The Moncton Sugar Refinery has resumed operations. The World for forty cents at the Diamond Bookstore. Two cases of drunkenness at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon.

Savage & Lyman jewelers of Montreal, have called a meeting of their creditors. Photograph Albums from twenty cents to twenty dollars each at the Diamond Bookstore.

It was on Saturday last Mr. A. T. Wright's son was accidentally drowned, and not on Sunday. Vaccine—Address all orders for Pure Vaccine to Geo. E. Hughes, Apothecaries' Hall.

The Young Men's Union will meet this evening, in the Y. M. C. A. parlor. Subject—"Taste." Vaccine—Fresh B. vine Vaccine Virus received daily at Apothecaries' Hall, Des Rosiers' Corner.

The Christmas Cards at the Diamond Bookstore are undoubtedly the finest and cheapest in the city. Rev. John M. Allen, formerly Presbyterian minister at Chatham, will accept a call to Richmond, Halifax.

Gilbert & Sullivan's income from "The Mikado," in the United States alone, it is said, will be $100,000. The wrecking steamer Earl of Dufferin is a total wreck on Anticosti. She was owned by Capt. Larrier, of Halifax.

The Diamond Bookstore excels in its magnificent stock of fancy goods for the coming Christmas season. Mrs. Patterson Kelly, of St. John, N. B., on Friday afternoon drank a solution of Paris green, mistaking it for water. She died from the effects the following night.

Lord Alexander Russell, Lady Russell and Deputy Minister of Justice Burbridge, were passengers by the Nardian, which arrived at Halifax on the 28th ult. The brig, Donalena, Capt. Martin P. McIvor, arrived at Buenos Ayres, from Brunswick, G., on Sept. 30th, and sailed on Oct. 6th for Pernambuco.

Mr. Pope, Private Secretary to Sir John A. Macdonald, K. C. B., and Mariano Pope, are in town and will be the guests of the Hon. Mr. Justice Caron for a short time.—Quebec Chronicle. Vaccination—Patients wishing to be vaccinated with the pure Bovine Vaccine Virus, will be attended to at their homes by leaving their orders at the Apothecaries' Hall.

Dr. Calhoun, astronomer of Syracuse, N. Y., at 7 o'clock on the evening of the 25th ult., observed a brilliant meteoric display in the north and east. The spectacle was a brilliant one. There was a shower of 10 stars connected with the Bell comet. The name of Hon. Donald A. Smith is mentioned as one of the Canadians likely to receive recognition at the hands of the Queen for services rendered in connection with the construction of the Canadian Pacific railway.

Mr. Vinicombe, Piano Tuner, has decided to post up his semi-annual trip to Summerside and Western parts of the island for a few weeks, when he will be happy to meet all his old musical friends, again, as usual. Correction.—We are requested to say that the statement in Friday's EXAMINER that the Dorcas Society of Methodist Brick Church contributed 102 night dresses for the patients at the smallpox hospital is incorrect. It should have read, "half dozen night dresses."

His Eminence Cardinal McCloskey, who died in New York, in October last, was insured in the Mutual Life of New York for $10,000. His heirs will receive in addition to the face of the policy, profits $5779, making a total of $15779. Comment is unnecessary. This great-est of Life Companies will be represented in this Province by John MacEachern. Rev. T. Hutchinson will (D. V.) officiate at North River, on Sabbath first, the 6th of December, at 10:30 a. m., at New Glasgow Road at 2:30 p. m.; and at Hunter River, at 6 o'clock in the evening if the Hall be disengaged. As the smallpox epidemic is now well nigh stamped out in Charlottetown, there need be little fear of danger. All the Churches in the city were open last Sabbath.

He wrote his name on the ballot.—The Chatham World says: A Moncton man who went to Portland to vote for Everett, was offered $5 to vote for McLeod, and consulted his friend, an Everett man, before accepting. His friend probably being that the latter would see the McLeod bid and go five better. The Everett man, who was not paying $5 for votes, said: "But they'll hear of you having to see me and suspect you. I'll tell you what to do—write your name on the ballot and then they'll know that you acted on the square d'ye see." The Moncton man accordingly did as he was told, and there was a big laugh when the ballot came out of the box. This is a true story.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH

NEW CASES. Mr. Charles Hearst—one of our oldest and best-known citizens—was found this morning to have contracted the disease. Mr. Hearst has been, we regret to learn, very ill, but feels better since the appearance of the rash. The doctor hopes his will be a light case.

CONDITION OF PATIENTS. Dr. S. R. Jenkins reported this forenoon as follows, regarding the condition of the patients at the Hospital:—

Mrs. Forrest, low. Mrs. Smith, " Miss Wood, " Miss Green, " Mrs. Way, " Mrs. Raymond, little better. Miss Somers, better. Mrs. McCreary, " Mrs. McQuaid, " Miss Mullins, " Miss Sheppard, " Mrs. Music, " Mrs. Hawkins, very bad. William Bell, low. John Crockett, better. Mr. Music, " Mr. Madden, " Mr. Kinsman, " James Hennessey and all other patients doing well.

Miss Agnes McDonald, who was removed to the Hospital yesterday, is sick to-day. Brenton Dawson is better to-day, having taken food once. The case of Mr. Davy's child is one of varioloid. All patients at their homes in the city continue doing well.

DEATHS. Miss Elith Chilton, Miss Carver and Mrs. L. G. Hagan have passed away since THE EXAMINER was issued last evening.

THE LATEST DEATHS AND CONDITION OF PATIENTS.

To the Chairman of the Board of Health: Sir,—I have to report the death of Mrs. Lougeran, who died suddenly this morning while sitting up to take some nourishment. In her case the fatal result arose from failure of the heart's action. Miss Carver, who has been for several days in extreme danger, died last night. Mrs. Forrest is gradually sinking, as also Mrs. Smith. Louisa Hawkins has severe throat and bronchitis complications, and is in extreme danger. Kate Somers is still in great danger, but seems to hold her own. Miss Green's is a serious case, as is Miss Woods. Mrs. McCreary and Mrs. McQuaid, though seriously ill, are improving; so is Mrs. Larzer, and Miss McDonald, who was admitted yesterday, shows serious symptoms. In the man's ward, Bill is sinking; Wayne holds out wonderfully, but his symptoms indicate great danger; Crockett is low, but has no formidable symptoms; Muir, whose case has been extremely severe, progresses favorably; all the others are doing well.

J. T. JENKINS, Health Officer. Smallpox Hospital, Dec. 1st, 1885.

THE CITY SCHOOL. At a meeting of the City School Board, held on last (Monday) evening, it was ordered that no pupil be re-admitted to any of the public schools, unless proof is given that he or she has been vaccinated; and that the Principals of the several schools be instructed to act in accordance with this order. It was further ordered that the schools remain closed until all danger of the contagion has passed away. Due notice of the re-opening will be given through the daily papers. Right!

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. His Worship Mayor Baer acknowledges with thanks the following donations for the patients in the hospital:—From a friend (by mail), to procure a few comforts for smallpox patients, $4; a friend, $50; L. H. Davies, E. q., mattress, blankets, etc.; Mr. P. Collier, Law Courts, 1 barrel apples; Capt. Evans, steamer St. Lawrence, 1 brl. apples; Mrs. James Coleman, 1 large box of delicacies; Mr. Wm. Murray, (baker) one brl. crackers.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE. A meeting of the Citizens' Committee was held in the Council Chamber at 5 o'clock last evening. Senator Carvell in the chair. The reports of the different vaccinators for the five wards of the city were received, and a statement, kindly furnished by Dr. Conroy, giving the number of persons vaccinated by him since the house-to-house examination had been made. It was found that about 1,000 persons had been vaccinated since then, and it is calculated that at the utmost there are not more than 300 unvaccinated persons in the city. Most of these will probably be done by to-night.

THE CASE AT SOURIS. A leading merchant, writing from Souris, says:—"The one case here is doing very well, and will be convalescent in a few days. As the vaccination has taken on all the citizens, and there is no other appearance of smallpox, we hope to be totally clear of the disease in a short time."

SMALLPOX AT CAPE BRETON. A genuine smallpox scare exists throughout the island of Cape Breton, due to the presence of the disease in Sydney. There are at present some fourteen cases in the town, but most of them are convalescent. The Board of Health has been very energetic in its efforts to check the progress of the disease. On the first appearance of any disease of a doubtful nature the house of the occupant is at once quarantined, and kept so until all danger of infection is placed beyond a doubt. One woman died on Friday morning last. At Baddeck the health authorities have a large fence erected across the head of the wharf, and none are allowed to pass through until the medical gentlemen on duty are satisfied that he or she is clear of contagion. For the benefit of passengers arriving on the steamer, a part of the warehouse is set aside as a smoke house (so called) and all must pass through and be fumigated. The process is that of burning sulphur and brimstone on a pallet sitting in a tub of water. At Port Hawkesbury, rangers in the employ of the Board of Health intercept all conveyance arriving in the village, and the unlucky one who cannot give a strict account of himself must submit to quarantine. So strict are they there and so great is the fear of the disease, that access to the hotels is well nigh impossible. An unfortunate St. John man, who arrived there at 2 a. m. on Saturday, by stage from Sydney, was compelled to walk the streets until daylight. Equally unlucky was an M. P. who was enthusiastically booming the railroad throughout his county and had taken in Sydney in his tour. On his arrival home at Hawkesbury, he was placed in quarantine in his own house for the space of twenty-one days. An honorable member of the Nova Scotia government arrived at Port Mulgrave on Saturday last from Arichat and in the absence of the examining physician was compelled to go without his dinner for three hours, until the doctor arrived and relieved him by performing the act of vaccination. Equally stringent measures are enforced at P. e. o. The disease in Sydney is now under control and it is hoped that in a few days it will have disappeared from the town.

NOTES. The Charlottetown correspondent of the St. John Telegraph reports (Nov. 29) that "J. Duncan, teacher, died yesterday." This is incorrect. Mr. Duncan is still alive, and we are glad to say, well.

A Hard-Hearted Mother.

Since the commutation of the death sentence of John Esterbe, for the murder of his brother in St. Catherine's, Ontario the rather unlikely story is told by the telegraphic correspondent of the St. John Telegraph:—"Before the commutation, Esterbe appeared to be quite indifferent to the fate that seemed to be in store for him. A number of people who went to see the scaffold which had been erected in the jail yard, and Esterbe, noticing this, suggested the propriety of charging an admission fee of five or ten cents each, to be applied to his bon-fit, as it was his show. His mother is reported to have said that she hoped her son would be hanged. She did not want him to be sent to an asylum or penitentiary, because he would get out of there some time and then he might kill them all, but if he was hanged there would be an end to him. On Tuesday last the mother, sister and three brothers visited the jail, and went into the yard to see and examine the scaffold. One of the brothers undertook to show the others how it worked. Some one standing by pulled the bolt and allowed the rope to shoot up in the air, whereupon the mother remarked that John's head would strike the beam above."

"Charles Dicken's son is in town," said a literary man to a Chicago journalist a few days since, "but you needn't be afraid that he will give us a sequel to his father's 'American Notes.' The old artist didn't leave any cloak small enough to fit any of his children. The man mentioned, Capt. F. G. Dickens, soon flashed across the horizon of the Russell House bar. He resembles his father physically just as much as he does mentally—not any. It was rumored during the Riel rebellion that Capt. Dickens was among the slain, but he still holds his commission as commander of a squad of mounted police in the North West territory. "You mustn't mention this as coming from me," said one of the captain's fellow-travellers, "but Capt. Dickens will be the historian of the Riel rebellion, and is now on his way west to see 'his publishers.'"

CORRESPONDENCE is at present going on between the Federal and Imperial Governments, with reference to the strengthening of the Pacific Coast defences.
