ADDRESS TO MR. MONAGHAN

On the Eve of His Departure From Envyale.

Mr. P. MONAGHAN.

Dear Sir:—We cannot allow you to depart from Envyale without tendering our appreciation of the mastery manner in which you conducted our school.

The progress made by the pupils whilst under your tuition, is sufficient proof of your scholarly attainments, and the knowledge of etiquette which you imparted is a boon not to themselves alone, but to the whole community.

The impartial manner in which you conducted the school, showed a true Christian spirit, that you looked not upon this world's judges but took those of the other for the critics of your actions.

Your kind and generous manner made you a welcome guest in every household, and the attention and generosity bestowed upon the pupils will cause you long to be remembered.

In a word, your departure from Envyale leaves a void in the community which only time can fill.

We shall petition Heaven to crown not only your scholastic efforts but your every undertaking with a grand success.

And if you should ever return to Envyale to resume work in our school, your host of friends in connection therewith shall give you a very cordial welcome.

Signed on behalf of the ratepayers of Envyale:

James Condy, Patrick McClosky, James McGinn, James McCardell, Michael Doherty, Philip Griffin, Patrick Hogan, Peter Callaghan, Daniel G. McDonald, James McLaughlin.

Mr. Monaghan made an appropriate reply, which follows:

DEAR FRIENDS:—Words fail to express the pleasure your kind address affords me. To know that you are so kind as to write me in a creditable manner, has been given me in the making of my life.

We have the largest stock of CLOTHS and the LOWEST PRICES of any house on P. E. Island.
