

WHAT'S INSIDE THERE?

SANG IN SUMMERSIDE

The Eastern Nazarene College Volunteers quartet sang at the Summerside Church of the Nazarene on Tuesday, July 2nd. The personnel of the quartet is as follows: first tenor, George Myatt, Waltersburg, Pa.; second tenor, Fred Stiles, Ebensburg, Pa.; baritone, Branson Roberts, Scottsdale, Pa.; bass, David Wayman, Pittsburg, Pa.

A representative traveling with the group will speak briefly about Eastern Nazarene College, a Christian College offering liberal arts degrees in fourteen different fields located in Wollaston Park, Quincy, Massachusetts.

BEDIQUE

Miss Marion Douglas and Mrs. Pat Magee, Saint John, N.B. were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson. Congratulations are being extended to Eric Jeffery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Jeffery, Lower Bedique, who stood high in his class at the Summerside High School during the past term. Mrs. Stanley Jack, of this village, is spending some time in Ontario, with her husband. Mrs. Walter Leard's many friends will regret to learn that she is confined to her home because of an accident in which she fell on the floor of her home recently. Mr. Ernest Johnson is visiting his son Robert in Halifax, N.S. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Johnson of Chatham, N.B. were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Johnson Jerry is stationed with the R.C.A.F. in that town. The C.G.T. and Sigma C groups of the Cape Traverse United Church held a delightful banquet recently. A farewell gathering in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Archer, was held on June 21st. in the Tryon United Church. A presentation of two nice chairs, together with a well filled purse, was made to the popular pastor and his wife. Mr. Austin Tombs acted as chairman. Speeches, suitable to the occasion, were made by Mr. George MacKay, Mr. Hedley Murtart and Rev. Lindsay R. Graves, pastor of the Tryon Baptist Church. Mr. Archer has been pastor of the Tryon United Church since the past four years and will take up his duties on his new charge in Antigonish, N.S., early in July.
