Annual City Hospital Bazaar Opened Last Night By Msgr. Patrick McMahon

Right reverend Patrick McMahon, D.D., Rector of St. Dunstan's Basilica officially opened the 21st annual Charlotteville Hospital Bazaar at the Community Centre last evening in the absence of His Excellency J.D. MacEachern Bishop of Charlotteville. In his brief remarks Msgr. McMahon said that the great expense of operating a hospital made it necessary to go to the public from time to time for additional help and that in the past the annual bazaar had been one of the means hospital authorities had used to raise funds. The Chief of Staff of the Charlotteville Hospital, Dr. J.P. Sweeney also addressed the audience and thanked them for their patronage in the past and hoped that this year's bazaar would be the biggest success ever.

Also present on the stage during the ceremonies was Very Rev. Gregory Murphy, Rector of Holy Redeemer Parish. Following the official opening the large crowd in attendance circulated around the hall to the many and attractively decorated booths which included a chocolate wheel, baby booth, pantry booth and many others. Previous to the opening four local artists entertained with vocal and dancing selections. Jim Flanagan and Frank MacIntyre each rendered two well received vocal while the fast-stepping and highly talented Roberts Sisters were seen in a pair of tap-dancing numbers. The bazaar will continue through this evening, Friday and Saturday. Special prize winners last night included: C.W.L. chicken dinner, Mrs. John McGuigan, 38 Rochford Street, pair cushions, Jerome Gillis, 84 Weymouth Street. Door prizes: $10, Reginald Trainor, Kent Street, two-light lamp, Mrs. Pineau, Kent Street. The entertainment tonight will feature the King's County Ranch Boys. They will put on two shows, one at 8 o'clock and the other at 11.

Island-Born Man Directs Large Building Industry

From newsboy to one of Canada's industrial giants, is the story of Mr. Merrill Muttart, an Island born boy, who from his Edmonton office directs this country's largest low-rental housing scheme. Mr. Muttart who was recently interviewed by a representative of the Financial Post, said at age 32, "You can get tired of making money." Mr. Muttart is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sampson Muttart of Cape Traverse and left here with his parents at the age of four. He has a number of cousins residing in Bedouque and two years ago visited the Island when he stayed with one of his cousins. Louis Muttart of that place. When a young lad he sold papers to finance an education. At 18 he entered a chartered accountant firm with the idea of becoming a at the same time developing and patenting a sealing machine for dry plaster - remedying one of the biggest complaints in prefabricated building. With the use of dry wall plaster and his special seal sealer, he was able to offer to a fast expanding community a type of house which was much lower in price and at the same time met the requirements of the most discriminating tastes.

APARTMENT UNITS - The Island-born contractor enlarged from the single units to the larger apartment unit and was able to lower still further the rental cost to his customers. He gets a 90 per cent NHA loan direct from the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. The projects are subject to continuous CMHC approval and Muttart must provide management for the 40 year period. He may not take out more than 5 per cent of the equity in dividends but at the end of the amortization period he will own the buildings.

Mr. Muttart has formed the Merrill Muttart Foundation. Its resources should eventually amount to millions which will be used to support various philanthropic activities, these will be the principal beneficiary of the Muttart estate.

WIFE A PARTNER - In all the planning and success of this noted career, a very active partner is Mrs. Muttart who takes a keen interest in planning the interior decorating of the buildings which the company erects. She is most charitable in all community efforts and each year sponsors a camp for diabetic children. In 1953 when the Island curling team was in Edmonton they were the recipients of Mr. and Mrs. Muttart's hospitality. The team was comprised of Dr. Wendell MacDonald, Elmer and Barry MacDonald and Johnny Squarebriggs.

Marie Dionne Back In Convent - QUEBEC, (CP)—Marie Dionne, one of the four remaining Dionne quintuplets, has slipped quietly back into the life of a novice nun. The mother superior at the convent of the Congregation de Servants du Tres Saint Sacrement said Wednesday the 21-year-old girl returned here Sept. 12 to take up the life she dropped in May, 1954. Her return apparently was a closely-guarded family secret. There was no indication prior to Wednesday that the move had been made.
