

Wellington and Vicinity

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. John Cotton, Miscouche, in his recent sad bereavement. Mrs. John Graham, Wellington librarian, attended a convention on Wednesday in Charlottetown. Miss Frances Barlow recently spent a few days with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Earl MacEachern, Summerside. Messrs. John Graham and Gerald MacArthur are busily engaged in repairing Wellington English school. His many friends are pleased to see Master Wyman MacAusland home from Prince County Hospital where he has been a patient for several days owing to a broken arm he received in a fall at his home. Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Owen MacWilliams, Richmond, in the sudden passing of their infant son. Mr. H. E. Brooks of Summerside, recently visited at the manse. Miss Dorothy Gamble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Major Gamble, Southwest, has been confined to her home by illness. Mrs. John Winchester, Bayside, Lot 14, was a recent visitor to Summerside. Congratulations are extended to Mr. Lorne S. Bigelow on the anniversary of his birth Sept. 19. On this occasion he was kindly remembered by friends who called to extend felicitations. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and other amusements. He was also the recipient of many tokens of love and remembrance. Wellington United Church was filled to capacity on Oct. 10 when an enjoyable evening was spent, being entertained by the Eppley Sisters, gospel quintette of York, Pa. The Junior Y. P. U. met on Tuesday evening at the school and was presided over by the president, Miss Gladys Barlow, who also led the devotions. Ten members answered roll call. Messrs. Earl Enman of Victoria West and John Graham of Wellington, have been busily engaged at the manse with some renovation being made to the exterior of the building. Louis and Rosella Arseneault, children of Mr. and Mrs. Aquilino Arseneault, Abrams Village, have returned to Halifax to resume their studies at the school for the blind. Mr. and Mrs. Major McDonald of Southwest, have recently taken up residence in their beautiful and modern new home near Read's Corner. All their friends wish them happiness in their new surroundings. Members of Altar Society met Oct. 6 at the home of Mrs. Gus P. Arseneault with 21 members present. Opening prayer was returned by the secretary who then called the roll to which the members responded by paying the number of pennies corresponding to the size of their shoes. New committees were named: sick, Mrs. Gus Arseneault and Mrs. Jas. C. Gallant; school, Mrs. Matt Gallant and Mrs. Gabriel Arseneault. Next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Leo Bernard. $7.55 was realized from bingo. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Gallant left recently for the United States where they will spend the winter months with their daughter in Lawrence, Mass. They made the trip by car in company with their uncle, Andrew Gallant who has been visiting them. Their only son Clarence had returned to his duties in Ontario recently after having undergone an operation for appendicitis in P. C. Hospital during his leave. A meeting of Union Corner congregation of the United Church was held Monday evening in the church and was presided over by Mr. Waldron who opened the meeting with the singing of "The Church's One Foundation", followed by prayer. There was a good representation of the congregation. Main items on the agenda was the consideration of the wiring of the church, due to the power line going through the district. The contract was awarded to Mr. Howard Barlow who was present at the meeting and stated the work would be completed soon as possible. B. M.
