IN MEMORIAM

MAY — In fond and loving memory of Louis W. May, who departed this life May 15, 1955.

He is gone but not forgotten
And as it dawns another year,
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of him are always near,
Days of sadness will come o'er us
Many think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow,
That lies in the heart concealed
Ever remembered and sadly missed by Wife.

DEATH NOTICE

MICHAEL MCCABE

On Thursday, April 2nd., there passed to his eternal reward, Michael McCabe, a life long resident of Iona. One of ten children born to John McCabe and Ann Rooney, Iona, Michael made his home with his twin brother Stephen. Although in failing health for the past few months, his death in the Charlottetown Hospital came as a great shock to his numerous friends in Prince Edward Island and particularly to his friends and neighbors in his dearly loved Iona.

Michael McCabe, a truly Christian and honorable gentleman, was a general favorite with his associates, and will be sadly missed by them in the years to come.

His genial smile and warm handshake were extended to friend and visitor, and it was truly a pleasure and a privilege to visit his home. His unfailing courtesy and consideration to both young and old typified his greatness of heart, and well merited for him the respect and affection of those with whom he came in contact.

Mr. McCabe was ever the helpful neighbour and staunch friend. A faithful member of St. Michael's Church, he was attended by his devoted pastor, Rev. Leonard McKenna, who administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

He was also a life long member of St. Michael's Choir. To the members of his family go the sympathy of all, but most especially to his wife and twin brother Stephen, his dearest and closest companions.

He leaves to mourn one sister, Mrs. James McGarry, Charlottetown, and three brothers, Frank and Stephen, Iona, and Leiut-Col. John Pius McCabe, Toronto. His mother and father, and brother, Rev. William McCabe, predeceased him but a few short years ago.

The numerous mass cards and letters of sympathy received by his relations, testify to the very high regard in which he was held.

His funeral, under the direction of the Hennessey Funeral Home was held on April 4th., to St. Michael's Church and was very largely attended. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Leonard McKenna, assisted by Rev. J.W. McCardle, deacon, and Rev. Clifford Murphy sub-deacon. Rev. Urban Gillis occupied a seat in the sanctuary.

The pall-bearers were: Michael Morrissey, Michael Flynn, Michael O'Brien, Joseph Roach, James Connolly and Edward McKenna. Interment took place in the church cemetery. R.I.P.
