CROSSING THE FLOOD.

There is a stream, whose narrow tide
The known and unknown worlds divide
Where all must go;
Its waveless waters, dark and deep,
'Mid sullen silence down ward sweep,
With ceaseless flow.

I saw where, at the dreary flood,
A smiling infant prattling stood,
Whose hour had come:
Fearless of ill it neared the tide,
Sank as to cradle-rest and died
Like going home.

Followed, with languid eye, anon,
A youth, diseased, and pale, and wan;
And there alone,
He gazed upon the leaden stream,
And feared to plunge—I heard a scream,
And he was gone.

And then a form in manhood's strength,
Came bustling on till, there at length,
He saw life's bound;
His shriek and raised the latter prayer,
Too late—with shriek of wild despair
The water drowned.

Next stood upon the sargeless shore,
A bereft being bowed with a more
Of toilsome years.
Earth-bound and and he left the bank,
Back turned he dimming eye and sank,
Ah! full of fears.

How bitter must thy waters be!
O! death! how hard a thing, ah! me,
It is to die.
I mused,—when to the stream again
Another child of mortal man
With smiles drew nigh.

"'Tis the last pang," he calmly said,
"To me, O death, thou hast no dread;
Saviour, I come!
Spread but thine arm on yonder shore—
I see; ye who bear me o'er—
There is my home."

A MISTAKE IN THE WEIGHT.—Andrew Wyman was like Lord Byron in one respect. He had a great horror of growing fat. What added to his apprehensions on this score, was the fact that his father, before he died, attained a degree of rotundity which would have enabled him to fill respectably the office of Alderman.

Andrew was five feet eight inches in his stockings, and weighed one hundred and forty-five pounds—a very respectable weight —within which he endeavoured to keep himself, by the free use of vinegar and other acids, which are reported to diminish any tendency to pinguidity.

Andrew was in the habit of weighing himself once a fortnight, in order to make sure that he was not transgressing proper bounds.

He had been absent from home rather more than a week, and just stepped out of the cars in the depot, when his attention was arrested by an instrument for determining the weight.

Mechanically he placed himself on the platform, and adjusted the weight to one hundred and forty-five. To his surprise he found it not sufficient.

With an air of alarm he had advanced it five-pounds—still indifferent. Imagine his consternation when the scales fell at one hundred and seventy pounds!

My stars! said he to himself, "There can't be any mistake about it—I've gained thirty-five pounds within a fortnight! I was afraid it would be so It was with my fathers before me. At this rate I shall go beyond him in a few weeks."

He entered the house with an air of settled melancholy upon his face, much excited the fears of his wife, who had come forward to greet him after his absence.

"Why Andrew—Mr. Wyman—what's the matter?" she asked.

"Matter enough!" he groaned. "I weigh one hundred and seventy five pounds! Gained thirty pounds within a fortnight—or at the rate of fifteen per week. Suppose I should go on at this rate, or even ift ten pounds per week, in three months I will be perfect matter. I am the most unfortunate of men."

"I am sure that you don't look any larger," said Mrs. Wyman. "You don't find that your clothes have grown small for you."

"Why no."

"I'll tell you what, Mr. Wyman," said his wife, struck with a sudden idea, "are you sure you did'nt have your valise in your hand when you were weighed?"

Andrew's face brightened up.

"Wait a minute," said he.

He sped out of the house like an arrow—flew to the depot, and renewed the experiment.

A moment after he entered the house again his face glowing with joy.

"You've hit it, wife," he exclaimed. "I've weighed myself again, and weighed one hundred and forty-three."

BOILED POTATOES.—Cut cold boiled potatoes in slices lengthwise, quarter of an inch thick; dip each slice in wheat flour, and lay them on a gridiron over a bright fire of coals; when both sides are browned nicely, take them on a hot dish, add a bit of butter, pepper and salt to taste and serve hot.

A gentleman travelling inside a coach, was endeavouring with considerable earnestness, to impress some argument upon a fellow passenger who was seated in the same vehicle, and who appeared rather out of approbension; at length, being slightly irritated, he exclaimed—"Why sir, it's as plain as A B C!" "That may be," quietly replied the other, "but I am DEF."

An Old Proverb Falsified.—On the 15th instant Mr. Benjamin Bird, a bachelor, aged 70 years, was married at the Roman Catholic church on Fifth street, Cincinnati, Ohio, to Mrs Julia Chaf, a buxom widow of 30. So the old Bird was caught at last by Chaff.

The man who tried to sweeten his tea with one of his wife's smiles, has 'fallen back' on sugar. Nothing like first principles after all.

A child in Congress-Street was cured by the Soothing Syrup of Infantile Dysentery or Diarrhœa after being given over by the attending Physician.

Mr. Blackman, of Eddington says, it has never failed to cure the Dysentery or Diarrhœa in children whenever used in the village. Lots of it is sold.

One parent informs me his child has suffered to an alarming extent, with Flatulence and Wind Colics. Lately they have used the Soothing Syrup, and it always effects a speedy cure.

Hundreds of like instances might be enumerated.

Hear the Brooklyn Daily Advertiser, of June 13th 1853.

We cheerfully comply with the request of a friend to insert the following letter which we are assured is from a lady of the first respectability, residing in Lowell, Mass., believing that a vast amount of suffering may be prevented, and many valuable lives saved, by adding the information here given to this valuable prescription of an old and experienced nurse:

Dear Sir:—I am happy to be able to certify to the efficiency of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and to the truth of what it is represented to accomplish. Having a little boy suffering greatly from teething, who could not sleep at night by his own account, not permit any of the family to do so, I purchased a bottle of Soothing Syrup, in order to test the remedy, —and when given to the boy according to the directions, he was quieted in a few minutes, fell asleep, went to sleep, and all pain and nervousness disappeared. We have had no trouble with him since; and the little fellow will pass through with safety the excruciating process of teething, by the sole aid of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Every mother who regards the health and life of her children, should procure it.

This may certify, that for about four years I was seriously afflicted with a disease in the hip, which Physicians pronounced Neurology or Sciatic Rheumatism, and resorted to various remedies without any permanent relief; have been under the care of a regular Physician for six months at a time. Last spring, had a very violent attack, which laid me on my back. I made use of the Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by Messrs. Curtis & Perkins, of Bangor. It gave me immediate relief, and I am happy to say to you, that it is the best article I ever used. I cheerfully recommend it to all who may be afflicted with similar complaints.

Hunter's Balsam.—It is not often that we can say anything favorable of patent medicines, on the testimony of those with whom we are acquainted, twho have used and tested their merits. But in regard to Hunter's Balsam, we can say to our fellow citizen, Jeremiah Curtis, Esq. we have the testimony of many of our own citizens and those of neighbouring towns, unanimous in its praise. The testimony of one individual with whom public are acquainted, carries with it more weight than whole columns of certificates from strangers, whose faces we never saw, and whose characters, for aught we know, may have been procured by fraud. INDIAN DISPEPSIA PILLS,

For cure of Costiveness, Acidity of the Stomach, Bilious Headache, Heartburn, Dizziness, Heat and Burning, Pain in the Side, Lung and Liver Complaints.

DYSPEPSIA AND IDIGESTION,

With Costiveness, Acidity of the Stomach, Heart Burning, Bilious Complaints, Headache, Loss of Appetite, and general Debility,—can be remedied, removed, and entirely cured, by the use of the Indian Dispepsia Pills. These Pills have effected the most astonishing cures in hundreds of cases of the above complaints, and are an invaluable remedy, in an especial manner, for Dispepsia. They are mild and safe in their action, operating mostly upon the blood, cleansing and purifying the same, and causing the digestive organs to perform their appropriate duties, with regularity.

COSTIVENESS.

Habitual Costiveness is, if not removed in time, a cause of more than half of the disorders and pains to which humanity is subject. The medicines too generally had recourse to, do more harm than good, as they weaken the peristaltic action of the bowels, and thus aggravate instead of removing the complaint.

Also, in all Bilious Diseases, attended with Pain in the Side and Right Shoulder Blade, with a dull, sallow countenance. In all Diarrhœa, Ague and Fever, Bilious Fever and sick headache, they are an invaluable Remedy.

They will be found the best Family Physic in the world, purifying the blood, restoring the appetite, and leaving the stomach and bowels in a healthy state. Price 25 cents per box.

For purifying the Blood we do not believe these Pills have their equal in the world.

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as in most cases it will be found to exert a more speedy and permanent effect, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attentidn of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

Read and be Convinced.

The "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," says of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

"It is satisfactory to us to recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, tp the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of destruction, but a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

"Scott's Weekly," said, Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon a weak system."

MORE EVIDENCE.

J. G. Moore, Esq., of the Daily News said, October 31st:—

"DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken the contents of two bottles, and we have derived more benefit from the experiment than we had previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Hon. C. D. Hinsline, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J. says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. The inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and that upon the system it exerts upon nervous prostration, is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine is as universally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system, the great majority of real and true diseases emanate. Give them in a healthy condition and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine has our confidence, and we have at all midspeed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce evidences of the same merit."

For sale wholesale and retail by

THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Arch street, next door below Sixth, Philadelphia, and by respectable dealers generally throughout the country.

The proprietor, in worshipping Age, it is rare to find a man place his usefulness to the public, before his interest. During a late visit to the 'City of Spindles,' we were presented by a professional friend, to the celebrated Chemist, Dr. J. C. AYER, whose name is now perhaps, more familiar than any other, at the bedside of sickness, in this country. Knowing the unprecedented popularity of his medicines, and the immense sale of them, we had expected to find him a millionaire, and rolling in wealth. But no, we found him in his laboratory busy with his laborers, among his crucibles, alembics, and retorts—giving his best personal care to the compounds, on the virtues of which, thousands hang for health. We learned, that notwithstanding his fame and success, and its prompt returns in cash, the Doctor is not rich. The reason assigned is, that the material is costly, and he persists in making his preparations so expensively, that the nett profit is small.—American Farmer, 1851.

Notice to Travellers.

IT has become an established fact that accidents will happen notwithstanding the care and attention which may be paid to the safety and convenience of travellers; collisions will take place, bridges will be left open, and cars run off the track as usual.

It is well enough for the public and legislators to caution passengers "to be careful," and "take heed," yet these casualties will occur, which result in severe contusions, broken limbs, burns, bruises, &c.

The 'Mexican Mustang Liniment.

Upon such occasions, is invaluable! The wonderful effects of its soothing and healing properties have rendered many who have tried it, to always carry a bottle of it with them when they are travelling.

Frequent tests have proven it to be efficacious in curing Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofulous diseases, Cancers, Ulcers, Old Sores, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Bruises, Scratches, Cracked Heels, Chafes, Galls, &c., on Horses and other animals. It is external in its application, and we GUARANTEE it to cure PERMANENTLY in every case for which it is recommended.

Many Physicians use it because they can depend upon it—so can their patients.

To Farmers and Livery-stable Keepers.

Say they will have it, and will not be satisfied without it, after giving it a fair trial. Therefore we say to travellers upon highways and by-ways use the Mexican Mustang Liniment, as it is now so thoroughly introduced throughout the United States, British Possessions, and West Indies, that it is almost impossible to find a place where it is not known without beholding the gay banner of the "Mustangs."

The prices are as follows:—25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 per bottle; the 50 cent being three times as large as the 25 cent size, and the $1 size nearly three times as large as the 50 cent size, so that the large bottle is the cheapest.

AYER'S PILLS,

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for the CURE of all Bilious Diseases—Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Fevers, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammation of the Bowels, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female complaints, &c., &c. Indeed, very few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required, and much success and suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; besides it soon generates serious and often fatal complaints. This fact cannot be too strongly by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative, which is alike true of Colds, Feverish symptoms, and Bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which baffle the keenest all over the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing anything hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the eminent gentlemen to whom we are allowed to refer for these facts, are

PROF. VALENTINE MOTT, the distinguished Surgeon of New York City.

DOCT. A. A. HAYES, Practical Chemist of the Port of Boston, and Geologist for the State of Massachusetts.

IRA L. MOORE, M. D., an eminent Surgeon and Physician of the City of Lowell, who has long used them in his extensive practice.

H. C. ATWATER, Esq., one of the first merchants in New York City.

C. A. DAVIS, M. D., Supt and Surgeon of the United States Marine Hospital, Chelsea, Mass.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred such names, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but perhaps more even convincing than the certificates of these eminent public men is shown in their effects upon the trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete remedy the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies attracted by chemical process, in a state of purity and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more effectual cure than had before been able obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. What is the object of all compounded every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities; by this, each individual virtue only that is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each ingredient are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effect should prove as they have proved some of our remedies, and the full strength of the best manure, also a Farm on the south side of said Creek, containing about 95 acres, 20 of which is under cultivation, the rest is in extensive Marsh, the land of an excellent quality rises from stone, including a good Mill privilege where an overshot of 20 feet can be got with little expense, being already dammed over. These Properties will be sold either together or separate, and will be sold on reasonable terms, and are well worth the attention of any person, being in the heart of an extensive settlement, and a good Harbour. They are situate about one quarter of a mile from the Cocagne Bridge in the county of Kent, and about 6 miles from Shediac. Should the above not be sold previous to the 3d of October, they will be offered at public auction on the premises on that day.
