THE TARIFF for the year 1865,
FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—The Good Friend.—Human suffering is so confessedly universal that the man who successfully relieves it is worthy of all praise. The above-named preparations were first compounded many years ago by Professor Holloway, who since that period, has had repeated confirmations from all quarters of the globe, of their surpassing powers in curing both internal and external diseases. These medicines give the greatest and speediest relief in all cases of dyspepsia, heartburn, flatulency, nausea, biliousness, and colic. The Ointment, when briskly rubbed upon the skin, by exerting the most wholesome and regulating influence on under-lying nerves, vessels, and glands, checks inflammation in the throat, chest and bowels.
