Veteran Railway Man Honoured By Family On Retirement
On Tuesday evening the members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald, along with their wives and husbands, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. O'Brien, 2 Hillsborough St., City, for a surprise party for Mr. MacDonald on his retirement from the railway on that day after thirty-five years' service.
After everyone was settled, Mr. O'Brien asked the gathering what they had come for and what it was all about. After a few jokes about coming, a member of the family rose and read an address to Mr. MacDonald on the day of his retirement, and he was presented with a lovely hand-made leather bill fold, well filled.
Mr. MacDonald, who was very surprised, thanked his family and those who had joined the family, for remembering him, not only at this time but all through the years. After the presentation all were invited to the dining room where, after a toast to Mr. MacDonald, a lovely chicken dinner was served by the hostess and other members of the family.
Of the fourteen members of the family, only one daughter, in Montreal, was unable to be home, but wired her greetings. The daughters are Mary (Mrs. Roddie O'Hanley), Josephine, (Mrs. Melvin Burns), Eunice, (Mrs. Reginald MacDonald), Reta, (Mrs. Walter O'Brien), and the Misses Bertha Mabel, Florence and Agatha. The sons are Barney, Valentine, Plus, George, Jim and Joe. The wives are now married and themselves have families.

U. S. Tracks Set Betting Record
By John Chandler
NEW YORK, Nov. 20 —(AP)—Thoroughbred horse racing is concluding the biggest season in the history of the sport in the United States, with pari-mutuel wagering up 19.02 per cent over 1951, an unofficial survey of the country's 24 racing states disclosed Tuesday.
With estimates from several states where racing is still going on, an Associated Press compilation showed a booming $1,939,162,662 bet this season compared with the previous all-time high of $1,830,287,455 for 1946. In that year 19 states had legalized racing.
Attendance hit a peak of 27,261,601, or 12.17 per cent over the 24,302,020 last year.
Revenue to the states also hit a peak of $120,234,570, some 20.32 per cent more than the $99,927,423 of last year.
Police crackdown on the bookmakers, plus increased public confidence in the sport through policing of the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau is credited by racing officials as chiefly responsible for the big upswing.
Only Oregon and Maine, with fewer racing days than 1951 or some adverse weather conditions, reported a slight drop in wagering. New York, with $382,131,856 bet and an attendance of 4,820,567, again topped the list of states. Last year in New York 4,386,315 customers bet $345,292,092.
California with Tanforan still operating, is second in wagering with an estimated $320,500,250. The state reported $280,991,553 last year.
