ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Gary Player of South Africa, playing so slowly he was threatened with a two-stroke penalty, won the Australian open golf championship Saturday by a record six strokes.

He posted total of 62-71-62-69—264 that left Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, the defending Player started the day four strokes behind Nicklaus but halved the deficit on the first two holes with a pair of eagles while the American had to be content with birdies. Player sank a 12-foot putt on the 49th yard first and his second eagle came with a 30-foot tap.

He pulled even with Nicklaus on the fourth when the American missed a three-foot putt while Player hung up the first of three straight birdies. Player finished the round in 62, his second such score in three days, while Nicklaus took 70 and was down four strokes as they went to lunch.

Race Card Tonight

Twenty eight horses take to the track this evening at the Charlottetown racing oval in what appears to be the second to the last programme at the Driving Park this season. Four double dash events with a capacity and evenly matched fields promise to make this evening a real bettors paradise for it is doubtful that many horses will be taking home double wins.

Eight horses will parade to the starters gate in the first and fifth races of the night and as these two races are each a feature betting event much attention will be eyed to getting the winners down pat. Honest Patch will get the rail but Grand Kala Dale or Genesis, leaving in the five and six holes should make it a real battle.

Dashes two and six also give promise of being real down to the wire thrillers. Halle J, Ida Sudong, Vernon Silver, Cal, Charming Jerry, Jolly May, Adams' Tom and Bob's Girl all have been going in about the same times at the Park so to pick one winner in this class let alone two will be a real achievement.

Dashes four and eight could be the real spine tinglers of the night as six top notch horses are slated to start. Afton Libby, Dixie Lou, Willards Choice, Nimble Knight, Emerald Wick, and Romaine all are real competitors and fans should see a real six horse battle in the stretch. Dashes three and seven with seven starters looks too, to be another real dogfight. Plan to be on hand at the track this evening at 7:30 and take in some of the last racing of the current season.

Local Gridsters Trample PWC

Rugby made its first appearance on the local scene for some little time Saturday afternoon at Saint Dunstons Football field and the old pros from around Charlottetown showed the PWC team just how to play the English version of football as they throttled the collegiates 21-0 behind the strong performance of fullback Dave MacLeod.

Inexperience hindered the PWC aggregation to a great degree while the overall strength of the town team allowed them to capitalize on all of the Red and Blue errors. MacLeod got the locals on the scoreboard early in the match with a penalty kick and he garnered another six points on kicks after tries. A strong wind hindered the kicking game but MacLeod held the PWC team at bay with several opportunistic kicks which relieved the pressure.

Souris High Trips S'side

Souris town's Summer side High School 12-4, Saturday afternoon, assuring themselves of a spot in the Potato Bowl. Gerard Gallant and Dave Gallant hit pay dirt for the eastern gridsters. The Souris team hosts SDHS this Saturday in Souris.
