Sport Echoes From Prince County

Our athletes abroad—We notice Mel Campbell and Dee Lefurgey are playing football with Horton Academy, and that their team is in the finals for the intercollegiate championship of Nova Scotia. Mel is a son of Chief Justice and Mrs. Campbell, Summer Street, Summerside, and Dee is a son of Mrs. Katherine Lefurgey, Green Street.

Donald Nicholson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ewen Nicholson, Pleasant Street, was a member of the Mount Allison football team that went down to defeat after a hard struggle with the St. Dunstan's ruggers last Saturday.

Ron MacArthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland MacArthur, Kirk Street, has caught on with the North Sydney junior hockey team. Ron will play defence for the Northside squad. Due to an over-supply of local forwards, Paul Schurman and Bill Purcell failed to catch on, and have returned home.

Congratulations are due the St. Dunstan rugby team for their winning of the Maritime intercollegiate crown, the first time, we understand that this has been accomplished by an Island team. Much of the credit must go to A. J. McAdam, their coach, who has brought the boys along with tremendous strides in the last two or three years. They were knocking at the door last year, but this same Mount A team stood in their way. This year they just wouldn't be denied and brought home the bacon by a close victory on a foreign field.

Art Pendergast, son of that well-known sports authority, "Big Jim" Pendergast, of Kensington, is a member of the new Maritime champions. All Jim's boys were athletes, but the other boys were bigger than Art, and not as fast. Boxing was their chief sport, and if you got tagged on the chin by one of them, you were likely to hit the resin with disconcerting suddenness.

Sonja Heinie Cancels Show

DETROIT, Nov. 12 —(AP)—Sonja Heinie, long one of the world's leading skaters, has cancelled her new ice show which was to have been shown in Detroit next week.

The former Olympics champion said prohibitive costs of playing in small arenas has forced discontinuance of her planned show. She said she would await new offers from the theatres or television.

Miss Heinie and her husband, Winthrop Gardiner, Jr., reportedly invested $500,000 in the new show which had a $30,000 weekly payroll.

Advertisements in Detroit newspapers Tuesday informed early ticket purchasers that their money would be refunded.

Rink Company is about to have its annual meeting to prepare for the winter season, and that is a reminder of the many stirring hockey battles which took place in that rink last winter. The Free-town Royals emerged on top as usual, and we wonder when some team is going to come forward and break the unbeaten string of this fine intermediate team.

In our last "Echoes" we omitted to mention the Airforce Daks, who at the R. C. A. F. banquet received the Roy Boates Trophy for winning the championship of the Ladies Softball League, Summerdale Ladies Softball League.

including Olympia in Detroit and Madison Square Garden in New York. Two years ago, Miss Henie failed to reach agreement with Wirtz on contract terms and she set about to do her own show. The Wirtz show continued with the youthful Canadian star, Barbara Ann Scott, in the leading role. Miss Henie's show got a bad break last year when some stands collapsed at Baltimore, Md., during a show. A number of spectators were injured and law suits totalling $5,000,000 were filed and are pending against Miss Henie.
