1994 Yearbooks are here!!!!

The long-awaited 1994 edition of Nexus has finally arrived. If you have not yet picked up your copy, then by all means, get motoring! Books are available to be picked up at the Yearbook Office, bottom of Main, Room 09. Anyone who has yet to pick up books from previous years may also do so.

In other news...we once again remind you that we need your help. The 1995 Yearbook is in desperate need of photos and write-ups from clubs and societies. Make sure your organization is not overlooked. If you have yet to have a group photo taken, please contact our photographer through e-mail (SPRATT). The deadline for submissions and for making photo appointments is no later than March 10, 1995. The deadline has already been extended and barring natural disasters, there will be no exceptions. As for the rest of you commonfolk who are not involved in clubs or societies, we want to see your faces in the yearbook as well. So take out your cameras, get your friends together and say "fromage". Then bring your photos to the yearbook office with your name and number attached, and drop them in our mail slot if no one is around. Your cooperations is much appreciated. It's your book, so why not put your face in it?

...Not so fast! We're not through with you just yet...

The theme of the 1995 Yearbook is "What is Nexus?" Basically, we want to know what Nexus means to you. Have you ever dreamed of seeing your name in lights? Well, forget it...but there's always print. Try to have definitions pertain to UPEI. Send your ideas through e-mail (YEARBOOK), call us, or stop by to visit. 'Nuff said.

Thanks.
Kelly Rafter
Yearbook Editor
