L. Gallant (J)	5	3	8
A. DesRoches (C)	4	4	8
L. Clow (C)	1	7	8

The Summerside Junior Legionaires are making the sporting headlines regularly. They trounced Moncton Junior Canucks 10-4, and according to reports (we were absent) they had a big edge on the Hub city boys. Then they knocked off the combines 7-4, and are now in sole possession of first place in the PCL standing. Next Saturday they play a group "All - Star Juniors from Halifax, and we predict Civic Stadium will be packed for that one.

Kudos to the Charlottetown Pee-Wees who travelled down to Kentville and showed the mainland small fry how minor hockey is played on Prince Edward Island.

Really Enjoyed Contest

Not very often do we watch any kind of a sporting event without rooting for either one of the competitors, but yesterday was an exception. We couldn't seem to take sides as the New York Giants and Chicago Bears battled for the world championship of football. We enjoyed the game pretty well considering we were impartial, and it wasn't quite as hard on the nerves as watching the Yankees play another team. Y. A. Tittle, whom we admire for his ability to thread the needle on a forward pass, didn't seem to have that deadly accuracy yesterday, although it might have been the Bear defence that kept the receivers from completing Tittle's passes. It was certainly a nip and tuck battle and that last bomb that Tittle threw could have meant a Giant victory instead of a Bear interception.

We felt sorry for Terry Sawchuk who was within a little over two minutes of breaking a world's record for shutouts, and on his birthday too, he performed sensationally against the Canadiens but Rousseau's spinero beat him. Still, we imagine the Red Wings must have felt pretty good about getting a tie in Montreal Forum.

LAST WEEK'S BOUQUET

We've tossed bouquets at all our star athletic leaders:

Hockey, baseball, softball players and track speeders,
But there's a group, and some no doubt our betters,
Though they at times pen us sarcastic letters —
We send bouquets and New Year greetings to our readers.

Chicago Bears Nip Giants To Capture World Ch'ship

By JACK HAND

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago's sticky-fingered defence intercepted five of A. Tittle's passes and won the National Football League championship for George Halas, the 68-year-old pioneer Bears owner-coach, on a 14-10 triumph Sunday over New York Giants.

Bill Wade, who directed the Bears' attack, scored both Chicago touchdowns on quarterback sneaks from two yards and one yard after interceptions by Larry Morris and Ed O'Bradovich set them up.

Tittle, hobbling on a damaged left knee after he was hurt midway in the second quarter, threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Frank Gifford early in the first quarter after Erich Barnes recovered a fumble by Wade.

Don Chandler's 13-yard field goal in the second quarter gave the Giants a 10-7 lead that they nursed into the final minutes of the third quarter despite a savage onslaught by the Bears.

ROOKIE TAKES OVER

Young Glynn Griffing, the Giants' rookie quarterback, had to play the last half of the second quarter while 38-year-old Tittle went to the clubhouse for repairs. Y.A. came back for the second half but was harried by those aroused Bears ballhawks.

Still to the very end Tittle was in there pitching, threatening to take it all. The Giants had moved to the Bears' 38-yard line with 10 seconds to go when Richie Petitbon stole Tittle's bomb in the end zone for the fifth interception. Y. A. threw his helmet on the frozen turf, spoiling his bald pate, and kicked the ground in disgust.

Larry Morris, who intercepted a pass and made life miserable for Tittle and the Giants backs all through the eight-degree afternoon, was picked as the most valuable player in the game for a brilliant job at his right-corner linebacker post.

ENDS LONG STREAK

It was the first title for Halas and the Bears since 1946, ending a string of 17 cold and hungry years. The triumph was particularly heart-warming to Halas, who has been a bulwark of U.S. pro football since 1920.

The Bears, Western Conference champions, won their eighth league championship, tying the Green Bay Packers in that department. Two came in the days before they held conference playoffs so this victory was their sixth championship triumph, a record.

The win came 30 years after the Bears won their first playoff game in the same Wrigley Field by beating the same opponent, New York, 23-21.

The Giants now have lost 11 of 14 title games, never having won on the road in seven attempts.

Tittle, the premier passer in the league and the most-valuable player in regular-season play, completed only 11 of 29 passes, far below his season mark of 60.2 percentage. He threw for 151 yards, one touchdown and had five intercepted.

Wade, who went to passing on occasion in a switch from his usual ball-control tactics, completed 10 of 28 for 138 yards and no scores.

Tittle cashed in on Wade's fumble, recovered by Barnes, and hit Frank Gifford with a 14-yard scoring toss at 7:22 of the first quarter. Don Chandler added the extra point.

The Bears surged back at 14:44 of the same quarter after Larry Morris intercepted a Tittle pass, intended as a fake screen to Phil King, and raced 61 yards from the Bears' 34 to the Giants' six. Wade sneaked home from the two on the second play and rookie Bob Jencks converted.

Chandler's field goal came at 5:11 of the second quarter after the Giants had moved 59 yards to the Bears three and then had failed to go in for the touchdown. Coach Abe Stuerman, one-time Winnipeg Blue Bomber mentor, had to settle for the field goal.

The Bears might have had another touchdown in the first half, for Charlie Killett fumbled the Bears' kickoff after their first score on the final play of the first quarter. Charlie Bivins recovered on the Giants' six but a Bear, believed to be Jencks, was offside on the kickoff and the play was called back.

Tittle was hurt at 6:35 of the second quarter when he threw a sideline pass to Gifford. It was ruled that Gifford was out of bounds when he made the catch. Tittle had slipped going back from the line of scrimmage and was hit by Larry Morris as he threw. He left the field for the rest of the half.

Dave Whitsell intercepted a Tittle pass in the third quarter but the Bears couldn't cash it in after two fine passes by Wade had moved the ball to the 21. Roger Leclerc's field-goal try from the 28 was wide.

It was O'Bradovich who moved up and grabbed Tittle's screen pass, apparently intended for Joe Morrison, that finally put the Bears in position for the kitler.

Wade's 12-yard toss to Mike Ditka brought the ball to the Giants' one for a first down. Wade sneaked once but was stopped inches short. He went over on the second try and Jencks again converted.

Chicago Black Hawks Nip Toronto Maple Leafs 2-0

CHICAGO (AP) — League-leading Chicago Black Hawks made Ken Wharram's two first-period goals stand up all the way Sunday night for a 2-0 victory over Toronto Maple Leafs before 16,108 National Hockey League fans.

By winning their 20th game in 35, the Hawks held their five-point edge over second-place Montreal, which beat New York 6-2 Sunday night. Toronto dropped out of a tie with Montreal by losing their fifth of the year to the team the Leafs edged by one point for the crown last year.

Hawk goalie Glen Hall made 28 saves in recording his fifth shutout of the year.

He was particularly tough in the second period when the hardworking Leafs dominated play. Four of the shutouts have come against the Leafs.

Wharram opened the scoring with his 19th goal of the year with only 20 seconds gone in the game when he swept behind the Toronto net after taking a shot from centre ice and batted in his own rebound which Leafs netminder Johnny Bower had tipped into the air.

Wharram came up with his second marker at 7:19 when he took a pass from Mikita and beat Bower with a 15-foot screened shot.

Mikita's two points kept him in a tie with Montreal's Jean Beliveau at 48 points for the league's point lead. Beliveau scored a goal and an assist during the Canadiens' victory.

The game, the first since the two teams staged their brawl in Toronto Dec. 7 which resulted in nearly $5,000 in fines, was unusually tame.

Referee Frank Udvari, who also had officiated at the Dec. 7 game, called only three minor penalties all night.

The referee called captains Pierre Pilote of the Hawks and George Armstrong together before the opening faceoff and obviously warned them that no repeat of the wild fight would be tolerated.

SUMMARY

First period — 1. Chicago, Wharram 19 (Mikita) 0:20; 2. Chicago, Wharram 20 (Mikita) 7:19. Penalties—Hillman 2:37, Brewer 13:30.

Second period—No scoring. Penalty—MacNeil 2:22.

Third period — No scoring. Penalties—None.

Liberals Beat Conservatives

The Vince Mulligan coached Liberals outplayed and outscored brother Billy's Conservatives 6-1, in minor hockey's "Game of the Week" played Saturday evening at the Charlottetown Forum. Referee Wayne MacDonald and linesman Allie Carver called eight penalties in the wild, hard-hitting and free-wheeling game. Four of these penalties were charged against rugged Conservative defenceman Kevin Smith, who played his usual strong game.

Jamie Kennedy opened the scoring at the 19.30 mark of the first period when he fired a "five-footer" to the lower right hand corner of the net, to beat Conservative goalie John Reid. Defencemean Wayne McDougall fed Jamie with a pass from the point, to set up Jamie's scoring play. Ralph Kelly came close to putting the Conservatives on the score-sheet, when his close-in back-hander hit the post to the right of goalie Carl McQuaid at the 8.20 mark of the first period. John Reid came up with 9 saves and McQuaid 6 as the first period ended with the Liberals ahead 1-0.

The Liberals went ahead 2-0, with Jamie Kennedy again doing the honors. Jamie took a pass from Allan Acorn inside the Conservative blue-line, skated in alone and pulled out Reid, before firing into the open net. Joey Brown put the Conservatives on the score sheet at the 8.45 mark of the second period, when he picked up Alan Flood's rebound, and fired a high shot over McQuaid's right shoulder. This cut the Liberal lead to 2-1 by the end of the second period.

At the 2.35 mark of the third period Jamie Kennedy rifled a low, 30 foot wrist shot to Reid's right side, to give the Liberals a 3-1 lead. This goal gave Jamie the "hat trick", his second in as many games.

Alan Acorn's long screened shot, through a maze of players, gave the Liberals a big 4-1 lead the 6.50 mark of the third period. Alan was set up by Gus Houston, who played a great two-way game for the Liberals. Billy Weatherbie finished off the scoring at the 14.45 mark of the third period, on a beautiful solo-effort. Billy skated through the Conservative defence and fired a 30 footer to give the Liberals a 5-1 lead.

Pownal Royals Asked To Attend

The following players of Ed Nelson's Pownal Royals are asked to be at North River Rink tonight at 8.00 sharp for their game with Hampshire Bulldogs: Drake, Wilson, Herman Dow, Stewart, Cruwys, Smallwood, Kelly, Warren, Duffy, Sheldow, Mutch, J. Smith, Jenkins.

Vernon River Wins Contest

Vernon River CYO defeated Corran Ban 8 to 4 in a CYO league hockey game at St. Dunstan's arena last night.

The scorers for Vernon River were: N. Fraser 3, with J. Gill, E. Morrissey, L. Hynes, J. Doyle and V. Doherty each scoring one.

For Corran Ban it was J. MacDonald, H. Morrison, G. Mitchell and N. Morrison with one each.

Wings Defeat Boston 2-1

DETROIT (AP)—Eddie Joyal scored an unassisted goal with less than four minutes remaining to give Detroit Red Wings a 2-1 National Hockey League victory over Boston Bruins Sunday night.

Joyal's slap shot from near the blue line glanced off Boston goalie Ed Johnston's stick and went into the upper right hand corner of the net.

Gordie Howe put Detroit ahead midway in the first period when he scored his 600th career goal. Howe has scored 552 goals in the regular season play and 48 more in the Stanley Cup playoffs. Former Montreal player Maurice (Rocket) Richard holds the career scoring mark with 626 goals.

Boston's Leo Boivin scored the Bruins' only goal on a power play in the last minute of the second period. Detroit's Marcel Pronovost was in the penalty box at the time serving the second and last penalty called in the fast-skating contest.

Detroit goalie Terry Sawchuk failed for the second night in a row to record his 95th career shutout, which would set an NHL record. He made 30 saves—five fewer than Johnston.

Habs Defeat Rangers 6-2

NEW YORK (AP)—Montreal Canadiens scored four rapid-fire goals in the opening period and breezed to a 6-2 victory over New York Rangers Sunday night in a National Hockey League game marked by fistic flare-ups.

Henri Richard opened and closed Montreal's first - period assault over a six-minute span by firing a pair of goals past Ranger goalie Jacques Plante. Bobby Rousseau's first of two goals and former Ranger Dave Balon's 16th season tally completed the burst.

Montreal Canadiens had already sewn up their sixth victory over the Rangers in seven meetings when both clubs started throwing punches early in the final period.

Juniors To Host Nova Scotia Club

SUMMERSIDE — A Halifax-Dartmouth twin-cities Junior Hockey League All-Star team will play against the Summerside Junior Legionaires, Saturday afternoon, Jan. 4, at Civic Stadium, it was confirmed by Legionaire Manager Joe Clark last night.

A return contest between the Summerside boys and the four club All-Star team will be played in Halifax, probably Jan. 19.

Last year's Maritime Junior Championship Goale Perguins played a home-and-home exhibition series with the All-Stars, winning one and losing one. "Bucko" Trainor's Penguins easily defeated the Halifax-Dartmouth league winners in the playoffs last year however, en route to the Maritime title.

Several of last year's players on the All-Star club will likely see action in Summerside Saturday, but there will be some new, experienced performers as well.

Among the new comers will be Jim Irvine and Fred Malcolm, who have both seen action with the Halifax Tartans of the Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League. The two are products of the New Glasgow Minor Hockey system, operating for many years under the capable guidance of John "Brother" McDonald.

The big trio on the Halifax-Dartmouth line-up will probably be Bob De Bay, Jack Radford and Jim Cashen. De Bay has a sizeable lead in the league's scoring race and Cashen is a consistent marksman who was captain of last year's champion winners Hoyt's Movers. Radford was 1962-63 top scorer at St. Mary's University.

At least one former Islander may be in the Twin-Cities line-up in the person of Fred Neilson, who played minor hockey in Charlottetown.

The Grady's Summerside team, undefeated in six starts, is expected to be at full strength but for "Willie" Gallant who suffered a pair of sprained wrists in a pre-Christmas practice session when he crashed into the end boards at Civic Stadium.

CURLING DRAW

Monday night at the Charlottetown Curling Club all ices are open at 7 and 8.30 p.m. for scratch games. Games will be arranged for Ladies and Men.

Canada Defeats Sweden Squad

TORONTO (CP) — Canada's Olympic hockey team defeated Sweden's touring national squad 6-3 Sunday night before 10,111 fans here, gaining revenge for a 3-1 defeat at the hands of the Swedes last Friday in Kitchener, Ont.

The Canadians, led by 22-year-old winger Marsh Johnston of Birch Hills, Sask., dominated the Swedes almost throughout the contest, pitting a flexible defence and close forechecking against the positional hockey of the visitors.

Sweden stands at the midway point of its six-game Canadian tour with only the win in Kitchener on the plus side. The Swedes lost 5-4 in Montreal Thursday to the Junior Canadiens.

Johnstone and Bob Forhan each scored twice for Canada, Brian Conacher and Ray Cadieux counting the others. Tumba Johansson. Ulf Sterner and Roland Stoltz scored for Sweden.

The Canadian Olympics, coached at University of British Columbia by Rev. David Bauer, have split with the Swedes and the other national team touring Canada, Czechoslovakia.

Southern Teams Take Victories

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Southern United States colleges enjoyed a big day Saturday in post - season football games, taking decisions in two bowl games and one all-star clash. The East and the West failed to reach a decision in another all-star contest.

North Carolina's Tar Heels, with key ground support from halfback Ken Willard, scored a surprisingly easy 35-0 victory over Air Force Academy Falcons from Colorado Springs in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.

In the Tangerine Bowl, a night contest at Orlando, Fla., Western Kentucky rolled to an easy 27-0 victory over the Coast Guard, from Connecticut.

In the Blue-Grey all-star game at Montgomery, Ala., Georgia quarterback Larry Rakestraw led the Southern Blues to a 21-14 decision, but the East and the West fought to a 6-6 tie in the annual Shrine game in San Francisco.

Willard picked up valuable chunks of yardage for the Tar Heels, co-champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference, and scored his team's first touchdown on a one-yard dive. In all, he ran for 94 yards in 18 carries.

FIND DEFENCE POROUS

Quarterbacks Junior Edge and Gary Black engineered the winners through a porous Air Force defence. They completed 11 of 15 passes for 113 yards. Each ran for a touchdown, and Black threw for one.

In the 39th annual Shrine game, the East's Sherm Lewis, tiny all-America halfback from Michigan State, scampered 10 yards with about four minutes remaining for the tying touchdown. But Dave Parks of Texas Tech broke through and blocked the extra-point attempt by Pitt's Rick Leeson.

Willie Brown of Southern California, voted the outstanding player, caught a 25-yard touchdown aerial from Don Trull of Baylor, which broke the scoreless tie in the third quarter. Pete Beathard, also of USC, was wide with his extra-point attempt.

Rakestraw completely dominated the Blue-Grey game, throwing touchdown passes of 44 and 10 yards to Mallon Faircloth of Tennessee. The second score cracked a 14-14 deadlock.

Americans Take Davis Cup Win

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—The Davis Cup, symbol of world tennis supremacy, is heading back to the United States with a pair of young men — Chuck McKinley and Dennis Ralston—who may keep it there for the next several years.

These two college boys combined to break Australia's five-year domination in the 52nd challenge round which ended here Saturday.

Although it remained for McKinley, 23, from St. Ann., Mo., to strike the clinching blow, he had to share the honors with Ralston of Bakersfield., Calif., who contributed one singles victory and joined McKinley in winning the doubles point.

In a match charged with tension McKinley broke a 2-2 deadlock by blunting the cannon-like power of 19-year-old John Newcombe and winning 10-12, 6-2, 9-7, 6-3.

The final decision in the series was thrown to a climatic fifth match when Australia's reliable national champion, Roy Emerson, who has never lost a Davis Cup singles match, played some of the finest tennis of his long career in crushing Ralston 6-2, 6-3, 3-6, 6-2 in Saturday's fifth match.

TOOK LEAD FRIDAY

The Americans had taken a 2-1 lead Friday when Ralston and McKinley teamed to beat Emerson and 31-year-old Neale Fraser in the doubles.

In the opening singles Thursday, Ralston topped young Newcombe in five hard-fought sets and Emerson whipped McKinley in four.

Meanwhile, a dark cloud fell over the tennis picture in Australia, which has been dominant in the sport since the Second World War. Leading players, headed by Emerson, have been feuding with the national association over restrictions on foreign play and expense allowances and threatening either to move to Britain or turn professional.

Fort Augustus Beats Tracadie

Fort Augustus defeated East Tracadie 7 to 4 last night in CYO hockey league action at St. Dunstan's arena.

Scorers for Fort Augustus were: G. MacEachern with 3, and one each for G. Murnaghan, L. Smith, P. Trainor and S. Oramuik.

For Tracadie it was G. MacInnes with 2, and one each for L. Fitzpatrick and K. MacNally.

Bulldogs Win Opening Game

The first game in the North River Hockey League for the W. R. Shaw Trophy was played Saturday night at North River rink when Nine Mile Creek Bulldogs defeated Dunstaffnage 8-5. Teams entered in the league are Hampshire Bulldogs, Nine Mile Creek Bulldogs, Pownal Royals and Dunstaffnage.

Crockett scored three goals for the winners with W. Taylor and B. MacDonald getting two apiece. D. MacEachern picked up the final tally. H. Lawler garnered two goals for the losers while C. Scott, K. Scott and B. MacGee picked up singles.

Pownal and Hampshire will meet tonight in their first games of the season, with the contest scheduled to get underway at 8:30.
