By STUART LAKE
OTTAWA (CP) — Saskatchewan hockey risks may be the testing ground for two new playing rules next season.

The CAHA had an income of $40,774 in the year ended Dec. 31, 1966, and had a net deficit of $29.

President Jack Rosburgh said Sunday he will recommend that Canada not enter the Olympics until the cash is changed so as to make a distinction between professional hockey players and those who play the game but do not make their livelihood from it.

The first change does away with the centre red line except to determine icing the puck in a fraction. It allows attacking players to pass from their own zone to the opposing team's blue line.

Only the fouled player can take the shot and he must fire before going beyond the line. Defending players line up to blind their own goal line and attackers outside the blue line.

PLAY WOULD CONTINUE
Play continues if the shot is not successful.

The man behind the suggested changes is Frank Boucher, a member of the New York Rangers for 29 seasons and former commissioner of the eight-team Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League.

Secretary-manager Gordon Jukes in his annual report said the CAHA registered 143,000 players in 1961-62, the largest number in the history of the association. The total for the season before was roughly 130,000.

Victoria Group Submits Bid For Franchise

VICTORIA (CP) — A formal application for a Western Hockey League franchise was submitted by seven businessmen hoping to bring professional hockey back to Victoria.

Enclosed in a letter sent Saturday to WHL President Leader was a certified cheque for $200, a good faith bid and an accompanying letter from Memorial Arena manager Jack Morgan.

The Victoria application will be placed before WHL directors next week at the annual league meeting in San Francisco.

However, the Victoria application contains the provision that the bid be discounted should a proposed working agreement with Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League not be completed by June 18.

Sale of the Vancouver Canucks franchise is expected to be announced next week.

Three groups are bidding for the Canucks, now owned by the Pacific National Exhibition.

One of the bidders, Harry Ornest, is seeking Toronto support. If Ornest is awarded the Vancouver franchise, Victoria's hopes for a working agreement with Toronto would appear slim.

Pender Suffers Scalp Injury

BOSTON (AP) — Paul Pender, recognized as midweight boxing champion in Massachusetts, New York and Europe, suffered a severe scalp injury in an automobile accident Saturday.

The gash in the fighter's forehead near the hairline was sutured at Harley Hospital by his physician, Dr. Nathan Shapiro.

Pender told police another car cut him off at an intersection and he smashed into a hydrant as he served to avoid the vehicle.

FAVORS DEATH PENALTY

LONDON (AP) — An Anglican bishop who urges retention of the death penalty in Britain reported it helps to soothe up murderers for salvation. The Rt. Rev. Maurice Harland, 65-year-old Bishop of Durham, told a committee of the House of Commons he opposes a resolution for abolition of the death penalty for at least five years.

Montealer Captures Hot Springs Tourney

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A Montreal tapper in a seven-foot birdie putt on the second hole of a sudden death playoff won the $20,000 Hot Springs invitational golf tournament Sunday.

Bill Collins of Miami, Fla., already had dropped a six-foot putt for a par three on the 135th hole at that point, trailing by one stroke.

Johnston, 27, practically an unknown on the United States Professional Golfers Association tour, ripped from two strokes behind Collins with a six-under par 64 at that point, trailing by one stroke.

Collins was the only one who could catch him. He was at 2,000 yards awaiting Collins at the 18th hole.

Couldn't Act Any Differently Says Goldstein

NEW YORK (AP) — Referee Ruby Goldstein told a state legislative committee Monday he could not have acted any differently in the fight that took the life of Benny (Kid) Paret.

"He wasn't down, his two feet were firmly on the ground," Goldstein said. "The first time I saw his (Paret's) back side I saw the referee stand (of the ring ropes), I stepped in and stopped it."

The committee began three days of public hearings Monday on whether boxing as a sport should be banned in New York State.

Before the probe began, slow motion pictures were shown of the welterweight title fight at Madison Square Garden March 24 between Emile Griffith and Paret which resulted in Paret's death.

Hammered into Insensibility in the 12th round, Paret lingered in a coma before his death April 3.

Goldstein and GG Clancy, manager of Griffith, were the first witnesses to appear before the committee. Both extolled boxing as a sport and insisted that it was a ladder of success for many underprivileged boys.

Bobby Hull Says Season Too Long

OTTAWA — (CP) — Bobby Hull, Chicago Black Hawk's prolific goal-scorer, says the National Hockey League season is too long.

"I'll bet Chicago made over $1,000,000 last year," said Hull, a five-year veteran of the NHL with 151 goals and two scoring championships over his belt.

"We were very tired against the Toronto Maple Leafs in the finals," he said. "After that rough semi-final against Montreal Canadiens, I guess we just didn't have enough left."

Hull, top goal-getter in the NHL last season, says he has no bonus clause in his contract for goal. "I'd much rather command a higher salary and be without it."

The business-like leaf-wager said his contract does call for a matcher from the team for any league bonuses he gets and estimates this earned him $12,000 last season.

Hull is part owner of a farm at Denonville, 10 miles north of Picton, Ont., and says he is toying with the idea of buying a loving ally in Chicago.

Cassius Clay Stops Daniels

NEW YORK (AP) — Young Cassius Clay stopped Billy Daniels on cuts in the seventh round of a battle of unbeaten heavyweights at St. Nicholas Arena Saturday night.

Referee Mark Conn halted the contest at 2:21 of the seventh of the scheduled 10-round televised fight because of a nasty cut over Daniels' left eye.

"I'll hammer his vision," said the referee. Daniels was a gashed over the eye in the third round and bled freely the rest of the way.

Although Clay, a 5-foot-10-year-old, had a good lead, he didn't show too well against the 25-year-old barber who twice hurt the cocky Kentuckian with long fists or longer.

The 20-year-old Clay had predicted "Daniels will fall in five" but he couldn't even finish his six-foot-four, 189-pound opponent. Clay weighed 191.

It was Clay's 16th victory in an all-winning pro career and his 11th knockout.

Daniels suffered his first defeat after 16 victories.

All three officials had Clay well ahead. Referee Connie Aldida and Leo Birbaum each had it 4-2.

YCAZA FINED, SUSPENDED

Outsider Greek Money Captures Preakness Sat.

BALTIMORE (CP) — (AP) The Brandywine Stable's Greek Money, an 11-to-1 longshot, snatched victory in the $150,000 Preakness stakes by a nose Saturday.

Jockey Manuel Ycaza of Panama, an 11-to-1 longshot, snatched victory in the $150,000 Preakness stakes by a nose Saturday.

Sunday, Ycaza was suspended for 10 days and fined $200 for a "trivious claim of foul" and for using "unfair tactics."

In announcing their action, Preakness stewards said they also were recommending that Ycaza's suspension be extended 20 more days by the Maryland Racing Commission. A 10-day suspension is the longest that can be assessed by stewards, but the commission can levy heavier penalties.

The 23-year-old Ycaza claimed Rotz had caused interference as the two front-runners staged their stretch battle.

However, after viewing films of the race, the stewards assessed Rotz and penalized Ycaza instead.

FINISHED SECOND
Ridan finished second, Roman Line third and Vimy Ridge fourth in the field of 11. Decidedly, the winner of the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago Saturday, finished eighth and Jaipur, the co-favorite with Ridan, was 10th.

Greek Money ran the 1.316 miles in 1:56.15, 52th across of the Preakness record National set in 1955.

The winner paid $23.50, $9.40 and $5.20. Roman Line $8.50 and $6.20 returned $3 and $3.50 and returned $3.50.

Chief Steward Joseph Flanagan said "Ycaza at the finish of the race leaned against Jockey Rotz, with his elbow across in an effort to hamper the latter."

Ycaza's foul claim was the first ever lodged against a Preakness winner in 86 runnings of the classic, the second in the triple crown of racing for three-year-olds. The Preakness was inaugurated in 1865.

practically in Rotz's saddle as the two horses appeared to brush when they charged under the wire.

Rotz had finished second in the 1961 Preakness with Globe-master when Carry Back just caught him at the wire. Ycaza had piloted Ridan, who was favored in the Kentucky Derby and finished third.

Rotan claimed that Ridan, who races in the color of Mrs. Moody Jolley of Hialeah, Fla., had bolstered his horse several times during their stretch duel.

All eyes were on the battling leaders as they came down the stretch, one of the longest in racing, before 33,854 screaming fans. The temperature was in the upper 90s.

At the finish the leaders were 5 1/2 lengths in front of Roman Line, the second horse in the Kentucky Derby.

Roman Line is owned by T.A. Giasom of Detroit. It was another 1/4 length back to Frank Power, Vimy Ridge.

Ridan had led by a head over Greek Money's Jaipur after three-quarters of a mile. Greek Money coasted along in 6th place.

Suddenly Jaipur collapsed, and Ridan was challenged by Greek Money when they swung into the straightaway for home with less than one-quarter of a mile to go.

Greek Money got his head in front, but Ridan put on another desperate burst as Ycaza whipped him. Ridan moved in front

Money and Rotz were 'bumped'

Rotz did in again and Greek Money responded to gain the narrow verdict.

Those who watched Decidedly waited the late news that brought him victory at Louisville, Ky., over Roman Line and Ridan. He swung wide turning for home as Bill Hartack called on the California "bred colt, owned by George Pope.

Decidedly, who came up from seventh place, charged down the middle of the track to fifth, but suddenly ran out of gas and fell back about an eighth of a mile out.
