BALTIMORE (AP) — Casey Stengel's American League squad, loaded with nine New York Yankees, is favored over the strong National League team in the 25th all-star baseball game to be played Tuesday at Memorial Stadium.

Except for an occasional fleet glimpse on television, National League players are angers in Baltimore which has a back in the majors for only a year and never has seen an all-star or world series game. Playing in friendly surroundings in a familiar park as the club, the Americans have made a 13 to 10 man-to-man bet. The National, however, won six of the last eight games, whittling the American's margin to 10-10.

They used to call the all-star Stengel's jinx for he had in only once in six attempts all star. The 1957 game at St. Louis went to the Americans with each team scoring three runs in a wild ninth inning.

CAPACITY CROWD
The silver anniversary game is to draw a capacity crowd of about 47,000 with 60 per cent of gate receipts and 60 per cent of the radio-television money going to the player pension fund.

The game will be beamed on network radio and TV as part of a five-year contract by which baseball gets $3,250,000 a year for the all-star and world series.
