Britain's New Winged Strength

Some of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's reasons for his recent declaration that Britain's air fleet is "in many respects the finest in the world" are seen in these latest photos of new English fighting planes. Above, already camouflaged, ready for active service, a "flying battleship." In background is Britain's fastest single-seat fighter—an 8-gun Supermarine Spitfire. Stresses Youth Employment As First Duty

Dr. Manion Pledges Party To Constructive measures.

BY FRANK FLAHERTY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
CHANDLER, Que., July 13—(CP)—In proposing the adoption of the Civilian Conservation Corps plan of youth training in Canada, Conservative Leader E. J. Manion has no idea of setting up a military establishment. He made this clear as he addressed a meeting here today on his way to Gaspe for a larger night meeting.

The purpose of the C.C.C. camps in the United States was to train young men for civil life and the camps had no connection with the military authorities. They were given healthy outdoor work on useful projects and paid $30 a month, large part of which was sent to their families if in need. They received both academic and trade instruction.

"I want you to understand it has nothing to do with military affairs," he said.

Many of the 3,000,000 young men trained in the camps in the United States had found jobs and their employers considered them the best group of youths they had ever obtained.

"The first thing I will dedicate myself to when I become prime minister is the care of our Canadian boys," said Dr. Manion. "I will inaugurate measures to fulfill decent ambitions and are not forced to wander up and down the country or drift into lives of crime."

Despite a slight drizzle of rain, 300 people attended an open air meeting arranged for the Conservative Leader as he made a short stop on his swing around the G.P.E. coast.

His tour today brought him into the fishing district and the hard time experienced recently by the fishermen were in evidence.

Many ox and dog carts were in use for the purpose of hauling supplies. The dog carts, for the most part, were driven by boys but quite a number of grown men could be seen with dogs which pulled small loads.

Dr. Manion drew cheers when he told his audience he had travelled over much of the world and considered the drive around the G.P.E. coast with its varied scenery or rugged mountains and numerous small bays, the most beautiful drive in the world.

Britain Calls - up Naval Reservists For Training During "Danger Period"

Fleet Will Be Kept At Full Strength During August And September Review To Be Held In Weymouth Bay.

(By J. F. Sanderson, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
LONDON, July 13—Prime Minister Chamberlain announced today that Great Britain is calling to the colors 12,000 naval reservists and commissioning 56 reserve ships for August and September, considered by many to be the "danger period" for Europe.

Apart from mobilization of the fleet during the Czechoslovak crisis last September it will be the first time the Reserve Fleet has taken part in general manoeuvres since the Great War.

The King will review 130 ships in Weymouth Bay Aug. 9. Announcement of this review recalled the Spithead review of 1914, a few weeks before the declaration of war.

At that time the fleet was mobilized as a test, but Winston Churchill, then at the head of the Admiralty, kept it mobilized until the outbreak of war.

Ontario Wheat Growers To Get Fixed Price

OTTAWA, July 13—(CP)—Eastern wheat growers will benefit jointly with prairie wheat growers this year under the extension to eastern winter wheat of the Government's 70-cent guaranteed initial price as announced today by Trade Minister Buel. Some estimates that this will mean a $200,000 advantage to Ontario wheat growers.

When prices are announced for the other grades, likely tomorrow, it is expected eastern spring wheat will be included, so that eastern farmers may deliver their entire 1939 crop to the board on the 70-cent basis after Aug. 1, when the scale comes into effect.

The probable cost to the Government of the eastward extension of the guaranteed initial price obviously cannot be accurately calculated until the prices to be paid for lower grades are made known.

Defence Fund Boosted

The original budget figure for all government expenses for the 1939 fiscal year was $1,320,000,000 (about $6,177,600,000). Sir John said, but supplementary estimates—for the War Office, the Air Force and the future ministry of supply—added another $150,000,000 (about $702,000,000.)

Sir John spoke in the final debate on the budget which was passed on third reading and sent to the House of Lords.

Observers said Mr. Chamberlain's announcement in the House of Commons was a commendable move to mass flights of Royal Air Force bombers over France which this week to give pilots practice in long-range flying and at the same time to display Britain's air power to the continent.

Two Months Duty

The naval reserves will report for duty July 31 and will take part in the gigantic review before the King.

Shortly after, 56 reserve ships will join the fleet for exercises which will continue until the third week in September. Reservists will return home by the end of that month.

Authoritative circles regarded it as significant that the reserves still would be on duty and the Home Guard at its full strength during the Nazi Party Congress Sept. 2 in Nuremberg. That is the time many European observers have picked as a "danger period."

By that time Britain's rapidly expanding land army will have reached nearly 750,000 men—the largest peacetime army in the nation's history. First 30,000 conscript soldiers are scheduled to report this week-end.

Commissioned For Service
Admiralty sources indicated the following classified ships would be commissioned for the fall exercises:
One battleship, one aircraft carrier, 16 cruisers, one mineslayer, one destroyer depot ship, 32 destroyers.

Squalus Brought To Surface Plunges Again To Bottom

(By The Associated Press)
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., July 13—Squalus, the first submarine to fly like a giant fish seeking freedom from an angler's hook, the partially flooded submarine Squalus broke away from a United States Navy salvage crew late today and fell back to the bottom through a tangled net of lifting equipment.

Thus, in one disastrous minute, seven dangerous weeks of salvage preparation were all but nullified. Hardly had the Squalus resettled, however, when the Navy began to build a new lifting effort upon the wreckage of the old.

Associated Press observers at the scene reported the wild flurry that threw the submarine out of control happened with all the suddenness and violence of an explosion.

At one instant it appeared from the surface that the hoisting operation was within striking distance. The Squalus, hoisted stern, still the tomb of the 26 men who drowned after the original accident on May 31, had finally been raised 85 feet from the ocean floor.

The next instant two of the big lifting pontoons suddenly shot to the surface, the Squalus bow between them. A clear 20 feet of the forward part of the 290-foot craft was pointed skyward, almost vertically.

SECRETARY OF STATE DIES IN LOS ANGELES

Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Succumbs Suddenly While Vacating In U. S.

LOS ANGELES, July 13—(CP)—Death has removed one of French-Canada's notable contributions to the public life of Canada, Hon. Fernand Rinfret, the mild, cultured newspaperman who went from the Ottawa Press Gallery to the floor of the House of Commons and became the Dominion's Secretary of State.

Vacating in California, the 56-year-old Cabinet Minister was stricken in a hotel here last night and died in a police ambulance rushing him to hospital. A corner said death apparently was due to a heart attack and this was confirmed by an autopsy.

A newspaperman who chronicled the daily affairs of Parliament as a member of the Press Gallery for a decade, Mr. Rinfret went into the political field in 1920 and built up an enviable record of public service. He was a member of Parliament since 1920, served as Mayor of Montreal from 1933-34 and was Secretary of State from 1934-38 and from 1935 until his death.
