IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory of MRS. McLEOD DOUGLAS who passed away June 18th, 1952. Those whom we love go out of sight, But never out of mind; They are cherished in the hearts Of those they leave behind. Lovingly remembered but sadly missed by her Husband, Daughter and Son-in-law.

Closing Hours

It as it would mean they could shop on Friday and have Saturday to prepare the Sunday meal so that on that latter day they could rest. He thought the merchants should be in line with the banks, railroads and governments. He also maintained the farm situation was changing as farmers now have their own transportation and are not dependent on the railways. They have to do their business with banks and lawyers on Friday anyway as they are closed Saturday.

$1,587,420 For Assistance To Salt Fish Industry

OTTAWA, (CP) — Federal government assistance to the Atlantic coast salt fish industry in 1953 is expected to amount to approximately $1,587,420. A return tabled in the Commons for S. R. Balcom L-Halfax said called the Post Office the silent partner in every business. He suggested a good "live" mailing list which is available for every rural electoral district at a slight charge and urged advertising by mail because of low charges for circulars and similar matter. Another service was provided through parcel post at low rates and offering insurance and C. O. D. facilities.

Centennial Y's Men's Club

When the meeting was unanimous in their choice of closing hours Mayor Stewart stated the City Council would embody them in a by-law. At the opening of the meeting the merchants heard a talk on the Post Office service by Mr. L. G. Ivany, of the Public Relations Branch, Saint John. He described what he termed the "Six Keys to Better Business" through use of postal services available and
