Seek More Than 150 Blood Donors At Kensington

Mr. Gordon Cooke, manager of the Kensington branch of Canada Packers, has again undertaken the chairmanship of the blood donor committee on behalf of the Kensington Board of Trade. The clinic this time will be held in St. Mark's Hall on Tuesday, August 31st, in the evening when the objective is at least 150 donors.

Since theer were 164 donors in attendance at last year's clinic in Kensington, Mr. Cooke is hopeful that the quota for Kensington and the surrounding aeas, can again be greatly exceeded, as the residents of these districts have given evidence of their desire to support wholeheartedly the free blood transfusion service made available to all through the medium of the Canadian Red Cross.

Mrs. Wilfred Taylor of Kensington, who has always headed up the arrangements re workers and refreshments, reports that members of the Margate Women's Institute have very kindly agreed to provide refreshments, and the ladies to look after this end of the proceedings, at this year's clinic.

Co-existence Or Co-destruction, Nehru Says

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament Thursday "co-destruction" is the only alternative to co-existence with Communist countries.

A pro-western leader of India's untouchables charged him with hospitality to the United States, while Red deputies complained Nehru does not do enough to fight 'Anglo-American imperialism."

"Whether he likes the present state of affairs in the world or not, one has in fact to choose between a policy likely to lead to war in the biggest scale and acceptance of the general approach meant by the word co-existence," Nehru declared.

Nehru defined co-existence as nations existing where they are and not interfering with each other. He said India and Red China are bound to come together either in a friendly or unfriendly way and he wants it to be friendly.

SHOWS REPUGNANCE

Columbia-educated B. R. Ambedkar, as spokesman for 60,000,000 Indians below the Hindu caste ladder, countered that Nehru shows repugnance at anything suggested by the United States.

Ambedkar, law minister until he broke with Nehru to lead the untouchables' party in the 1951 elections, said Nehru had accepted the Communist co-existence idea without much thought.

LACKS INITIATIVE

The leader of the Communist party in Parliament, P. P. Sundarayya, contended Nehru was not taking enough iniative for a "united Asian front to Anglo-American imperialism" and should call an all-Asian conference.

Sundarayya asked, in an upper house foreign affairs debate following Nehru's speech, whether American guns were being flown into Goa, largest of the three Portuguese colonial territories on the west coast of India.

"I do not think the United States is sending arms, and I do not believe they will," Nehru replied.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Fire in a railway boxcar containing explosive sodium nitrate threatened the waterfront here Wednesday. Only the fact that the fire was not in a confined space prevented a disaster, fire department officials said. The fire started while the boxcar was being loaded from the Danish freighter Vedby. It was quickly doused.

Scenes From The Crapaud Exhibition

Top Left: Upwards of 550 exhibits in the handicraft, domestic science, fruit, flowers, and field roots sections were on display at the Crapaud Exhibition on Wednesday, and some of the 220 exhibits in the domestic science division are seen above presenting a tasty appearance shortly after the judging took place. In the background is the handicraft section which had over 200 exhibits testifying to the skill and craftmanship of the ladies who made the various items.

Rendezvous with Mystery Man and Flying Saucer

OSLO (Reuters)—Two Norwegian women claim that last Friday they had a lengthy rendezvous with a longhaired foreigner and his "flying saucer."

This is the story the women—sisters aged 24 and 32—told, according to police and reporters:

The were picking berries when a dark, longhaired stranger appeared and motioned them to a hollow, where they saw a two-ply saucer contraption 16 feet in diameter.

He jabbered a strange language at them, gestured and made drawings to try to communicate. They jabbered back in English, French and German. No results.

LIKE BUMBLE BEE

Finally he sauntered back to his contraption, started it up with a slight humming sound, "like a bumble bee," rose at great speed and vanished into the sky.

They claimed he wore a kind of khaki overalls with no buttons, but "possibly with a belt."

The alleged incident took place near Mosjoen, Norway. The local police chief said he will dispatch some of his men to the spot Thursday to see what they can find.

Malan Continues Efforts To Cut Non-white Vote

CAPETOWN (CP)—In a move that might touch off a new constitutional crisis, Prime Minister Malan announced Thursday his Nationalist government still intends to push legislation to cut the vote of some non-white South Africans.

The Nationalists are asking separate parliamentary representation for some 1,000,000 Cape Province colored (mixed - blood) voters. About 40,000 now qualify for voting rights equal to those of the white and they can vote for white candiates in their constituencies. The new law would permit them to elect four white men to speak for them in Parliament.

Malan did not say what steps he would take to get the law passed though he said he will not seek a two-thirds majority of both houses of Parliament for the law, as required by the constitution in such legislation.
