Here's The Shoe, Now For The Luck

Arthur Walsh, driver of the above C.N.R. truck, wasn't looking for luck yesterday but a bit tossed his way in the form of a flying horse-shoe which landed in the windshield as shown in the picture. It is reported that Mr. Walsh had parked the truck near Horne's on Weymouth Street and a horse owned by Thomas H. Mill's Meat Market, passing by it pulled a shoe which went flying through the air, coming to a stop in the truck windshield.

Subsequent Service The next field of service for the Stanleys was at New Waterford, C. B., where they coupled with their regular duties in Cape Breton. It was at this latter Corps that Major Stanley became very well acquainted with Rev. Frank MacLean who was then minister at Saint Andrews United Church in Sydney. Two years ago Major and Mrs. Stanley came to their most recent charge at Halifax.

Officers Elected The report of the nominating committee was read by Mrs. Alexander Hiltz and the officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. R. R. Hurst, Ch'town; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. F. A. A. Mutch, Ch'town; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. F. A. A. Mutch, Ch'town.

Afternoon Session The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Horace Paynter of Kelvin assisted by Mrs. Donald Nicholson of Clyde River. The minutes of the afternoon were read by the secretary, Mrs. Ramsay, and approved.
