie would get them. The R. C. M. P. are doing a splendid work by stressing citizenship to the rising generation by means of supervised athletics, by speaking in schools etc. This farious force now polices eight of Canada's ten provinces, only Quebec and Ontario have Provincial police forces. Two new provinces, British Columbia and Newfoundland have recently been taken over for police duties, by the R. C. M. P. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Constable Keefe by Mr. Charles Morehead, Elder in the West Devon congregation and seconded by Mr. Fred MacLeod, elder in the Brae congregation, and carried unanimously. Candy was sold by the West

Williams - Love
Wedding

A most interesting and pretty autumn wedding was solemnized on Saturday, November 18th at 4 p.m. in Central United Church Manse, Moncton, when Marion Joyce Love, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Love, Borden, exchanged vows with William Leonard Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Williams, Elmsdale. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. G.P. Forsey, was witnessed by relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The bride given in marriage by her father looked charming in a grey suit with black velvet accessories and corsage of Tallman roses. Her only ornament was a double-strand brilliant necklace, gift of the groom. The bridesmaid, Miss Phyllis White was becomingly attired in a grey gabardine suit with dark green accessories and a corsage of yellow Tallman roses. The groom was attended by L.A.C. Henry L. MacFarlane of Moncton. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the palm dining-room of the Brunswick Hotel. Mrs. Love, mother of the bride assisted the bridal party in receiving the guests. She was attired in black with Mandarin red accessories and a corsage of red and white carnations. Later the bride and groom left on a wedding trip through New Brunswick. For travelling the bride wore a tomato red wool dress with black velvet hat and black seal coat with white mink trim. They will reside in Goose Bay, Labrador. - A Devon Y. P. U. and the money realized was for the Missionary and Maintenance Fund of the Church. Delicious refreshments were then served and this brought a splendid evening to a close.
