Georgetown Woman Dies In Toronto

The citizens of Georgetown were shocked and saddened by the news of the sudden death in Toronto, Ont., on Saturday, January 18th, of Mrs. Joseph Gotell, of Georgetown. The late Mrs. Gotell, who was 53 years of age, was the former Emily Farrell, and was born in Sturgeon.

Left to mourn besides her sorrowing husband are four sons and one daughter: Joseph, who is a sergeant with the R. C. A. F. at Greenwood, N. S.; Gordon, Basil, and Kimball, all of Georgetown; and Mary (Mrs. Arnold Murphy) of Toronto. She is also survived by her father, William Farrell of Sturgeon; two brothers, Basil of Sturgeon and Ignatius of Trenton, N. S. and one sister, Nora (Mrs. Phillip Steele) of Pictou, N. S.

May Seek TV For Dartmouth

HALIFAX (CP) — The Mail-Star says "a group of Dartmouth professional men" will apply within the next few weeks for permission to operate a radio station in that town across the harbor from Halifax.

None of the group was named. It would be a low-power station, designed to serve only the immediate area.

The population of Dartmouth proper is about 2,000, but about 150,000 live in the surrounding area, including Halifax.

The area now is served by private stations CJCH and CHNS, and CBC radio and television, all in Halifax.
