The Row on Thursday.

Investigation by the Stipendiary Magistrate.

Evidence of Sworn Witnesses.

TUESDAY MORNING, July 17.

JAMES R. MCKEE, sworn.—To Mr. Hazard—I am an Orangeman. I was in the procession on Thursday last. I joined the procession on the corner of Queen and Water street and marched in procession up to the Lodge. Nothing occurred that was wrong until the arrival at the Lodge-room door. Then, at the foot of the stairs going into the building, there appeared to be an intention on the part of the crowd to break in on the rank. At that time there was, I suppose, two or three hundred persons in front. After we were in the Lodge room a few moments, some of the members went out. I was standing, looking out of the Lodge room. I saw an Orangeman in the crowd with his sash in his hand and the crowd, by their actions, appeared as if they were trying to molest him—to strike him. I saw a number of boys in the crowd picking up stones and throwing stones. I said to some of the men in the Lodge that there were some of our men down in the street and there was a row there, and that we ought to be down and not let our men get killed. I went down among the crowd to see who the man was. I found I could not get in to the crowd, so I walked on the platform. I saw a number of the parties at the bar in the crowd, cursing, jostling, and swearing what they would do. I identified Patrick McKenna, Jer. Sweeney, McCloskey, Pat'k McGuigan, Nicholas Cullins, Alexander McCabe, Owen McCloskey, Angus McDonald. Stones were then thrown. I did not see any of those parties throwing stones at this time; it was afterwards. I was struck myself. I went across the street to Mr. Quirk's. By this time a number of pistol shots were fired. I think the shots came from the side where the Orange Hall is. I then moved down towards Mr. Stanley's corner, and remained there till the row was over. Several times those parties named threw stones at the building. I would not swear positively to Owen McCloskey. Would not swear I saw McDonald throwing stones. Saw McDonald going away from the crowd shortly afterwards. I particularly identify Thomas McCloskey and Sweeney as two of the parties that followed the wagon from Offer's yard and threw stones. Saw one grand rally fired at the building—when they marched in front of the Hall two-by-two, and picked up the stones and fired them at the building. There were four rallies fired at the building. There was a crowd of 50 or 100 throwing stones. There was a number of boys throwing stones. Heard Collins say afterwards, "Damn you, you can beat us in the House of Assembly, but you can't beat us in the street." Have no doubt about the parties named. To Mr. Shaw: Never knew McDonald by name till I heard it in the Court. Saw McDonald in the crowd at the first starting of the row. The first indication I had of the row was when I looked out of the window and saw the crowd firing in the street. I could identify all the parties I named in the dock from the window. I suppose there were 100 or 200 in the crowd in which those parties were. I suppose there were two or three hundred bystanders on the street and sidewalk. There was a crowd in the middle and crowds passing up and down the platform. The parties named were in the crowd in the middle of the street. I saw in the same crowd Trainor, George Stanley, Dr. Beer, James Butcher, J. H. Fletcher and Major Pollard. I did not find out McCloskey's name till I came to the Court. I knew all the prisoners who I named. I cannot give you the names of any more. Major Pollard was not in front of the Hall or any of the rest, unless Trainor or Stanley. I could not recognize any other persons in the crowd unless the prisoners. Though I can tell the name of all the prisoners that are in the dock and were in the crowd, I can not tell the name of any other person in the crowd except Trainor or Stanley. I saw stones thrown by some boys before I came out of the Lodge. The boys that threw the stones were from 12 to 16 years of age. It was when I was at Stanley's corner that I saw those men throwing stones. The prisoners at the bar were in the middle of the street throwing stones. I could see those men distinctly throwing stones from Stanley's corner. I am acquainted, for two years, with Sweeney. I would not swear I saw any of the McDonalds throwing stones. Identified McCary and McAdam as throwing stones. I saw them from Stanley's corner. I don't know the name of a single Protestant that was in the crowd except Major Pollard and Geo. Stanley. I would not say there was a man assaulted in the crowd. I saw McDonald rushing in. I cannot tell what was his intent. I cannot remember the name of any man in the crowd unless the men named. I did not see young Offer in the crowd. I saw him at his own door. That was forty or fifty feet from the crowd. I had no conversation with Offer. Saw one of the Offer boys and another man having some blows. Am not positive there were any threats made. Saw a pistol with Offer afterwards. Could not say he was going to shoot anyone. Could not tell his intentions. Saw Mr. John Doyle at the other side of the street. The pistol shot caused me to go to the side of the street. Pistol shots were fired before there was any glass broke. I would not be positive. I did not see any shots fired. Saw no man with a pistol except Offer. To Mr. McLean: When I heard Collins making the remark, he was walking down the street between Stanley's and DesBrisay's corner. I did not ask McCannell to fire in the crowd. Had no words with McCannell. When I came down to the street I saw none of the Lowe Bros.

CHAS. HOOPER sworn.—To Mr. Hazard: I was in the procession. I walked up to the Lodge in the evening. There was nothing occurred on the way up to the Lodge. Did not go into the Lodge. I branched off and was on the eva of going home when I saw a scuffle in front of the Lodge. Could not tell who the parties were. Immediately afterwards a rally of stones came against the building, and pistols were fired. I then ran for the police to try to keep order. I found it was no use. Went into Offer's yard, got a horse, and went out after His Worship the Mayor. On our way out there were stones thrown after us as far as they could fire them. I can identify the man Carroll, with the grey head, as one of the parties firing stones at the building. To Mr. Shaw: I could not tell all there was in the crowd. I could identify Martin Carroll in the crowd. He was noisy. I cannot identify any of the persons except Martin Carroll. There were in the crowd Senator Haviland, Patrick Trainor, Dr. Jenkins, Stipendiary, John T. Hertz, Lemuel Yonker, Geo. Offer, James Offer, Charles Quirk, Angus Murphy. I was part of time on Offer's platform. The pistol shots came out of the Lodge windows—some of them. I saw a couple of pistols pointed out of the Lodge windows after the panes were broken. I saw no shots from the crowd. I did not see any other shots than those fired from the Lodge. I saw none of the prisoners engaged in any assault.

GEORGE LARLER sworn.—To Mr. Hazard: I am an Orangeman. I was not in the procession. The first disturbance I heard was a shot that was fired out of the gangway between Mr. Quirk's and the tin shop. That is the first shot I heard and the first smoke I saw. I was standing at the Lodge and two stones were fired at both sides of me, and I passed up to Dr. Jenkins'. Think I heard shots fired from the Lodge windows. I went up stairs—saw Orangemen trying to take down flag. Stones were fired, and the flag was hoisted. Afterwards flag was lowered a second time, and stones were thrown. I can identify Callaghan McKinnon as one of the prisoners who was throwing stones; I cannot identify any other parties as throwing stones. I saw in the crowd Martin Carroll, Butler, Chas. Quirk. To Mr. Bayfield—I saw McKinnon when the flag was hoisted. It was a few minutes from the end of the row. I was not drunk nor excited. I did not ask Mr. Sweeney for 10 cents to get my beer. I will not swear the smoke in the entry was from a pistol. I don't think the shot struck the Orange Lodge. For all I know it might be fired east. I don't know who fired the shot. The smoke was in the gangway. I swear I did not see a revolver in the Lodge room. I have not the slightest idea who fired the revolver.

SAMUEL STUMBLE, sworn.—To Mr. Hazard—I am not an Orangeman. I was at the tea. I came up with the procession. I went into Offer's to have a drink. I did not leave on account of hearing stones thrown. McCloskey was talking to Hooper. He turned to me and said, you are watching me. I said, you have a revolver. He said, I have a revolver and I will use it on you, I said, you had better not use it. I identify McCloskey as being the man talking to Hooper. I was not present when the first shot was fired. To Mr. McLean—I did not mind McCloskey. I was not frightened of him. I did not take further notice of him. He was excited. I did not care whether it was a riot or not.

JOHN MCKENZIE, sworn.—Was not in the procession in the morning. Followed up the procession from Water street. After I saw the banner going into the Hall I came down and went into my shop. Heard there was a row. Went up; saw the marshal and policemen. I saw a crowd throwing stones at the Hall. Judge there would be from forty to fifty. Identify Thornton as one of the parties throwing stones. I saw him throwing stones. Thornton was the first of the crowd that followed those that left Offer's to come back and throw stones. He is the only man I can identify. The stone-throwing was not a joke, it was a very serious matter. To Mr. Bayfield—Thornton was very busy picking up stones and throwing them. He was in the centre of the street and I was on the platform. I was quite close to him. I would not swear the stones he threw struck the building. I swear that when he was throwing stones the glass was falling. I was not there at the time the shot was fired across the street. I saw no Orangemen with revolvers. I was in the Lodge.

EDWARD B. LOVE, sworn.—To Mr. Hazard: I am not an Orangeman. The street was full of people when the procession arrived at the Hall. I passed and went home, but shortly returned. When I returned I saw James Offer and Owen McCloskey in bolts. Don't know what they were pushing for. Saw him throwing stones afterwards. At the time he was standing opposite Mrs. Offer's door. I cannot swear that any of the prisoners were throwing stones except McCloskey. The crowd were firing stones at the front of the building. I was not there when the shots were fired
