TWO KILLED, FOURTEEN INJURED IN ROCK FALL AT SPRINGHILL MINE

P. C. Leader's Wife Killed In N. S. Car Accident

HALIFAX (CP)—The wife of Robert L. Stanfield, Nova Scotia Progressive Conservative leader, was killed in a highway accident near Halifax Thursday night. She was 39.

Mr. Stanfield was in Sydney with the party's national president, George Hees, when informed of his wife's death.

Three of the Stanfields' four children were injured when Mrs. Stanfield's car left the road near Shad bay, but are reported in good condition in Children's Hospital here.

Mrs. Stanfield was the former Joyce Frazee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Frazee of Vancouver. They were married in 1940.

Injured in the accident were Sarah, about 12; Max, about 8; and Judy, 4. The Stanfields' infant baby was at home at the time.

Details of the accident were not available immediately, but it was believed that the car left the road and plunged over a cliff.

Mr. Stanfield, 40-year-old Halifax lawyer and a member of the clothing manufacturing family of Truro, was elected to the party's provincial leadership in 1948.

Mrs. Stanfield and her children had planned to picnic at the beach and return Thursday night. Her car apparently left the road and plummeted over a 20-foot embankment while they were returning to Halifax.

One of the children managed to crawl to the paved highway and call a motorist. The accident occurred on a desolate stretch of highway hewn from a rocky hillside. There were no witnesses.

Mrs. Stanfield's mother now is in London, England, where she visited the grave of a son killed during the Second World War.

Train Accident In Newfoundland

GANDER, Nfld. (CP)—A passenger train collided head-on Thursday night with a lumber train about 23 miles west of here. First reports indicated that all cars had left the tracks.

The Canadian National Railway train, travelling from Corner Brook to St. John's, plowed into a train believed owned by Anglo-Newfoundland Development Company which was carrying pulp from Gambo to Grand Falls.

The CNR office here, which reported that "it looks serious," dispatched a train to the scene about 10:30 p. m. NDT. A doctor and several nurses were aboard. The collision was believed to have occurred about 7:30 p. m. NDT.

SPRINGHILL, N. S. (CP)—Two miners were killed and 14 injured Thursday when a four-ton boulder thundered like a cannonball down a mine shaft here and fell into a "rake" carrying off-shift men to the surface.

The boulder killed Russell Gilroy, 39, on the rake at the 4,400-foot level of the Cumberland Railway and Coal Company mine and Everett Knowlton, 52, about 1,000 feet further down as the missile ricocheted the length of the shaft. On the danger list in hospital here are Arlie Smith and Leo White. The rest received minor injuries. All are from Springhill. Knowlton was the father of five children.

Nobody so far knows what loosened the boulder.

The Springhill colliery, located in the provincial border county of Cumberland near the Isthmus of Chignecto, was the scene of the worst Maritime mine disaster when 125 men were killed in 1891.

Stories of the accident are being pieced together and an investigation will be held.

WORK RESUMES TODAY
None of the men who were struck by debris, Wilfred Rectors, 27, told a reporter that he had only a hazy idea of what happened.

Rectors said he was working alone about 300 feet above the rake when the boulder rumbled down.

"I got out of the way somehow and all I got out of it was a few scratches. If that stuff had hit me I wouldn't be talking to you now."

The day shift of miners preparing to go down the shaft immediately rushed to help bring the injured to the surface. Ambulances and two trucks from here and the neighboring town of Amherst took the men from the pit-head to hospital.

Two doctors treated the men as they were brought up and four more doctors were called to treat those brought to hospital. Nurses on the night shift who had just finished work were recalled to assist.

The mine, a subsidiary of the Dominion Coal Company, remained closed Thursday by tradition but work will resume today.

British Schoolboys Sail For Canada

LIVERPOOL, Eng. (CP)—Forty British schoolboys sailed for Canada Thursday on the sixth tour sponsored by W. H. Rhodes, Bradford, Yorks, business man. Also aboard the Empress of Scotland were 10 Canadian air cadets who shot at Blisley.

The schoolboy group, which travels under the auspices of a trust established in 1937, will visit Quebec, Niagara Falls, Ont., Ottawa, Hamilton, Toronto and other points before returning Aug. 18. Rhodes is accompanying the party for the first time since 1951.

The Canadian cadets, commanded by Lt.-Col. Neil Dow of Windsor, N.S., competed with their seniors at Blisley on an inaugural army cadet Blisley trip.

ACTON, Ont. (CP)—Only his nose was showing above water when a Toronto fisherman was rescued by police in the weeds of nearby Fairy Lake, 13 miles north-east of Guelph. Norman Shields, about 50, told police his boat became stuck in the weeds. He went over the side to try and free it and became stuck, too.

GERMAN PAPER LINKS OTTO JOHN WITH MISSING BRITISH DIPLOMAT

By GARY LEVY
BERLIN (Reuters)—A West German newspaper Thursday linked Otto John, German ambassador to the British diplomat believed to have fled with a colleague behind the Iron Curtain in 1951.

The right-wing nationalist weekly Deutsche Zukunft of Essen said Burgess helped John, former West German chancellor, escape from Germany in the Second World War.

This report came as the supreme West German prosecutor instituted kidnapping charges against Dr. Wolfgang Wohlgemuth, a Berlin doctor who vanished with John, Communist East Berlin July 20.

Police said proceedings had been started against Wohlgemuth and other persons "for deprivation of liberty with intent to endanger the state."

ONE A GESTURE
But since Wohlgemuth, a known Communist, has gone into East Berlin, West Berliners considered this announcement a gesture aimed only at bolstering the argument that John was an agent of a government that John was lured across the border by deceit or drugs.

John himself said in a radio broadcast from East Berlin Wednesday that he "followed the voice of my own conscience" when he went.

The Deutsche Zukunft backed up its contention that John once had important dealings with Burgess by reporting that the British diplomat met John in Spain in 1942 when the German was leaving for an anti-Nazi underground movement. John backing of 40 Tory rebels, argued in a voice trembling with emotion that the whole British position in Spain has been outdated by "the appalling developments and the appalling spectacles which imagination raises before us."

LABOR SKIPS CHANCE
"Merely to try to imagine in outline how to portray the first few weeks of a war as it now... would convince you of the obsolescence of the base."

The official Labor party policy was to abstain from the voting, but five members broke this ruling to vote with the government.

In abstaining, the socialists, who have long urged Churchill to get out of Egypt, skipped a chance to overturn the government by teaming up with the 26 Conservative rebels led by Capt. Charles Waterhouse.

The final voting tally shows that more than half of the Commons abstained.

Welcomed At Government House

TO CONFER WITH PREMIER AND PROVINCIAL HEALTH MINISTER

OTTAWA, July 29 (Special)—Health and Welfare Minister Paul Martin is leaving Ottawa today for a tour of the Maritimes in connection with new health projects and to discuss disability pension legislation passed at the last session of Parliament with provincial premiers and welfare ministers.

He expects to reach Charlottetown some time on Saturday and has arranged for conferences with P. E. I. Premier Alexander Matheson and Health and Welfare Minister Earle MacDonald. Discussion will be centred on health projects in the Province and the federal-provincial arrangements concerning disability pensions.

Mr. Martin will be crossing from P. E. I. to Nova Scotia on Monday but will return to the Island on Wednesday when he will be the guest of honor and will speak at the centenary of St. Dunstan's College. Himself an orator of distinction and a highly-skilled debater, Mr. Martin was keenly interested in the success of St. Dunstan's debaters in the intercollegiate contests a few months ago.

Hon. Paul Martin

His Honour Lieutenant Governor T. W. L. Prosser, yesterday extended his cordial welcome to the Civil Air Patrol Cadets of the United States as they called at Government House on their tour of Eastern Canadian centres. The visiting cadets from the country to the South made a deep impression by their friendliness and politeness and made many friends during the luncheon at The Charlottetown extended to them by the P.E.I. Air Cadet Committee.

New Move To Unseat McCarthy

WASHINGTON, (CP)—A new move to unseat Senator Joseph McCarthy (Rep. Wis.) will be launched after the November congressional elections, Leroy Gore, chairman of the "Joe Must Go" club, announced Thursday.

As outlined, this will be a far more elaborate drive than the one that failed last spring. Not only will the "Joe Must Go" people be after signatures from Wisconsin voters, but they will also launch a national campaign to persuade citizens to write their senators.

The aim is to make sure that, if Wisconsin votes to unseat McCarthy, the Senate will go along with the decision.

Gore's announcement came as the Senate prepared for what Senator William Knowland of California, Republican floor leader, said would be a "full dress debate" on moves to censure or investigate McCarthy.

May Be Strike In Fishing Industry

VANCOUVER, (CP)—British Columbia's fishing industry, source of livelihood for an estimated 50,000 persons, appears headed for strike trouble.

Shoreworkers in the fishing canneries and camps have voted to reject a conciliation board award and to ask for a government-supervised strike vote.

United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union (Ind.) officials said Thursday the 3,200 cannery workers are asking a 20-cent general wage increase, 40-hour week, improved overtime, guaranteed piece work rates, statutory holidays, compulsory checkoff and other concessions. Tendermen seek a $30 monthly increase.

Last wage boost in the industry, union officials said, was in 1951 and present pay is "deplorably below the level of other basic industries in B. C."

Churchill Wins Vote Of Approval

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill, overriding a rebellion within his own party, won an overwhelming vote of approval in the House of Commons Thursday on his government's decision to pull British troops out of the Suez Canal zone.

The House supported Churchill's evacuation policy by a vote of 287 to 26 after hearing a government declaration that the possibility of an H-bomb war has made the Suez base obsolete.

Churchill staked the life of his government on a motion demanding approval of the agreement with Egypt (introduced Tuesday) which calls for transfer of the 80,000-man British garrison from Suez in 20 months.

Churchill, trying to rally the backing of 40 Tory rebels, argued in a voice trembling with emotion that the whole British position in Suez has been outdated by "the appalling developments and the appalling spectacles which imagination raises before us."

The official Labor party policy was to abstain from the voting, but five members broke this ruling to vote with the government.

In abstaining, the socialists, who have long urged Churchill to get out of Egypt, skipped a chance to

Duke Of Edinburgh Likes Heat Of Canadian Summer

By DAVE MCINTOSH
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA (CP)—The Duke of Edinburgh Thursday stepped into the heat—80 degrees and more—a Canadian summer. He promptly shed his uniform of a marshal of the RAF and went for a swim in the nippy waters of an outdoor pool.

It was typical of his homey, feet-up day after arrival at Uplands airport by RCAF plane to begin a three-week visit to Canada.

The formalities were over in just 10 minutes. Governor-General Vincent Massey and Prime Minister St. Laurent greeted the duke on a red carpet at the foot of the aircraft ramp. They said they were pleased to welcome the duke back to Canada. He said he was pleased to be back.

ROYAL SALUTE
There was a royal salute, inspection of an air force guard of honor, presentation of cabinet ministers, diplomats and the chiefs of staff and then Philip, looking relaxed and genial, was off to Government House with a smile and a wave for the applauding crowd of 2,000.

At Government House, residence of the governor-general where the royal guest will stay until Sunday morning, Philip changed into civilian clothes.

Man Burned In Vessel Explosion

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—One of two Burin, Nfld., men, burned in an explosion on a fishing vessel last Saturday, died in hospital here Thursday. The other victim is in "fair condition."

Basil Bartlett, burned when a welding apparatus exploded, died from the burns which doctors said covered 60 per cent of his body.

Frank Isaacs, the second victim, has been taken off the serious list and is expected to recover. The two men were flown here from Burin Sunday.

10 Persons Killed By Crashing Plane

TEL AVIV, (Reuters)—Ten persons were killed and scores injured at the Israeli settlement of Naagan Thursday when a civilian plane crashed into a building crowded with spectators during a ceremony unveiling a memorial to Second World War paratroopers.

Israeli Premier Moshe Sharett was attending the ceremony, but first reports said he was not hurt.

YUGOSLAV CLERGYMAN GIVEN LONG PRISON SENTENCE AT HARD LABOR

CETINJE, Yugoslavia (Reuters)—Bishop Arsenije Bradavac, 71-year-old Orthodox Metropolitan of Montenegro, was sentenced here Thursday to 11 1/2 years hard labor for "conspiring against the Yugoslav state."

Judge Petar Lekovic, reading the sentence to a packed court room, said the Serbian Orthodox Church leader, after arriving here as Metropolitan in 1947, formed a group of five priests with the aim of "forcibly overthrowing the government in Yugoslavia."

The Metropolitan, a sprightly old man with black robe and white beard, heard the sentence with a slight smile.

GAVE REASONS
The judge gave the following reasons for concluding that the Metropolitan aimed at overthrowing the government, based on the evidence of three of the priests in the alleged group:

Bishop Arsenije in frequent meetings before 1953 in his study room and kitchen convinced them that the Yugoslav government was unstable and the monarchy would return.

He convinced them that the Soviet Union was likely to attack, in which case Yugoslavia would join the western camp, and that President Tito on his visit to London in 1953 might make concessions to the West.

He made them believe there was dictatorship and persecution in Yugoslavia.

HOSTILE ATTITUDE
The judge said this was all aimed at arousing a hostile attitude among the population with the aim of overthrowing the government.

Bishop Arsenije received a sentence of six years to run concurrently with the 11 1/2 years.

Youth's Body Is Taken From Water

YARMOUTH, N. S. (CP)—The body of Carl Allen, 15, who drowned Wednesday night while swimming at Arcadia, four miles from here, was recovered Thursday.

Man's Body Found
In Tourist Cabin
WATERVILLE, Que. (CP)—John Barroll, 57, of Charlottetown, Md., was found dead Thursday in a tourist cabin in this town near Sherbrooke, 110 miles southeast of Montreal.

Police said the man drove into the motel alone Wednesday and rented a cabin for a day. The owner of the motel found the body when he entered to see if Barroll had checked out.

Police said Barroll was probably a diabetic. An insulin kit and instructions on taking insulin were found beside the body. They said an inquest will be held shortly.

Farmer Killed By Circular Saw

PERTH, N. B. (CP)—Harold Imman, 43-year-old district farmer, was killed Thursday night when struck by a whirling circular saw blade which had broken loose from its axle.

His 13-year-old son, Percy, who witnessed the accident, jumped into the farm truck and raced nearly a mile along a bumpy road to get help. When he and his mother returned, Mr. Imman was dead.

The accident occurred when the saw's arbor-bearing snapped, releasing the flywheel.

Surviving are his widow, father, a brother and eight children, ranging in age from nine to 21.

Patients Return To Their Hospitals

TOKYO, (Reuters)—More than 800 tuberculosis patients Thursday returned to their hospitals after spending two days jammed together in the concrete corridors of the Tokyo city hall.

They have been protesting against a government decision to cut nursing staffs and reduce the time patients should spend in hospital. As soon as the patients had left the building, cleaners began to disinfect corridors and other places that they had occupied.

Exhausted by extreme heat and two sleepless nights spent on concrete floors, the patients left for their hospitals on the advice of doctors and city officials.
