It has been another big week for the boys in khaki with Sunday's storm making training difficult.

Upstairs Sunday was a gala evening for the troops of the Men's Canteen and the Recce Band.

There are plenty of 'hooks' and 'pips' to be wet in the near future as several of the units have announced promotions.

The Field Ambulance under Lt. Col. J.K.L. Irwin has just released the promotion of Officer Cadet Donald F. MacEachern.

The Recce Regiment has two new sergeants in the persons of Cpl. George B. Orford and Tpr. C.B. Alken.

The Officers Mess will also have two new additions with J.D. McIntyre and W.L. Thompson taken on strength by appointment as officer cadets of the Recce.

The same regiment has also added 10 names to its roll with the following joining as troopers.

Bridge players among the officers will have something to play for on Saturday nights in future.

The 28th L.A.A. Regiment this week sent a party of four from this city to join the Montague Troop in a firing party at the funeral of Archie Hume.

The Orderly Room is once again without the services of WO2 Pat McGrath who has returned to his regular duties in Stellarton, N.S.

teammates are hoping to see him in first class shape soon again.

There is a rumor current in local military circles that a distinguished Lieutenant Colonel of the recent war is being prominently mentioned as Honorary Lieutenant Colonel of the P.E.I. Regiment.

When Andy MacRae comes home on furlough this month he will get a royal welcome from his former brother officers of the Recce.

Sincere regret is felt by all the boys in the loss of his belongings sustained by Tpr. J.M. Gallant in the apartment house fire here last week.

SSM. (Smokey) Shaw has returned to duty after his visit to Halifax. He should be ready now for the crib tournament.

The Summerside Crystals reversed Saturday's verdict at Crystal rink last night defeating the R.C.A.F. Meteors by the score of 8 to 4.

The Airforce boys opened the scoring but the first period ended with Crystals leading 2 to 1.

The game was cleanly played for the most part tending to get a bit rough in the final minutes.
