Karts from several Maritime Centres were on hand for the meet, that drew nearly 1,000 spectators. This is the second year the Maritime championships were held at the local speedway.

Art MacKenzie Is Tops In Green Gables Tourney

Charlottetown's Art MacKenzie captured his second golf tournament in as many weekends when he triumphed in the Green Gables Open at Cavendish over the Labour Day weekend with a 45-hole total of 194, seven strokes better than his closest opponent, clubmate Bill Beer, who finished with a 201 total.

On the previous weekend MacKenzie had captured the Island Open for the second time in three years. The red-thatched golfer, who sports a 2-handicap, is also the only amateur to ever capture the Island Open.

D.V. MacDonald was third in the championship division, four strokes back of Beer at 205.

Slightly over 200 golfers took part in the tournament, the largest field in the 12-year history of the Green Gables Open.

A Summerside Junior, Joey Quinn, captured top spot in the Junior Division, and fired his way to a playoff spot in the championship division. He took the Junior section with a two-round total of 164.

Ralph Proude registered a hole in one and George Vessey scored a real oddity, killing two birds with one shot. He teed off and his ball killed a bird in flight and when the ball landed it killed another bird on the ground.

Mrs. Chapman of Dartmouth, N.S. captured top honors in the women's division with a 193. Mrs. J.K. Beer was second at 199 followed by Mrs. R. Horne at 200

Kingfishers Make Finals

Johnny's Kingfishers are in the Island Intermediate 'C' softball finals after having disposed of Rustico Legionnaires over the weekend, in a best of three semi-final series.

The Kingfishers captured a 2-1 thriller at the Old Diamond Saturday afternoon and then split a doubleheader at Rustico Sunday afternoon. Scores in Rustico were 23-5 for Rustico and 8-4 for Kingfishers.

Saturday Junior Flanagan tossed a three-hitter at the Rustico team while losing moundsman Urban Gaudin allowed five hits.

After seven innings the score was deadlocked at 1-all.

Going into the bottom of the eighth with the score still tied at 1-1 leadoff batter Alf Flanagan stroked a single.

Junior Flanagan then flew out to leftfield. The visitors then decided to gamble for the out at home plate, walking the next two batters to load the bases. The move backfired however with Les Affleck poling one to centrefield to drive in the winning run.

Sunday afternoon the Kingfishers were clobbered 23-5 in the first game with Urban Gaudin notching the victory, twirling a seven-hitter at the City team.

David Rowe, Wright and Dalziel combined to toss a 17-hitter at the Legionnaires including home runs by James Gallant and Arliss Peters.

Sony Gillis and Butch Ward slammed four - baggers for the Kingfishers.

Gaudin was called on to handle the pitching chores for the Legionnaires again in the second game but he tired and the winners worked him for a total of fourteen hits.

Flanagan tossed a six - hitter for the winners.

Alfie Flanagan and Clee Gillis paced the winners at the plate, each hitting a triple and a double.

Bud Lund umpired all three games.

The Kingfishers will now meet the Prince County winners for the Island Intermediate title.

Guardian Angels took a 2-0 lead in their best of five semi-final series for the City Commercial Softball league title last night when they defeated Canadian Tire Jets 12-9 behind the 10-hit pitching of Gord Fairgrieve and Bernard 'Fish' MacKinnon.

Fairgrieve worked for six innings and was relieved by MacKinnon in the seventh.

The Angels grabbed an early lead and never looked back. After three innings they were leading 5-0.

Ralph Kneebone was top sticker for the winners with two singles in three official appearances. Teammate Roger Goss was 2-for-4 and Norm MacLeod 2-for-5.

Hector MacDougall paced the offensive attack for the Jets with a triple and a double in two outings

Island's Don Allen Cops Maritime Go-Kart Title

Don Allen, Covehead, emerged Maritime Champion go- kart driver after an action packed day of racing yesterday at the Covehead kart park.

Karts from several mainland centres as well as a full roster of local karts vied for the Maritime crown on the asphalt speedway.

This is the second year the local karting club has staged the championship meet. The Covehead park is recognized as the hub of the Maritime kart circuits.

The roar of small but powerful engines, coupled with the smell of burning alcohol, gasoline, and oil kept a crowd of nearly 1,000 spectators at a fever pitch of excitement as the roaring wagons screamed around the tight turns of the figure 8 track.

Several spills, at least one serious, added to the excitement of the afternoon. Driver George Scantlebury was injured when the steering wheel of his kart broke and the racer left the track and rammed a fence.

Karts from Halifax, St. John, Dartmouth, and Sackville, N.S. were in the field with the local karts. The Halifax club extended an invitation to the local speedsters to attend the Thanksgiving Day meet at the Halifax raceway.

ALSO TOP DRIVER

Maritime champ Don Allen was top driver of the day with second place going to Merrill MacLean, and third to brother Keith, both of Charlottetown.

Bob Ferguson, St. John John and Ivan Langille, Sackville, N. S., tied for the honor of being top visiting river. Bob Ferguson also won the bushing class event.

Top man in the stock A class was Don Dahr of Halifax while Don Allen took the super A class.

Jim Beeler of Halifax took top spot in the stock B class while Ed. MacLaren, Charlottetown won the consolation division.

Main event winner was ace driver Philip MacInnis of Covehead.

The powderpuff derby was one of the greatest crowd pleasers of the afternoon. Women, driving borrowed karts tore around, across and along the edge of the track for 10 fast and funny laps with Mary Allen, sister of the champion, merging winner.

The visiting karts took part in the regularly scheduled races at the Covehead track on Saturday night and on Sunday local and visiting drivers got together for an evening of entertainment. Many of the visitors camped at the track.

Keith Carmichael and Ivan Kerry officiated at yesterday's races, with Mr. Carmichael handling the starting line.

A number of merchants from the Charlottetown donated an impressive array of prizes for the championship meet.

A racing spokesman said karting is rapidly gaining popularity and next year should see more karts from a great number of Maritime Centres gather for the championships.

Regular Saturday evening races under the lights at the Covehead raceway will continue as long as weather will permit, the spokesman said.
