

Local and Other Items.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester is now loading for Boston, and will sail this evening.

PERSONAL.—Dr. McSwain, of Riverside, Cal., is in town to-day. He leaves for the West to-morrow morning.

BIBLE CLASS.—Young men's Bible Class in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 8 o'clock. All young men are cordially invited.

HOW THEY STARTED.—An exchange says it is now believed that some of the recent fires at Ottawa have been occasioned by electric light wires.

ROYAL ARCADE.—Prince Edward Council, Royal Arcade, will meet in their hall this evening, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance of members is requested.

FASHION ITEM.—Brass is coming into fashion again, says an exchange. With a great many men that we know brass never has been and never will be out of fashion.

TEA PARTY AT MONTAQUE.—The Presby-congregation of Montaque intend holding a tea at Montaque Bridge, on the 25th of July, in aid of their Manse fund. See advt. next week.

A FINANCIAL FAILURE.—The Art Fair held in Toronto recently in aid of the funds for erecting a building for the Canadian Society of artists, netted about $1,000. The expenses were in the neighborhood of $3,000.

THE TURF.—The proprietors of the Woodstock Driving Park, announce that the summer meeting will come off on the 30th June, inst. There will be three races, and prizes amounting to $300 will be competed for.

TO THE DEAF.—A person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy will send a description of it FREE to any person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John Street, Montreal. 4m—m14

M. A. STARR.—The str. M. A. Starr, Capt. Ferguson, arrived from Halifax at noon to-day, with the usual cargo and Jas. Higgins, wife and child, and Mrs. C. Benoit and two children as passengers. The steamer will sail on return this evening.

ANOTHER PUZZLE.—The following puzzle is going the rounds of the press: If a fish's tail weighs nine lbs., and his head weighs as much as his tail and half his body, and his body weighs as much as his head and tail together, what is the weight of the whole fish.

A NEW KIND.—The latest thing in strikes occurred in a female seminary at Nashville, Tenn., where a class of young ladies indignantly struck against instruction from a text book on history, which recited the old story of Jefferson Davis' capture in female attire.

PREACHING.—There will be Gospel preaching again this evening in the Christian Church's Meeting House, at 7.30. After the discourse two candidates will be buried with the Lord in baptism, for the remission of their sins. See Romans, 6th. Chap., 3, 17 and 18 verses.

POLICE COURT.—Ellen Woods, vs. Mary Donnelly, action for assault; defendant fined 50 cents without costs. H. W. Longworth vs. Patrick McCarey, truckman, breaking plate glass windows; defendant fined $1 for being drunk, and allowed to settle the window breaking case by paying the amount of damages claimed.

SPIRITS DID IT.—The will of William Henry Livingstone, bequeathing $100,000 to his brother-in-law to the exclusion of his brothers and sisters, was admitted to probate in the Essex county, N. S., orphans' court, on Monday. His collateral heirs contested the will on the ground that he had been influenced in drawing the instrument by the departed spirit of his wife, with which he claimed to have communicated.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN.—Mrs. Hugh McMullen, of Truro, 65 years old, has a piece of knitting performed by her during the past winter. The work is of the nature of a bed spread, and is beautifully designed in squares, with raised leaves. There are 25 squares in the spread, each square having been knitted in four separate pieces, the several sections containing nine leaves, or 56 leaves to a square. The total number of leaves is 900. Thirty balls of No. 12 cotton were used.

GAVE UP SMOKING.—A resident of the Parish of Moncton was in town yesterday, says the Times, looking hale and hearty, notwithstanding his 69 odd years. In the course of conversation the subject of smoking came up, when the old resident said he commenced smoking at 5 years of age, smoked 55 years, gave it up in the summer of 1886, after a severe illness, and has not smoked since. He had been an inveterate smoker, but was not aware that it had injured him in any way.

PROVINCIAL DIRECTORY.—We understand that Frederick's Publishing Co. are meeting with much encouragement in their work of getting up a Provincial Directory. The firm are sparing no trouble or expense to make the work a success. They have some fifteen men employed canvassing the Island for subscriptions, advertisements, etc., and feel confident that the work will be well performed, and that the information the Directory will contain can always be relied upon. The book will contain some seven or eight hundred pages, and will be sold at the rate of $2 per copy. The advertising rates are reasonable. The firm have their office in MacEachern's Building, Queen Street, where they will be pleased to see any person desirous of assisting the work by advertising or subscribing.

ISLAND HORSES.—W. F. Glidden returned from P. E. Island, Saturday, with 14 horses, all of which are fine animals. He had three nicely matched pairs of more than ordinary beauty and form. This is the second lot of horses that Mr. Glidden has brought from the Island since the boats commenced a regular traffic, and he had little more than got them in his stables before he began to sell them out again. Several were disposed of the first day.—Woodstock Press.

Mr. James Keegan has thirty-eight good-looking horses for the American market, which he intends shipping via train to Summerside to-morrow. Among the number is the well-known trotter Scott Act, which he purchased from the owner, Mr. Dunphy, of Mill View, for the sum of $150. Mr. Robert Pugsley, of Amherst, has sold his valuable mare to George O'Brien, of Macan, for a good price—believed to be about $400. She is four years old, 16 hands high, stylish, and shows a forty clip. She was sired by Dr. Jencks' Hambletonian, P. E. I., and was purchased by Mr. Pugsley, who is evidently a good judge of a colt.—Ottawa.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Presbyterian Conference.

Arrival of the Delegates

SUMMARY OF PROCEEDINGS.

HALIFAX, June 13.

The Quebec express which was six hours late to-day brought five sleepers crowded with delegates to the Presbyterian General Assembly. The city of Halifax extended no formal welcome and did nothing to show that it took the slightest interest in the great gathering. The delegates are being entertained by Presbyterian families and will receive due attention from private citizens.

The assembly met in St. Matthew's Church, which was crowded, some three hundred delegates being in attendance.

Dr. Burns, retiring Moderator, preached the sermon. After the conclusion of his elaborate discourse, the roll was called and the assembly proceeded to elect a Moderator.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Reid, Rev. W. T. McMullen, of Woodstock, Ont., was the unanimous choice. Dr. McMullen is the first representative of the Irish wing of Presbyterianism in Canada honored by election to the Moderatorship.

Committees were appointed, and after other routine the Serodunt adjourned.

Ottawa News.

OTTAWA, June 13.

At a meeting of the Cabinet to-day, Senator Schultz was appointed Lieut.-Governor of Manitoba, the appointment to date from July 1st.

It is understood the Government intend placing a fishery cruiser on the Georgian Bay to look after American poachers.

The Newfoundland has been ordered to proceed shortly to Cape Race, to repair the fog whistle, and will also repair the cable at Magdalen Islands.

A London special states that the Imperial Federation memorial has been laid before the Colonial Secretary. Lord Knutsford has expressed the opinion that the initiative should be taken by the Canadian Government to secure the proposed conference.

A Sad Suicide.

MONTREAL, June 13.

A young man named Leclerc, belonging to Toronto, who, with his newly-married wife, was a passenger on the Corinthian, jumped overboard at the head of Long Sault Rapids and was drowned. His wife is frantic with grief, and was taken care of by friends here on the arrival of the boat. They were on their way to Paris, France, to spend their honeymoon. No reason can be assigned for the rash act.

Welcoming Lord Stanley.

QUEBEC, June 13.

Lord Stanley was received with enthusiasm to-day. Three thousand people assembled on Dufferin Terrace where Mayor Langlier presented an address of welcome, to which His Excellency replied in appropriate terms. The vice-regal party will stay at the citadel till next Wednesday, going thence to Metapedia.

The Sick Emperor.

POTSDAM, June 13.

The Emperor's general condition is comparatively satisfactory. He is able to take some solid food without resorting to the tube. The doctors are hopeful that he will maintain his strength for some time. The Emperor received the King of Sweden sitting on the garden terrace.

In a Dilemma.

OTTAWA, June 13.

The Supreme Court judges are in doubt as to their power to deliver judgments in cases which were argued when the late Judge Henry was on the bench. They will decide the question to-morrow, and it is considered probable that all cases now standing for judgment, will have to be re-argued.

Disastrous Fire.

HALIFAX, June 13.

The gold mining settlement of Rawdon, Hants Co., was cremated to-day by fires which started in the woods. Seventeen dwellings, D. A. McDonald's store, the company's office, the crusher and posting gear of the Eastern works, etc., were destroyed. Loss $30,000.

Plumbers to Strike.

TORONTO, June 13.

The journeymen Plumbers Union, numbering over 100 men, has decided to go out on strike to-morrow morning owing to the employers refusing to grant an increase in wages. The Bricklayers Union to-night voted $400 for the assistance of their striking brethren.
