Witnesses Tell Of Seeing Fight

Oliver Burns, a Sea View pensioner said in court yesterday that he saw Keir MacKay of County Line Road strike Harold Joseph Miller on the face early in the afternoon of Oct. 22. According to Burns, the blow was struck following a conversation MacKay had had with a man named Layton Colson, who was operating a potato digger in Miller's field that day. The alleged scuffle occurred shortly after MacKay had driven into Miller's potato field at Sea View, Mr. Burns added.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT
Appearing before Stipendiary Magistrate James B. Johnston, MacKay was charged with assault causing bodily harm. Following the testimony given by Burns and one other crown witness, Marjorie Mountain of Darnley, the case was adjourned until Friday, Nov. 13.

FINED $75
Pleading guilty to reduced charges of impaired driving, two Charlottetown men, William W. Partridge and William Barry Bevan, were each fined $75 and costs or seven days in jail. Driving while intoxicated was the original charge lodged against both parties.

A third man facing a similar charge had his case adjourned until Wednesday, November 4. Four speeders were convicted as charged and each fined $10 and costs or five days. A similar penalty was imposed on a Charlottetown resident who pleaded guilty to operating a motor vehicle without a driver's licence. Fines of $5 and costs or five days were imposed upon residents of York and Breadalbane for operating motor vehicles with defective equipment (lights etc). Under the Temperance Act a Hunter River man was fined $20 and costs or 30 days for the possession of intoxicating liquor in a place other than his residence.

SAW BLOWS STRUCK
Under cross-examination by defence counsel, John J. Holmes, Miss Martin stated that she saw MacKay strike Miller across the face two or three times. Miller did not appear to attempt to fight back, she added.

Fallen TV Idol May Lose Job
By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Fallen TV idol Charles Van Doren confessed in shame and anguish Monday that he was deeply involved in rigging the defunct, scandal-tinged Twenty-One quiz show.

Now Van Doren faces possible perjury charges in court, and perhaps an end to his $50,000-a-year television career and the loss of his teaching job at Columbia University in New York. For three years the 33-year-old English instructor had concealed, in fear and folly, he said, that the $125,000 he won on Twenty-One were dishonest dollars. The man who coached him, he told a House of Representatives commerce subcommittee, was Albert Freedman, the producer of the show. Freedman already is under indictment on charges of lying when he denied to a grand jury that the program was fixed.

ROUND TABLE IS RETIRED

Just the day before, Molter and talked with Laurel officials about arrangements for stabilizing Round Table for the $100,000 International. It had been announced several times that this would be his last race.

Round Table is owned by Travis Kerr of Oklahoma. Kerr bought him for $175,000 in 1957. Round Table has raced 66 times, winning 43 out of which 31 were major stakes.

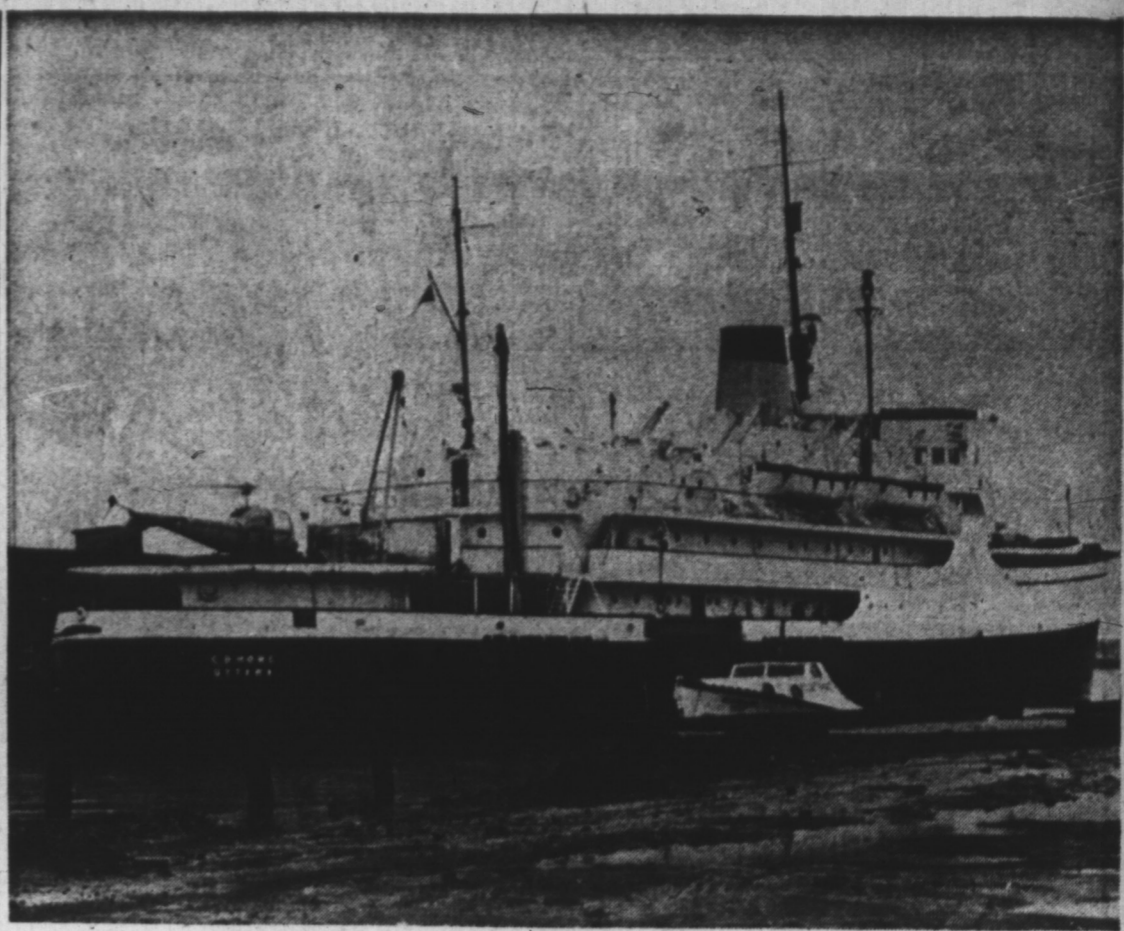

Sideswipe Injures One

Twelve stitches were required to close a cut on the forehead of a New Glasgow, N.S. woman following a two-truck collision on the Trans-Canada Highway in front of Ramsay's Service Station in the North River district last evening. Mrs. William DesBarres, was accompanied by her young son and husband who was operating a truck when they collided with another truck operated by John Ernest Moore of New Haven. The accident was described as being more of a sideswiping mishap than a head-on collision as, possibly, a few inches clearance on the part of either driver would have saved them from colliding. The injured woman was taken to the office of a Charlottetown doctor by Cutcliffe's ambulance for treatment. Her injuries were believed to be more painful than serious.

10 Cases Before City Magistrate

A resident of Alberry Plains, John McCully Wilson, pleaded guilty to a charge of drunken driving before Magistrate K. M. Martin, QC, yesterday. He first pleaded not guilty but changed his plea after having the evidence of the police. He will be sentenced on Wednesday. Also appearing in city police court was one speeder who was fined $30 and costs; six persons charged with being drunk and incapable; a non-support case in which the charge was withdrawn, and a motorist fined $10 and costs for failure to obey a stop sign.

West Indies Problems Outlined To Rotarians

"Cultural and trade relations" was the subject of an address before the Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon yesterday, by Rev. Roy Needham of Trinidad who is one of an international team presently touring the Maritimes in the interest of missions. "Trade connections between the West Indies and Canada, particularly through the salt fish of the Maritimes, has meant close contacts between the two areas for many years", Mr. Needham said.

Explaining the origin of the name "Trinidad", he told how Columbus in 1498 on his third voyage was confronted with a grumbling crew, and vowed that that he would give a sacred and holy name to the first land sighted. The three mountain peaks first visible inspired the thought of the Trinity, hence the Spanish name "Trinidad". Many Canadians reside in the group of islands now politically uniting in a West Indies Federation but many obstacles have to be overcome, of a nature not encountered in the development of Canada as a nation, Mr. Needham said. "However we are grateful for the hundreds of our young men now developing into leaders through the education they are receiving in many Canadian universities," he remarked.

"For a period of 300 years following the discovery of Trinidad, the Spanish influence controlled the religious activities of the people, until 1797 when freedom of worship was granted to the residents consisting largely of Spanish, British and French planters and African slaves.

RUM BUSINESS
An economic crisis developed when the Portuguese planters who drifted into the picture, diverted most of their activities to the production of rum. This business is now controlled by wealthy Chinese who also control the restaurants, laundries and small grocery stores. Under a five year contract, planters brought in a group of native East Indians who have exerted a tremendous influence on the racial elements, the significance of which one must grasp to visualize the present situation," Mr. Needham said. "There is no problem in Jamaica, where the colored people predominate."

Baptist Men's Group Plans For Evangelistic Services

Reid Sangster of Saint John, N. B., told the First Baptist Men's Association last night that there had been 300 first time decisions and 700 rededications for Jesus Christ made during evangelistic services in Saint John Baptist churches.

The spirit of this mission is still bearing fruit as decisions for Christ continue to be made, he declared. He told the well attended men's meeting, "what is happening in Saint John can happen in Charlottetown when you begin your special services Nov. 11th."

He also said that the success of the mission will be commensurate with the dedication of each member of the congregation even as the success of the Billy Graham campaigns are attributed by Billy Graham to the prayerful and active support of Christian people before each campaign. Plans were made for a men's choir to participate in one or more of the special services. Discussion was held regarding ways and means the men might better serve to promote the success of the coming evangelistic campaign. Supper was prepared and served by members of the Friendship Group who were thanked by Claude Whitened and responded to by Mrs. John MacInnis. The devotions of the evening were conducted by Nelson Robinson and George Lewis and the season of song by Bruce Lewis and Sterling Inman.

"... wherever you go"

One of the happy things about owning a Volkswagen is that wherever you go, efficient service is always close at hand. To serve you, as a Volkswagen owner, Volkswagen maintains a network of 280 authorized service-centres from the Atlantic to the Pacific... a dealer-service organization which is backed by a central 5-million dollar Spare Parts Depot. A Factory-Training School at Toronto as well as Mobile Schools in the various provinces, ensure the consistently high standard for which Volkswagen mechanics have become known. And when you think of it, isn't this the kind of service you would naturally expect from the company that was recently awarded the coveted Sperry Award "for advancing the art of transportation." After all, it was Volkswagen that first mass-produced a car with the engine in the rear... air cooling... torsion bars front and rear for independent suspension. This basic design has been maintained over the years and so has the superb workmanship... just two good reasons why Volkswagen enjoys such a high resale value. "Service wherever you go" ... go your way with peace of mind in a Volkswagen.
