KELLOGG'S unswerving policy has been to give maximum value of quality products. At the same time, it has long followed a consistent course of bringing its story into Canadian homes... from Halifax to Vancouver... through Canadian daily newspapers. The newspapers of Canada have been an immense force in making the name "Kellogg's" one of the best and the most trusted names in Canadian homes. Indeed, they have done far more than that! By greatly increasing the demand for Kellogg products, they have made it possible for the Kellogg Company to introduce increasingly better methods of cereal manufacture... higher and higher quality products... ever more sanitary packaging, which brings these cereals oven-fresh to Canadian kitchens. With all this emphasis on quality, the Kellogg Company has kept down prices to the consumer so that—amazing as it may seem—Kellogg's Corn Flakes, Canada's most popular breakfast, actually cost less than one penny for a generous serving!
