

Island Photographers Take Top Awards In Competition

Photographers from Prince Edward Island won three of four top individual awards at the Maritime Professional Photographers Association's 24th annual convention which concluded in Shediac, New Brunswick, last evening.

Don Sears, of Summerside, who is president of the M.P.P.A., received the top award for the best portrait in the competition, and also won the third place in the portrait class.

His wife, Mrs. Sears, won the photo coloring competition, with a hand-colored Island scene, thus bringing two of the four individual first place trophies to the Read Studio which Mr. and Mrs. Sears own and operate in Summerside.

Ron MacArthur of Summerside won the color photography award with a color transparency photo of Niagara Falls. Continuing the husband-and-wife technical skill in winning prizes, his wife, Mrs. MacArthur, won an award of merit in the portrait competitions.

Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur own and operate the Heckbert Studio in Summerside.

George Wotton, of Summerside, photographer with the Charlottetown Guardian, won an award of merit in the commercial class with a shipping scene, "Inbound For Cargo," a photo of the Nopal Trader, the largest freighter ever

Miss Barbara Jewell, Toronto, W.M.S. secretary for younger groups in the United Church of Canada, was the special guest of the Ladies' Social Club of Borden United Church at a meeting in the church hall on Wed. da. evening, May 8th.

The meeting was under the auspices of the P.E.I. Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society. Miss Jewell was accompanied by Mrs. Ralph MacCaul, Carleton Siding and Mrs. Kenneth Mutart, Searletown, as Presbyterial representatives. Leaders and prospective leaders of younger groups in the surrounding areas had been invited to attend.

Mrs. Heath Jordan, president of the Social Club, welcomed the guests to Borden. A service of worship, based on the theme: "Jesus, The Light of Life," was led by Mrs. Kenneth MacCaul. The service was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lord of Life," with Mrs. Ralph Toombs at the piano. The Scripture lesson, Matthew 5:1-16, was read by Mrs. Jack MacIsaac and prayer was offered by Mrs. John Easton.

Mrs. Kenneth Mutart introduced Miss Jewell, who is a very charming young lady and a pleasant and fluent speaker. By conversation, demonstration and display of resource materials, she stressed the importance of missionary education in the younger groups, and the methods and materials to be used.

An informal period of questions and answers followed during which refreshment were served by the members of the Social Club including Mrs. Maurice Lodge, Mrs. Lorne Cousins, Mrs. Herbert MacKenzie, Mrs. Jack MacIsaac, Mrs. Arthur J. and Mrs. George MacKinnon.

On behalf of the Presbyterial Mrs. MacCaul thanked Miss Jewell and the Social Club for a very pleasant and profitable evening. Mrs. Heath Gordon expressed the pleasure of all present at having Miss Jewell in the club, and on behalf of the Social Club, Mrs. Lorne Cousins presented Miss Jewell with a small gift as a token of appreciation and a souvenir of her first visit to Borden.

At this point, Mrs. Colin Rodgers, a valued member of the Club, who leaves shortly to take up residence in New Brunswick, was presented with a farewell gift. An expression of appreciation of her work in the club, during her stay in Borden, was read by Mrs. Reginald Rodgers.

The meeting was brought to a close with a prayer by Miss Louise Calbeck, Bedeque, returned Missionary to Japan.

St. Stephen's W. A. Held May Meeting

Thirteen members of St. Stephen's W. A. and one visitor met at the home of Mrs. Harry Sudbury, Spring Valley, for the May meeting. Devotions were led by the president, Mrs. E. Profit. The treasurer reported the sum of $68.99, receipts since the beginning of the year, half yearly pledge to be paid this month.

The supplies prepared for shipment to an Indian Residential School were displayed by the Dorcas Secretary, Mrs. Everett Sudbury. In addition one quilt and seven pairs of knitted socks were handed in by the members.

The report of the April meeting of the P. E. Island Diocesan Board was read. Mrs. H. B. MacLeod gave a resume from the Study Book on the chapter dealing with Indo China. The June meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Ellis Profit. Lunch was then served by the hostess and committee in charge.

Stubborn Blaze Yesterday In Roof Of S'ide K. of C. Home

A roof fire at the Knights of Columbus Home on Central Street shortly after dinner yesterday to fight a somewhat stubborn blaze for a considerable period of time before bringing it under control.

Summerside firemen answered a call to 218 Duke Street to the home of Mr. Wilfred Perry about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon where some oil being used for cooking caught fire in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice LaFleche.

Mrs. LaFleche had the presence of mind to throw a mat over the flaming oil. She then took the oil soaked mat to the bathroom where she threw it into the bathtub. Immediately the flames came to life again and shot up the wall catching on the plastic curtains and plastic wallpaper. Considerable damage to the bathroom resulted, as well as smoke damage to other rooms in the house.

Lunch was served by Margaret MacNevin, Jane Fletcher and Ethel Muthhead. Meeting closed with prayers.

FOLK DANCES

The following meeting was a social evening with invitations being extended to the other Young Peoples Groups of Summerside. Archdeacon G.R. Harrison, D.D. extended a welcome to those present and also introduced Dr. F.W. Jelks from St. Pauls Church, Charlottetown who later instructed the group in some very interesting folk dances.

The remainder of the evening consisted of games and lunch served by the executive of St. Mary's St. John A.Y.P.A.

The flames were ignited by a chimney spark that landed on the tinder-dry shingle roof and damage was heavy to the main portion of the roof that resisted firemen's efforts to extinguish it for over half an hour.

There was also considerable smoke and water damage to the apartment in the building occupied by Mr. Wilfred Perry.
