INTERESTING ARTICLE—"Did You Ever Go To a Lobster Boil?" is an interesting article concerning Prince Edward Island in the recent July issue of the Canadian Home Journal. Written by Miss Eleanor Mary Duffy of this City, the article is graphically illustrated with lively and attractive pictures by Mr. Ed Gernum, local photographer. The article likens the Lobster Boil to the Wiener Roast so popular among the teen-agers in other parts of Canada. The locale of the article is the village of Victoria. There at the Orient Hotel a group of students from Prince of Wales College have decided to celebrate after their last exams. The illustrations and article depict the celebrations from the catching of the lobster to the eating and the fun that follows.

Thinks Russia Don't Want Major War

CARNFORTH, Lancashire, Eng. July 2—(Reuters)—Maj.-Gen. Fitzroy Maclean, a Conservative member of Parliament with inside knowledge of Russian thinking, says he believes that with the Korean adventure Stalin is trying to see how far he can go without serious resistance. "They would only go to war if they had a chance of a quick and easy victory, and I see no reason why they should have one," the adventurous M. P. added. Maclean parachuted into German-occupied Yugoslavia during the war to work with Marshal Tito and his partisans as chief of the secret British military mission. Before the war he served in Moscow as a diplomat, and holds the Soviet Order of Kutusov.

Large Audiences Hear Evangelist In Opening Addresses

The well known evangelist Rev. Charles B. Templeton, opened his month's stay on Prince Edward Island with three services, meeting with an unprecedented welcome. At his two services in Trinity United Church in Charlottetown he spoke to capacity congregations. In the Yeo theatre in Montague there was standing room only for his afternoon service, and about two hundred were turned away. Among those who were not able to get in were a number of clergymen from churches of various denominations. Members of each of Rev. Templeton's congregations yesterday participated very highly on his sincerity and the presentation of his message. At the morning service he chose as his subject "Life can be beautiful... If," and stressed the need of personal religion. "Christianity is a personal religion," he said, "and one is a Christian because of what one does, not what one does not do." In the afternoon service at Montague Mr. Templeton spoke on "Absalom," taking the old story and drawing modern applications from it. The Charlottetown male choir was on hand for the service and sang two selections. Mr. Frank Johnston acted as pianist. The committee for this service consisted of Rev. A. D. MacKenzie, Rev. F. N. Young and Rev. Fletcher, who also led the singing. Dr. J. Sutherland Bonnell of the 5th Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York was also present.

"Does God really speak to men?" was the subject at the evening service, and Mr. Templeton spotted his sermon with humorous touches. During the service he pressed home the possibilities of personal communion with God. Rev. Mr. Templeton will hold services in the Beaver Hall in Charlottetown every evening this week, beginning at 8 P. M. It is anticipated that a Province-wide rally will be held at the end of July in the Charlottetown Forum, as a climax to the month of services here. Tentative plans are under way to make the rally one that will live long in the memory of Christians from all over Prince Edward Island. Churches of all denominations will be invited, and it is hoped that a host of five hundred voices will lead the singing.

Hessian, training officer for the London, Ontario Service Corps and a member of an old military family, has been awarded the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal, an honor announced last night. Members of Captain Hessian's family have been in the army in London ever since the British Imperial garrisons the town. He has just completed 18 years' service, 10 with the engineers and eight with the Service Corps. He enlisted in London and has two brothers in khaki. One brother, Emmet Hessian is on the Canadian army staff at Washington; the other, Captain John Hessian, is at Central Army Command, Ottawa. A sister, a Lieutenant Nursing Sister during the war, is now living in Ottawa. Dr. Lloyd Hessian, a London doctor, left the family tradition of army service when he entered the armistice forces and served with the Air Force as a Wing Commander. Captain Hessian's father was in the army for 20 years serving in the Ordnance, Artillery, and the Royal Canadian Regiment, then stationed here. Captain Hessian comes from one of the oldest and most respected families of Georgetown and King's County. He was born here, while his father and mother were visiting the old home in the late E. V. Hessian and Mr. S. Hessian, K.C., of Montague, is his uncle.

Junior League Ch'town Hospital Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital was held at the Nurses Residence on Tuesday evening, June 27th. There was a large attendance and the meeting was opened with prayer, by the President, Mrs. Walter Lawlor, who presided.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and adopted. The President's report, which follows was then read. The report of the Treasurer was read by Mrs. Gerald Johnston. This showed a substantial balance on hand after a large number of expenditures, including the furnishing of the Charlottetown Hospital. The report of the Ways and Means Committee by Mrs. John Connolly showed a busy and successful year for this committee. Mrs. Bernard Hughes read the report of the work committee which showed 528 articles of sewing and 238 knitted pieces made during the year. The election of officers then took place with the following results. President—Mrs. Bernard Hughes. Vice-Pres.—Mrs. George Chandler. Secretary—Mrs. Vincent Pineau. Treasurer—Mrs. Gerald Johnston. A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring officers and a gift was then presented to the retiring members by the members of the Club in appreciation of her leadership for the year past.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It is my pleasure, at this time, to give you, as your president, a short resume of the League's activities for the past year. Further to express my thanks, as well as the thanks of the Executive to you all for your very fine co-operation and assistance without which we could not have had such a splendid year. Some twelve years ago, the Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital had its beginning with a membership of approximately fifteen members' homes. Today, this same Club under the name of "The Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital" has an increased membership of fifty-five, meeting at the Nurses' Residence, with the main objective of supplying the needs of the Hospital Nurses, as well as continuing the distribution of reading material to the patients throughout the hospital twice a week. Special thanks are here extended to our very active and very successful Convenor of Ways and Means, Mrs. John Connolly, and her Committee. During the past year they, with your grand cooperation, have raised a large sum of money through our various activities. To our Work Committee, under the very capable convenorship of Mrs. B. H. Hughes, for sewing and Mrs. Reginald Cronin for knitting, I offer our sincere congratulations and thanks. Due to the fact the new Pavilion opened in the Spring, this entailed the complete furnishing of the thirty cubicle beds, consisting of plastic mattress covers; crib liners; sheets; blankets; spreads and baby clothing, as well as sewing for the usual Christmas Layettes for the Number of knitted articles contributed by you for the bazaar, the layettes, the Spring Tea amounted to 238. As you are all aware, we also completely furnished at a cost of $500.00 room 406 on the fourth floor of the new Pavilion.

As in past years in appreciation for the uses of the Nurses' Residence for our meetings, we sponsored a Reception for the Graduating Class of 1950, at which this year we inaugurated our Annual Scholarship in Obstetrics, which was equally merited by Miss Rose McDonald and Miss Florence McCaigan and drawn by Miss McCaigan.

We also assisted the nurses at their annual card party and gave our usual donation to the Precious Blood Monastery at Christmas. As provided for in the by laws of the Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital, we sponsored the Annual Maritime Association Convention, convened with the Maritime Hospital Aid Association held this year at the Algonquin Hotel, St. Andrews, N. B., a very beautiful spot and a worthwhile convention. In conclusion, may I thank you all again and leave with you a few lines from Kipling, I quote

"And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame And no one shall work for the money, and no one shall work for the fame; But each for the joy of the working, and each in his separate star, Shall draw the thing as he sees it for the God of things as they are."

Gracie Fields Heard In Return Engagement

A crowded Forum awaited Gracie Fields when she appeared for a return engagement under the sponsorship of the Kiwanis on Friday evening.

It takes a great entertainer to hold an audience of that size for over two hours, but Gracie seemed to do it with ease, enjoying every moment. It was with reluctance that the audience let her leave at the conclusion of the program, knowing full well that it might be the last time they would hear an entertainer of this calibre. For those who were returning to see her for the second time, Gracie introduced a number of new songs, the high spot of which was undoubtedly the "Co-op Shop". In this Gracie did everything, even getting off the track and singing a different number to that which the accompanist was playing. After the argument which resulted, the number was resumed with all dignity only to have Gracie get off on another tangent, winding up right smack into the middle of an operatic aria which she rendered in true Fields' style.

It is these unexpected twists which Miss Fields introduces into her numbers that keep an audience on the edges of their seats, and have kept her on the top rung of the entertainment field for so long. In answer to a request, Miss Fields sang the lovely "Ave Maria" by Gounod, bringing into it all the feeling and sincerity with which she sings songs of this type. Jimmy Bailey, pianist, and Marguerite Learning, violinist, again offered groups of numbers which left the audience wishing they could hear more of these talented performers.

Magistrate's Court At Georgetown

Stipendiary Magistrate for King's County, Joseph W. MacDonald, held his weekly court in Georgetown on Friday, June 30th. A Georgetown resident pleaded guilty on two charges under the Highway Traffic Act. On the first charge, that of failing to have an operator's license, he was fined five dollars and fifty cents costs. The second charge was for operating a vehicle on the highway without a license, for which he received a fine of one dollar and three dollars costs.

The cases of Wilfred Waterworth and Stewart Sorrey of Montague were both adjourned until Saturday, July 8th. In both cases the charge was that of breaking and entering and theft, on June 8th, and no evidence was given in either one. Mr. J. O. C. Campbell, K.C., deputy Attorney General, and Mr. S. S. Hessian, K.C., both represented the Crown, and Mr. D. L. Mathieson represented the accused.
