

Blood Donors Enjoy Refreshments

In Memoriam

FRANCIS L. ARSENAULT

There passed away peacefully at the Prince County Hospital on Feb. 4, Francis L. Arsenault of Woodstock. All his life had been spent in this district, where he had made farming his life work, and where he will be sorely missed. He was ever ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need—strangers as well as friends always found a cordial welcome in his home.

A faithful member of the Roman Catholic Church, he died fortified by its last rites. He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving father, the following sons and daughters: (Olive) Mrs. Gerald O'Brien, who resided with him; Felix, Woodstock; Elmer of Rumford, Maine; (Julia) Mrs. Nell MacIsaac of Saint John, N. B.; (Clara) Mrs. Dorice Gallant of Duvar; (Emily) Mrs. Ben W. DeRoches of Miscouche. Fifteen grandchildren, thirteen great grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Catherine Gallant of Woodstock, also survive. His wife the former Mrs. (Agnes Martin) and youngest son Donald predeceased him several years ago.

His funeral, which was largely attended, was held at St. Anthony's Church, Feb. 7th. The funeral Mass and burial service were conducted by his beloved pastor, Rev. M. J. Rooney. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Edward Martin, Peter Gallant, Roy Arbing, Alban Arsenault, Eusebe Arsenault, and Terrence Gallant. R. I. P.
