

Packers And City Win Softball League Games

Canada Packers snapped the Sunshine Island Dairy's unbeaten streak at eight games last night and the City Slickers defeated the Basilio Youth Club 18-14 in City Softball League games. The Packers downed the League leading Dairymen 9-4.

Henry Hartinger made it five wins in a row as he pitched a six hitter for Canada Packers in their win over the Dairymen. Hartinger's record is five wins against no losses. Charlie Ballem started on the mound for the Dairymen and was relieved by brother Ced with the Packers leading.

Mike Connolly of the Packers hit a three runs homer in the fifth inning to provide the victory margin.

Joe Revell hit a triple for the Dairy while Dick Carroll of the Dairy and Len Arsenault of the Packers made outstanding defensive plays.

The City Slickers scored nine runs in the first inning as they defeated the B.Y.C. The Slickers collected six hits, four walks and the B.Y.C. committed two errors during the opening frame.

Dick Doyle pitched for the City and went the route for the win. Father Clarence Roche pitched for the B.Y.C. Each pitcher gave up 13 hits.

Merlin Mackenzie of the City hit a three run homer in the second inning. Mackenzie of the City each had three hits while John Walsh and Kenny Tulle of the B.Y.C. collected three hits.

George Scantlebury and Glen Matheson played fine defensive ball for the City while Jim Flannigan, Gerard Burge and Charlie Weatherbie made exceptional fielding plays for the B.Y.C.

The games were handled by Ev MacNeill and Leo Doyle.

Fights For Title

Harry "Kid" Paulton (above) of Charlottetown fights Charlie Chase of Montreal tonight in Saint John, N.B., for the Canadian Middleweight Boxing Championship. Paulton and Chase were selected as leading contenders by the Canadian Boxing Federation. The winner is required to meet Lou Lawrence of Vancouver within 30 days.

she suffered from nerves and played untidily against Miss Scarsgill who was two up at the end of the first nine. During that run she landed in seven sand traps. After the turn she quickly recovered her form and quickly overtook her opponent.

Against Mrs. Ferguson, Marlene was two up on the third hole, then hit two mighty shots on the long sixth to win the hole in four and go three up. She took the seventh and eighth, the latter with a birdie three, and finished the nine holes with a hot 35. She took the 11th and 12th with a par four and birdie three respectively to wind up the match.

Today Marlene has what may be her biggest test in the British open. She meets Margaret Wiffy Smith of Pasadena, Calif., a promising 17-year-old who weighs 161 pounds and is being hailed by some British sportswriters as another Babe Zaharias.

Marlene, who raves for her cool play under fire at last year's tournament, is the favorite this year, took time out from studies at Rollins College in Florida to come to Britain to defend her title.

As usual, the five-foot-one swinger is the tiniest golfer in the field. Happy and laughing before Monday's play, she became silent and grim once she stepped out on the course.

Bob Lemon Has Pulled Muscle

CLEVELAND (AP)—When Cleveland Indians went east Monday pitcher Bob Lemon stayed here for an x-ray and treatment of a pulled muscle in his left side. Manager Al Lopez said he hoped the injury his ace righthander incurred while at bat Sunday, will be mended sufficiently for him to pitch in the Chicago White Sox series here this weekend.

Wins Ladies Golf Match

The second points match of the season was completed at the Belvedere Golf Course yesterday with Miss Norah Longworth being the winner and Mrs. Noel DeBlois runner-up.

ROUTINE NOW

BEDFORD, England, (CP)—For the second time in two years Dinah, an alaskan dog, roused Mr. and Mrs. G. Watts when fire broke out in their home.

IN THIS CORNER

They claim around the Belvedere Golf course that Art MacKenzie never spends any time on the practice fairways or greens. MacKenzie gets his practice in friendly games or trophy play, a custom which is rare among the top golfers. Yet so great is MacKenzie's natural ability that each year he comes up with some brilliant feat. A year ago he captured the N.B.-P.E.I. Amateur Championship. Three days ago he established an amateur record for the Belvedere Golf Course with a score of 68.

MacKenzie is not a long ball hitter compared with his top opponents. However, his accuracy in placing shots usually overcomes any advantage his competitors gain on their distance drives. Occasionally he may miss an easy shot like all top golfers do. For example in his record breaking round on Saturday he missed a short putt on number 14 to lose a five-under-par round of 67.

An idea of MacKenzie's steadiness can be obtained from looking at his scores on each hole in Saturday's round. He had twelve pars, five birdies and one bogie. For the benefit of those not familiar with golf a birdie means the player had played the hole one stroke under par and a bogie is one stroke over par.

It was Maurice "Mousie" Dowling who first got MacKenzie interested in golf. Art had a natural left-hand swing and for three or four years he played cross-handed, a practice which is frowned upon in golfing circles. However, he managed to get his score down in the low eighties. Dowling and Jimmy Walker, the club professional at the time, knew they had an unusual prospect in MacKenzie so they ordered him to swing right-handed. MacKenzie was reluctant but Dowling and Walker refused to play with him until he learned to play in the proper manner.

It was then that MacKenzie practiced earnestly for perhaps the only time in his career. He spent nearly a month in practice alone. At first he had trouble breaking 100. Before long he was down to 90 then 80 and at the end of the year he was shooting in the seventies.

He became a member of the Belvedere Golf Course on his return from overseas in 1946. He has been an ardent golfer since then and done practically everything on the course except practice. "I haven't practiced for seven or eight years," he told us last night. "I always intend to practice but when I get out there I can't resist the temptation to get up on the first tee and hit that ball," he added. He didn't practice for the N.B.-P.E.I. last year and by the looks of things he won't practice for the N.B.-P.E.I. tournament this year when he goes to Fredericton to defend the crown he won a year ago.

Drobny And Patty Pull Major Upsets In Tennis

WIMBLEDON, England, (AP)—Jaroslav Drobny and Budge Patty turned Wimbledon's seeded list upside down Monday with quarter-final upsets of Lew Hoad and Vic Seixas.

One week from tomorrow night Gary Simon of New Glasgow will climb into the ring against Cobey McCuskey of Charlottetown in the ten round main bout at the Forum. Last night in New Glasgow Gary Simon added more prestige to his already brilliant fighting efforts as he knocked out Vern Stephenson of Montreal in the seventh round of a rousing fight.

Among those at ringside in New Glasgow was fight promoter Ivan Doherty of Charlottetown, the sponsor of the Booster Fight Show. In a long distance telephone conversation last night, Doherty, his voice filled with enthusiasm, told us that he had just seen one of the best fights of his life. "This Simon is wonderful to see. He can hit from any angle and he fights all the time," stated Doherty.

"The German as Simon is called" seemed puzzled by Stephenson at first," he continued. "But he kept improving and he staggered Stephenson several times with smashing punches as the fight progressed. He has a strong left hook and a good right cross and he fights every inch of the way. Island fans are going to like him. After the fight he told me I won this one for Charlottetown."

Doherty also liked Stephenson and was services last night for a fight here later this summer. In the semi-final last night Don "Duck" Trainor of Charlottetown looked impressive in pounding out a win over Doug Odo of Nova Scotia. Odo is regarded as quite a puncher but was no match for the fast moving Trainor who kept toasting rapier-like rights and lefts at Odo's face until the fight was halted.

Doherty had planned to match Trainor with Odo in Charlottetown but Trainor hurt the Nova Scotia fighter so much last night that Odo doesn't want a return scrap. Those jobs that Trainor uses apparently pack plenty of steam as was evident on the night he fought Gerry Fraser in the last fight at the Forum.

Curranites And Holman's Play To 3-3 Tie At S'side

Curran & Briggs and Holman's battled to a 3-3 tie at Queen Elizabeth baseball diamond last evening in one of the best pitched and most exciting ball games of the 1954 season. Garland Harris, pitcher out of midge ranks, tossed the mound for the Curranites and allowed two hits in 6 2-3 innings. His own error on a pop fly and a walk got him into difficulties in the seventh and Dee Lefurkey moved to the mound from short field and finished the game allowing one hit in the remaining 2 1-3 innings.

Paul Schurman, pitching his second complete game for Holman's, went the route, giving up only five hits and none in the last three frames. The first four innings were scoreless. Curran & Briggs shoved two runs across in their half of the fifth.

Ulric Gallant walked, went to second on a passed ball. Arsenault and G. Harris grounded and filed out, and Grant Grady singled to right, Gallant going to third. Johnny Whalen delivered the pay-off punch, sending two runners across with a single through short.

On the seventh, Toocy Phillips was on when his pop to the pitcher fell safely. Kramer walked, and Schurman filed to the catcher. J. Grady got a life on a fielder's choice, Kramer being cut down at second. Phillips crossed the plate.

N. Z. To Send 65 To Empire Games

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (CP)—New Zealand's team for the British Empire Games at Vancouver July 30-Aug. 7 has been set at 65-56 athletes and nine officials, it was announced Monday.

The team announced two months ago totalled 59. Several national sports associations have tried hard to send additional athletes and have offered to pay their expenses, but the New Zealand Empire Games Association has refused to depart from its assessment of those of sufficient standard to warrant selection.

The only athletic added has been a rowing cox, Stanley H. M. Calager of Auckland. At the time the team was chosen it was believed a rowing cox could be supplied in Canada, but this is not permissible.

Half the team will leave Auckland by air July 14, and the remainder three days later.

Male members of the team will wear the traditional black New Zealand blazers with silver fern pocket badge, grey slacks and Panama hats.

The girls will wear white dresses and white berets for official functions and black berets for traveling. They also will be supplied with the uniform black blazers.

BOX SCORE

Table with columns: Player, AB, R, H, O, E. Includes Cameron, R. Phillips, V. Harris, Gay, T. Phillips, Kramer, P. Schurman, J. Grady, Landry, Totals, Curran & Briggs.

Holman's fought their way back into the ball game by getting a tying tally in the eighth and the single run in the ninth. Landry struck out to start the eighth but Gallant let the ball get away from him and Landry went to second. The pitcher's wild heave sent him home.

In the final frame, Lefurkey lost his control, walking J. Grady, hitting Landry, walking Cameron, and then walking a run across the plate as Phillips went to first on a free ticket. Schurman struck out two and J. Grady caught a fly in centre field to retire the Curranites in the bottom of the ninth, and the game ended in a draw, it being too dark to continue.

QJHL Puts Lid On Salaries

MONTREAL (CP)—The Quebec Junior Hockey League Monday cracked down on runaway salaries and fixed a maximum of $60 a week for next season.

There was no official indication as to how high salaries of some of the prospective young stars have reached but one informant said "you can do your own guessing" and that $150 wouldn't be wide of the mark in some instances. There has been no maximum until now.

A league spokesman said the move was made to cut down drastically on expenses and to help clubs that have found the going tougher and tougher financially in an effort to keep pace with zooming salaries for junior players.

Club representatives at Monday's meeting dealt also with the league's financial statement and discussed other matters. Another meeting has been set for Quebec City, with the tentative date July 15.
